ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Abigrael Halo-Hymn is a spiritual writer who reveals why Yeshua (Jesus) is Lord and Saviour. It is for this reason the anonymity of a pseudonym is required to present such information to avoid developing renown (celebrity).

The Book Of Job – Reveals So Much

Job's friends wanted him to understand he was wrong to consider himself upright and righteous before the Father – but they were unable to demonstrate why. They were, as it turns out, correct – because Job lacked the faith required to trust in God.

You see... Job feared the dreadful things that happened, before they happened, which means he was not complete in his faith. A soul that is complete in faith has no fear of anything because the trust in God is complete.

The story of Job, however, declares the friends were in error – because they sought to turn him away from God by trying to assert their counsel: when Job was quite capable of asking the Father in Heaven to explain what His motives were.

The Book of Job then reveals the pride Job had in refusing to accept the Will of God but he, eventually, learns to appreciate: God reserves the right to do as He pleases.

This means God wants to counsel each individual (personally) because those who consider themselves anointed, to preach the Word of God, cannot know how to bring a person to perfection given the fact they have enough to deal with: in trying to walk upright before the Father in Heaven themselves.

This is to say... the author is simply seeking to do the Will of God – which is to bring the gospel (untarnished by apostasy) to the world so people may prepare themselves for the Day of the Lord – and, as such, the author has no interest in proving anything.

This book may feature examples that show how false doctrines, of apostate religion, causes the Name of God to be defiled – but the author is seeking to be informative and not assertive – because everyone has the right to make up their own minds.

The author is like any other person who is struggling to overcome in the Name of God – so it would be appropriate to give glory to the Father, and not the author, if the text has helped in any way.

The glory belongs to Yeshua ben Yosef (Jesus son of Joseph).

Therefore, it would bode well for the reader to remember the insights and revelations, contained within the pages of this book, are not intended for – the purpose of – setting up a church that is recognised by the (current) government in the world.

The author has (often) been invited to establish a formal church: but the Word of God does not permit a hierarchy to take root among the flock. Therefore, the author seeks to bring the gospel (good news) to those who recognise the need for a saviour.

The words, “Render unto Caesar what is Caesar’s, and what is God’s unto God,” means allow the system of government, established by man, the opportunity to learn how to function effectively – so everyone has the right to decide how to live.

The day (world) government denies us the opportunity to seek the countenance of the Father in Heaven is when the Righteous Elect (Son of Mans) will intervene – and the information learned within this book will become standard tuition. Until then... the government system founded upon political tides has the right to either:

- 1) Get it right – and fulfil the Law of God.
- 2) Fulfil prophecy – resulting in the return of the Son of Man.

Perhaps this book will help the ruling elite to understand the only way forward is to manifest the Name of God – by renouncing all the work of satan.

Either way... everyone has the best wishes of the author for a long and happy life.

TEACHER CONFIDENCE

As you know - the church will be judged before the nations in this world.

I've been asked to do this ... so I'll start by reassuring everyone - the word 'judgement' in scripture refers to the process by which a person is brought to the full knowledge of the Most High.

The climate is quite hostile for the approbation of truth - these days - because people imagine their (own) truth is authoritative. I, personally, don't think the world is ready - but I trust the Father so this article is prepared, by His decree, for those who look to Yâhushúa as their Lord and Saviour. I am aware a pupil will only listen to a teacher they respect - so I have called this article 'Teacher Confidence' to let everyone know I have the confidence of the Most High.

First of all ... I need to draw attention to the Edenic Covenant in which God promised Adam and Eve - they would return to the Garden 'East of Eden' some day. Yahushua told us this Heaven and Earth would pass away - which means all subsequent covenants were established to facilitate the Edenic Covenant.

If this Heaven and Earth is scheduled to pass away, the land people are waring over will mean nothing - so, the Edenic Covenant is weighted with salient authority. Scripture reveals key moments we need to consider if we are to understand how we have come to this point in our existence:

An Overview Of Creation

God creates the Heaven and the Earth then creates a sustainable environment in which a man and woman can live.

God warns Adam and Eve not to partake of the forbidden fruit of knowledge of good and evil - or they will die.

A charmer (serpent) deceived Eve, who then persuaded Adam, to partake of the forbidden fruit of knowledge.

God curses the serpent to eat dust, the woman to increased labour, and the man to toil. During this moment He tells the woman the introduction of sin will lead to the presence of evil (hierarchy) when He tells her: the man will rule over her.

God, then, says He will place enmity between the seed of the woman and the seed of the serpent - to ensure a filtering effect can purge the predilection to transgress the Word of God.

God then casts Adam and Eve out of the Garden 'East of Eden' with the promise their son will bring salvation. Adam and Eve birth Cain and Abel - and Cain murders Abel because God favoured the sacrifice of Abel and rejected Cains'.

God explains to Cain (every sinner) the only way to attain happiness is to do what is right - and warns him (us) sin wants to possess the soul: so he (we) must overcome it. Enoch, a righteous man, shows everyone it is possible to overcome and returns to the Father.

Noah is sent to bring rest - because the iniquity is so great: it threatens to destroy all of reality. God initiates the purging of sin when He introduced Himself to Abraham - to create the process of sanctification into the Name of the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit.

After several thousand years of refinement through Isaac, Jacob (Israel), David, Solomon etc - by introducing law and chastising - Yahushua was sent to proclaim the good news (Gospel) to the whole world.

Yahushua, then, sent out His disciples to preach the good news - but the growing church (Righteous Elect) fell into apostasy.

Reformers brought important changes - ensuring the scripture could be read by anyone: so the Righteous Elect would quietly grow - as true servants of the Most High. However ... even the reformation failed to facilitate the process of sanctification into the Name of God - because the heart is deceptive.

The time we are in (now) is called the Generation of the Son of Man - and judgement is due to release the captives from apostasy. This can only be accomplished after we appreciate scripture has duality - which means it bears fruit (knowledge) that is: good (correct doctrines) and evil (incorrect doctrines).

The mixture of these doctrines is deadly.

Does this mean scripture is the tree of knowledge of good and evil?

Well ... the word tree, in scripture, means authority and knowledge is only real if it comes from the Most High. Given the fact scripture has duality, in the way it facilitates understanding, it would be more accurate to say consciousness has the capacity to bear such fruit because interpretation yields such knowledge.

This is to say ... it is the relationship between the subjective soul and its creator: that can create a tree (religion) which develops objective knowledge of good and evil. These are the self-righteous people - who assert their own understanding of scripture as truth.

Thus, the tree of knowledge of good and evil is religion that has been created from the observation of nature or study of scripture - or meditation or philosophy etc. In contrast ... a subjective soul that placates the duality, within scripture, understands the process of sanctification into the Name of God can create a tree of life which manifests the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God.

If you want to receive your garments of glory - you must manifest the Name of God: just as Yâhushúa did to obtain His garments of glory (Re. John 17:6). This means it's time to stop playing the role and start living the role - by rooting out apostasy from the heart.

Take, for example, the name 'Jesus' which is a Greek to English translation. You should know the Saviour was called Yâhushúa - which means God saves - so it would be fitting to call the Lord Yâhushúa rather than Jesus.

It you cannot make that simple change - you are telling the Father in Heaven: you are resistant to change of ways.

Yâhushúa told us to be as one of the little ones - which means we should have a sense of awe for the Father in readiness to learn with a heart that is pure and clean of sin. Sin (lust for power) is lethal to the soul because it subjects the mind to delusion - which is a prison that is furnished with home comforts to lull the soul to sleep (in death).

The soul that refuses to awaken will die both physically and spiritually - especially if the person refuses to undergo the process of sanctification into the Name of God. Those who overcome into the Name of God will be spared from the great tribulation - which is intended to bring the haughty to humility - if they can be made humble.

Many will have the opportunity, during this time, to prove themselves worthy of the first resurrection. Those who have taken it upon themselves to rule over others - will initiate their utopian dream of One World Government.

However ... the Righteous Elect will return with Yahushua to establish the Kingdom of God. This will be the beginning of the end - in which everyone will have the opportunity to overcome into the Name of God: just as the Righteous Elect have already achieved.

People will ask, 'What shall I do?' and Yâhushúa will reply, 'Do as you wish ... but remember to place the Name of God in your forehead.'

That is when they will know His yolk is light.

APRICATE (IN) TRUTH

During the 1930s, the great scientific minds, such as Einstein; Schrödinger; Planck, et alia, developed Quantum Mechanics (which is also known as Quantum Theory). The quantum-mechanical atomic model has succeeded spectacularly, whereas classical science had previously failed, in explaining the microscopic universe.

However... for all its successes - it still hasn't resolved the Measurement Problem. This is the situation where they could see the particle displayed wave functionality but when they attempted to measure the collapse from a particle to a wave - the observation caused the particle to maintain particle functionality.

In other words... they couldn't measure the collapse of the wave function because reality is affected by the observation of the person making the measurement. This led to abstract mathematics that describe the nature of particles and wave function, to provide information about the probability amplitude of position, momentum, and other physical properties at the atomic level.

Quantum Theory was accepted but, Einstein never felt convinced it was complete because, the theory is open to infinite interpretations which led to some fantastic postulations that threaten the credibility of science.

The main contenders, of interpretation, include:

1. De Broglie-Bohm Theory
2. Many Worlds Theory
3. Ghirardi-Rimini-Weber Theory
4. Quantum Bayesianism Theory
5. The De Broglie-Bohm Theory

This interpretation of quantum theory shows the wavelength in the space of all possible configurations and an actual configuration that exists even when unobserved.

The explicit non-locality of the theory is intended to resolve the "measurement problem" because it provides a link between the probability density of a particle and the wave function as a hypothesis (rather than a basic law). Basically... this theory provides an equation to embrace the non-measurability of a wave becoming a particle that is measurable.

The Many Worlds Theory

This theory asserts the objective reality of the universal wave-function and denies the subjective reality of wave-function collapse. The hypothesis states there is an infinite number of (real) universes, and everything that could possibly happen has occurred in some other universe. Basically... the theory allows for the possibility of multiple universes to exist which means the wave-function is ubiquitous in some way - thus rendering all probability a reality.

The Ghirardi–Rimini–Weber Theory

This theory, which is often referred to as Spontaneous Collapse Theory, attempts to circumvent the Measurement Problem because spontaneity causes the particle's wave function to collapse without any consideration of the observer's role.

The theory is compatible with single-particle experiments, that do not observe spontaneous wave-function collapses, because spontaneous collapse is posited to be extremely rare. However... the theory still describes the observed phenomenon of quantum collapses, whenever we measure subatomic particles, because quantum measurement involves entanglement.

This is because the measured particle becomes entangled with other particles that make up the measuring device. Basically... this theory differs from other collapse theories because it proposes the wave function collapses spontaneously - and that diminishes the component of observation.

The Quantum Bayesianism Theory

This theory is the subjective degree-of-belief account of quantum probability, and is very similar to the Copenhagen interpretation that is taught in textbooks.

The theory is affectionately referred to as Qbism and is often considered a philosophical approach to the quandary of issues surrounding the Measurement Problem because it focuses on the observer being an integral component of the whole process. Basically... the theory deals with common questions in the interpretation of quantum mechanics about the nature of wavefunction and entanglement from a subjective point of view.

This, minefield of conjecture, was the result of the famous double slit experiment which caused the scientific community to scratch their heads.

What's happening at this moment in time is they are attempting to understand the relationship between the wave - which is characterised as a field of probability (spiritual) and the particle which is a measurable component of reality (physical).

They are aware consciousness affects experiments but they are trying to exemplify a means of determining experiments without consciousness causing an effect.

This seems comical to me - because the relationship between the spiritual and the physical is an intrinsic value of consciousness. The observation of wave-function collapse is causing the wave to change its functionality - thus they call it the Measurement Problem.

The scripture tells us: God said, "Let there be light. And He saw that the light was good." This verse is telling us three things:

1. The creator is a conscious being.
2. The words spoken was an audio wave.
3. The light seen is the observation.

This means the creator produced a field wave (spiritual realm) when He spoke and the observation of that wave then produced the particles (physical realm) because His consciousness allowed the wave-function to collapse into a particle.

This is to say... there is a triad of components that give rise to all of reality (as we currently recognise it). Technically speaking... when scientists conduct the double slit experiment - they are cognitive to the way consciousness allows the wave-function to collapse: the way we are told God created the heaven and the earth (spiritual and physical) in the beginning. This is to say... there is a spiritual realm interconnected with the physical realm and science is desperately seeking to understand the relationship between the two when it attempts to postulate theories that define the process of collapse.

The relationship between the wave and the particle is governed by the consciousness of each, and every, individual that has the capacity to exercise the freewill to:

- Worship the Father in spirit and truth or
- Worship something else - such as self

Science may choose to ignore the significance of the way consciousness governs reality - but they only reveal their desperation to deny the Word of God when they do.

Recently... science is postulating the universe is a two dimensional projection that gives the illusion of a third dimension like a Holographic Universe.

This theory is actually describing the interconnected relationship between the spiritual (dimension) and physical (dimension) that gives rise to the third dimension we are familiar with. Indeed... the relationship between the two dimensions remain a mystery because they do not recognise the significance of the conscious mind that allows the wave function to collapse.

Einstein said, "I'd like to think the Moon is still there when I close my eyes," but he has missed the point. It is going to be there as long as a conscious mind is able to allow the wave function to collapse.

According to scripture... God was the first conscious mind that allowed the wave function to collapse - and it is a marvel to see the conscious mind effect the wave function when we perform the double slit experiment to be fair

The scripture says, there must be at least two witnesses to make the Law of God effective - thus He may have rendered everything into existence: but He needed, at least, one more to establish all of reality. This is why the Word of God is personified in Yeshua HaMashiách (Jesus the Christ).

The question here is... when will science learn to appreciate consciousness governs all of reality? This is important because the introduction of sin caused entropy to enter into the equation and the more people apostatise from the truth the more the rate of decay will accelerate. Science is aware entropic values can variate - but they think this is caused by cosmological conditions within the universe (given the fact thermodynamics fluctuate throughout the regions of the cosmos).

The wave-function collapses because the conscious mind governs the relationship between the spiritual and physical - and, as such, there is no probability other than the freewill of the observer.

This is to render quantum entanglement, as a means to verify a theory, is nothing more than a glimpse of the relationship - because reality is made up of the spiritual and physical which is interconnected.

Atoms that seem to pass through objects are demonstrating the ability to fluctuate between the wave and particle because they are in a microscopic universe where the relationship is governed by the consciousness of mind.

What's important to keep in mind here is... the verses in Genesis tells us: "And God saw that the light was good." This means the reality - that had been created in the beginning - was 'good' which means: there was no entropic interference with the way consciousness allowed the wave-function to collapse.

There was a purity in the way this triad brought all of reality into existence - and it's important for people to understand: the more mankind becomes apostatised - the more interference consciousness will experience in allowing the wave-function to collapse.

Reality will dissolve away when the Christ mindset is removed from the presence of the serpent, who seeks to destroy all of reality, because the interference will cause entropy to accelerate exponentially. Science can see the tell tale signs of these things but they - in a state of denial - think they are a natural part of the way the cosmos has evolved and not the result of a flawed consciousness. The fact they postulate theories, that deny the way observation effects their experiments, is a testimony of arrogance to the reality of the situation. The interference pattern will remain an interference pattern someday. That is the day: this universe will dissolve away.

EXPLICATION OF IMMORTALITY

The Word of God is the promise of life eternal - and nothing has been more elusive than the way it delivers salvation because we are subject to the vagary of faith - and satan has worked relentlessly to apostatize the whole world - with doctrines that cause confusion and contention.

Yeshua explained: He spoke in parables to those beyond His circle and plainly to those within His scope of deliverance.

Yet... even after He explains the parables, in plain language, we are still required to ponder their meanings because they seem so strange.

The more we come to understand their meanings, the more we can see He was speaking plainly - which is (always) comforting to the soul that is seeking affirmation in the faith it belongs to the Father.

The words: "the Kingdom of God is already here," also seems strange when we see so much suffering and death at the hands of evil in this world. This is because the very definition of words like 'life' or 'resurrection' are not clearly understood - not to mention the apostasy that has polluted the Word of God with demonic doctrines to seduce the soul and inflate the ego.

The canonical scripture does give subtle references to the nature of the feminine and male aspects that define the abyss, on either side of the path to eternal rest.

I could cite and reference them to explain these characteristics - but there is non-canonical scripture that cuts straight to the chase where Yeshua explains: we need to be neither male nor female.

Those who read these sections, with carnal eyes, will be baffled by the notion of pursuing non-genderality the way we see people such as Lady Gaga promoting non-gender neutrality - as they seek to elicit a third gender type. They are lost in the delusion of the Wisdom of the Flesh which is described in the Gospel of Mary as part of the Seven Wraths that enslave mankind with chains of wickedness.

Yeshua was speaking more about asexuality than gender type, when He spoke of these things, because the procreation of 'life' procures children of light or children of darkness into this world.

The scripture always shows angels to be male in gender - because the male characteristic is faithfulness toward one spouse where purity can be maintained between the two who consummate their unity in marriage.

Yeshua may have said: there will be no giving and receiving in marriage in Kingdom of Heaven, because we will be like the angels, but the Book of Revelation clearly tells us the Son of Man will marry His bride.

This may be describing the way the All will be unified with the One - but this does not mean marriage (for the purpose of procuring life) will not take place. Yeshua said there will be no 'giving and receiving in marriage' not 'there will be no marriage.'

This is because the righteous elect will all belong to the Father so it is impossible for Him to give anyone away.

What I can tell you is... if you look to those verses: Yeshua was (secretly) warning the Pharisees He was quite prepared to expose the secrets they held against the people - and we can see they had the presence of mind to back-off at that point: because they could easily have asked Him to elaborate on the subject.

Instead... they fled knowing their ancient secrets were in danger of being revealed if they continued to badger Him.

So what are these secrets? Ahhh.... this is where things get interesting.

To see this... we must take a giant step back from all that we know and look to the contrasting difference between the ministry of Yeshua and the mystery religion (secrets) practiced by the illuminati or Sanhedrin sects of the Jewish Priesthood.

These two ways show how life is procured in this world or the next - and I have to admit: this even blows my mind: so fasten your head-belt coz this is going to be a wild ride.

First of all... please note we are speaking of the ancient secrets in contrast to the truth - so the fact I've placed the illuminati and the Sanhedrin Sect in the same light doesn't necessarily mean they are the same people (though I wouldn't be surprised if they are). The point here is to recognize there are only two ways to procure life.

One leads to the various religions that stumble before the Father while the other leads to life eternal (the way Yeshua successfully ascended to the Father).

The majority of religions that stumble before the Father may have a genuine desire in doing what is right - but they have been deceived by the demonic doctrines that pervert the soul to embrace pride. There are a small group of people who are aware of these things which is why Yeshua rebuked the Pharisees for holding the secrets but refused to let anyone enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Why?

They retain secrets to lord it over others in their vain glory - but this will all come to an end soon enough. I ask my brethren to appreciate I have made many sacrifices to find out these answers.

Sacrifices... the dark principalities will present out of context to try and destroy any confidence you may have in myself: but the Father (bless Him forever) has taken measures to protect me from them because they want to protect the secrets of the mystery religions in this world.

The mystery religion is basically: the worship of fertility which involves the perversion (destruction) of innocence for the favour of some god or gods to secure immortality - through the bloodlines.

Yeshua tells us: to be purified - we must renounce:

- 1) Idolatry
- 2) Sexual immorality

He said this because these two characteristics are the manifestation of the anti-Christ (satanic) mindset. The mystery religions (including the apostate church) have embraced these things - even though Yeshua called the church to repent of such things in the Book of Revelation.

The worship of fertility is practiced by the elite because they believe they are securing immortality through the continued bloodlines of their descendants - so their secret is to embrace the opportunity to immortality through the bloodline.

This is dynastic mindset which obsessed the minds of kings in ancient times and the elite of today. They practice the perversion of innocence to gratify the evil lusts of the reprobate angels who (we are told) decided to leave their heavenly estate to marry the daughters of men.

The scripture could have easily stated: The Watchers decided to change the male characteristic of their essence (being pure before the Father) to the female characteristic - in order to procure children of their own. Indeed... the scripture does tell us they engendered the giants - so we know the scripture has informed us of the way we can be male or female before the Most High.

Please note: this does not mean a male (which is a gender having male reproductive ability) or female (which is a gender of female having female reproductive ability) but rather - the description of two attitudes (spirits) that are presented before the Father in Heaven.

The feminine spirit is sexual immortality.
The male spirit is faithfulness to one.

It's as simple as that.

Therefore... a man and woman unified in marriage blessed by the Father in heaven is considered a male spirit when the two are faithful to one another.

Playing the field and sleeping around is considered a female spirit when a person is unfaithful toward others. If you look to the depiction of satan (the devil) as satanists perceive him you will see he is presented as both male and female.

This is the satanic depiction of the advancement of mankind to the double gender of androgyny. It is not something that scripture acknowledges in any way whatsoever.

God sees us as either male (faithful to one) or female (sexually unfaithful) with Yeshua describing a third to be neither male nor female. Therefore... satan (personified) is male and female as an androgenic life form while Christ is neither male nor female as an asexual life form.

The scripture (as St. Paul) states, quite clearly, it is better to be not married but if you are burning up with desire (lustful thoughts) it is better to marry.

Paul was basically telling us exactly what I've been talking about here - only he wasn't as elaborate in explaining why etc. The lack of explanation has caused many to fall into apostasy because his words seem to defy the scripture that tells us: 'it is not good for man to be alone,' or 'replenish the earth.'

These verses tell us we are commanded to procreate so you can imagine... the words Paul spoke of choosing to be in solitude can cause contention in the heart of those who want to do what is right - especially when scripture says: a good wife is a reward from the Father.

There's a conflict in these verses which atheists arrogantly call contradiction - when the truth is: there is always hidden manna in any scripture that seems to contradict or conflict - and this (fair play) is one of the biggest of them all - because it underscores the purpose of life.

The mystery religion pushes androgyny as an answer to immortality while Yeshua teaches asexuality as the answer to immortality.

What is going on?

Well... Paul was right to use the words: 'it is better to marry than burn up with desire' because God is willing to accept the male characteristic of the spirit and not the female characteristic of the spirit. Yeshua tells us only the solitude may enter into the bedchamber which means neither the male (which is acceptable) nor female (which is unacceptable) can enter into the bedchamber.

This is where the mind will blow with the sheer awesomeness of what is going on.

The answer to this actually illustrates the reason why we are in the flesh in the first place. We are here to learn restraint - which is constantly affirmed in scripture from Cain being warned about sin crouching at the door to vomiting lukewarm attitude.

We are required to learn restraint so we may be able to become male (in the next world) as and when the Father requires us to procure life - and how much strength must we show to accept solitude in this world when we know this means our gene will die off if we do not procreate.

The elite are obsessed with preserving the right to dynastic immortality - but that kind of immortality is opposed to the eternal life (immortality) offered by the Most High. It's hard enough to remain single - but the prospect of never having a family is even more difficult to accept (let alone embrace).

This is to say... Yeshua was instrumental in showing us the asexual (non-gender) way which allowed Him to do the Will of God was ultimately what led to His power to ascend - and defeat death. You have this power in you.

Now... I realize there are many who may see this and feel horrified they will not enter the bedchamber because they have married and had a family etc.

The bedchamber is where the marriage between the Lamb of God and His bride is consummated - when the All will become One as they rise to Eternal Paradise within the Holy City. A lot can happen between then and now - because the Millennial Rule of Christ will last a thousand years - and all the Father wants is for us to learn restraint so we can do His Will.

If you are married and you've remained faithful to your spouse - you'll have already shown how you can restrain yourself to not yield to temptation. The only difference is... those who made the ultimate sacrifice of living in solitude having no family in this world will reap the benefits of being able to partake in procuring children of light during the Millennial Rule - while those who had family now take the opportunity to learn restraint to enter the bedchamber in the end.

I hope this helps those who feel the pain of loneliness to understand - you really are being prepared for something greater: because the primary role of the shepherd is to select mates to produce more sheep.

DELUSION IS LETHAL TO THE SOUL

Religion = 99% lies with 1% truth

Truth = Good - and - Lies = Evil

This is a recipe for disaster because the mix of good and evil kills the soul with delusion.

Science Placates Naturalism

Mutation, for example, is direct evidence for speciation but only indirect evidence for transition making the Theory of Evolution appear to be true - when (in fact) it is lie.

This delusion sets the stage for people to doubt the teaching of Yahushua - which kills the soul.

Religion Placates Paganism

The God-Head, for example, describes the power of creation but is twisted to empower destruction - because idolatry of the Son and Mother is (in fact) a dreadful lie. This delusion sets the stage for believers to pervert the faith - which kills the soul.

Science seeks 100% truth - but it refuses to admonish naturalism: because it only accepts what can be 'observed'.

Religion claims to be 100% truth - which is why the delusion is greater in its capacity to fester arrogance among believers.

Delusion is lethal to the soul - because it is the knowledge of good and evil that locks the mind in a state of perpetual ignorance.

It is time for people to awaken from their slumber and remove information that it is counterproductive to good mental health.

THE BIRTH OF EVIL

This world is awash with confusion - as people chase the carrot, on a stick, thinking they will be delivered into enlightenment or wealth.

I am moved, by compassion, for them.

Subject matter ranges from Atonement to Theory Z - as they apply various principles to try and improve their situations.

I suppose it's only natural to pursue a perceived happiness - but the truth is: these ideologies are all nonsense intended to fortify a corrupt mindset. When I say 'corrupt mindset' I don't mean to imply people are intentionally evil - because the soul is - still - struggling to appreciate its own existence in this reality.

You see ... the world is under psychological attack, from malign influences, to embrace illusion - because illusion creates delusion and delusion makes the ego believe a cage is a garment that is adornable.

Perception adorns the garment (which is how the cage is created). Thus... we see arguments erupt when a cage is rattled. The cage is created by the application of:

- 1) empty promises - believed
- 2) religious deception - believed
- 3) threat of force - believed

These forces mold perception - to create the cage because belief acts as a lock.

1) Empty Promises

Empty promises include any predictive discipline such as science, politics or business management and even religion.

These may occasionally yield accurate predictions ... but they do not lead to a peace of mind - because the solutions they endeavour lead to other problems referred to as progress or challenges.

2) Religious Deception

Religious deception includes any set of doctrines that facilitate the pursuit of self-indulgence (and) or self-aggrandisement.

The belief in naturalism, for example, is indoctrinated by the Theory of Evolution.

This theory is a religious delusional belief because it, being unproven, allows the soul to worship the ego (which is the god called self).

False doctrines, within any apostate religion, serve to mask the pursuit of personal interests in righteousness - such as:

- 1) Christianity - that has hierarchy
- 2) Islam - that uses secularism
- 3) Judaism - that legislate priesthood
- 4) Pantheism - that dismiss perfection
- 5) Science - that foregoes the scientific method
- 6) Businesses - that formulate strategies
- 7) Politics - that assert policies

These seek to indoctrinate the mind with an illusion that empowers delusion.

I'm not saying the people in these disciplines are evil, in intent, but the delusion is staggering - because they all (actually) believe in the doctrines that secure their cages.

The deception, therefore, is not always intended - such is the power of delusion.

3) Threat Of Force

The threat of force (and actual violence) includes any enforcement such as police, military and / or any terrorist group intent upon asserting their ideologies.

Media plays a significant role in seducing the soul to worship the ego by bringing all three of these malign forces to bare.

They carefully orchestrate programs to show:

- 1) Politicians making promises
- 2) Science making discoveries
- 3) Businesses making jobs
- 4) Religion making people happy
- 5) Science making advancement
- 6) Countries making diplomatic progress

- 7) Police making society safe
- 8) Military making countries free
- 9) Terrorists making government legit

This is all nonsense designed to keep you from understanding the real cause of all the problems in this world - which is leaven.

Leaven is the ego that seeks to assert its own existence as a god.

Perception is malleable and, as such, it is subject to psychological attack to ensure it remains focused on nonsense so the delusion may continue unfettered. This is the front-line of the spiritual war.

Delusion is when a person assumes a level of knowledge that doesn't exist - which is why it makes the cage a comfort zone.

There are so many misconceptions simmering in the cauldron of tolerance - there's no wonder we see the world is awash with confusion. Even the word 'tolerance' has been misused - to justify evil intentions. Pedophilia, for example, is unacceptable - yet the ideologies that facilitate child abuse are tolerated - which means delusion blinds people to reality - and that's the whole point. Ideologies create a mindset that allows delusion to fester into areas that are evil beyond comprehension.

The worst case scenario - is one that radicalizes the soul to extremism.

The problem is... any mind, that is delusional, can follow a path to unimaginable evil - because a perceived truth is locked within the illusion: and such a mind will rationalize the deeds it leaves in its wake. It is, therefore, important to appreciate we are all - in part - responsible for the way things are: so it would be wise to remain sober as we awaken from the nightmare.

It could be said - any religion is a delusion: since faith (delusion) is the assumption of a knowledge that does not exist. However, the people who ascribe to a faith acknowledge their faith is a belief (because they understand it cannot be proven).

This is to say... those who argue theory is fact are in a state of delusion (because they assume theory is knowledge which philosophy describes as belief justified).

The path to extremism is germinated:

Muslims assume the knowledge of virgins in paradise after murdering infidels.
Satanists assume the knowledge of prolonged youth after sacrificing innocence.
Atheists assume the knowledge of no accountability after denying a creator.
Christians assume the knowledge of grace after pleading the blood of Christ.
Scientists assume the knowledge of progress after discovering something.

These delusions can fester into extremism which is why we see the world becoming darker and darker. To make matters worse... the situation is cyclical - because there is no answer in the pursuit of self-indulgence.

This article concludes with a link to this article - so, if you follow the links, you would end up trapped as you go back and forth between articles. Of course... that trap is easy to escape: since you can see the links are cyclical.

The point is: you cannot see the illusions created by the perceptions you have been indoctrinated into. This is how the soul is trapped in a state of delusion - where it will naturally pursue answers to understand its own existence.

The question (then) is: what is real?

This is no easy task - since the mind is powerful enough to affect the physical health of the soul. The only way to ascertain what is real is to break the delusion to expose the illusion. Only after we can see how false doctrines establish a foundation for delusion - are we in a position to broach the situation.

This includes any religion that uses scripture to set up hierarchy - or any philosophy that struggle to understand the nature of reality using scientific methodologies. In the end ... it becomes apparent - the prophecies in scripture: are calling us to transcend the illusions.

The Most High describes Himself as 'I Am That I Am' which, basically, means: He is the only thing that is real. The problem, then, is: if He is the only thing that is real - what does that mean ... and who can exemplify the perfect perception so we never enter any state of delusion?

The scripture has been misunderstood by all except Yahushua - and all, who misunderstood Yahushua, have exasperated the delusions. Yes ... Christianity is in a state of apostasy and few, it would seem, care to root out falsehood - but Yahushua remains spotless.

He was sent to manifest the Name of God - so He would fulfill the Royal Law.

Thus ... we can pursue that same ideal.

THE BAROQUE OF DEATH

This image (inset) is grotesque - in the way it depicts a true representation of what the wicked look like to the angels. Some may consider it 'cool' because they do not perceive or care about the spiritual realm and the consequences of impiety.

The image is not some demon but, rather, a person not fully formed as they burn up (inside) with passion - because they have accepted false doctrines that cause confusion (delusion). Knives emanate in various directions demonstrating the numerous lies they consider to be truths - the more of which depict how deep they are in the abyss - but they are blunt.

The knives are tipped with fire because a lie is sweet to the ego that seeks to ignite the innocent with the same burning passion within (because they are the lies they use to seduce). Pedophiles do this literally because they know a groomed virgin will be bound by the pleasures of the flesh they want to secure.

False teachers, including anyone who fosters hierarchy, do it ignorantly (and sometimes knowingly) of the effect their lies affect the souls of others.

If these people knew the horror that awaits them - they would repent immediately - but the worst of them have been deceived by the empty promises of the evil one (who speaks of immortality without resurrection).

They hear of stories about those who defy satan coming under demonic attack and they think such torment will never befall them - but they are in for a shock: because the demons only care about power.

They fail to appreciate demons sequester their source of power in three ways:

- 1) Torment - mental anguish
- 2) Torment - emotional anguish
- 3) Torment - physical anguish

...all of which are derived of lust for sexual gratification to inaugurate control.

This is the spiritual simile for evolution - which also fosters an elitist mindset in the world - and, as such, this the reason why there is a commonality between the two. The elite serve their gods with devout passion because they work in symbiotic reverence to effect the evil they perpetrate (together).

They push their false doctrines and ideologies, that make their evil appear innocent, and silence the victims to the grave: where the Most High hears their blood call for justice. That is the current climate they continue to operate within - but this will not be forever: for the innocent will have justice.

The Word of God has made it plain for all to know the nature of piety is to master humility in order to effect perfect equality. This is the symbiotic reverence that will establish the Kingdom of God (forever).

They, in contrast and open defiance, teach lies to create hierarchy so as to oppress and harm the weak with apostasy under the guise of righteousness - often in a state of delusion they do righteously.

All who take the Name of God in vain (including those who deny the Holy Spirit) will be counted as one and the same - for they are called wicked. This means... even Christians and Priests and Rabbis and Clerics etc are going to be held accountable for the doctrines they taught and deeds they did - because the Name of God will be glorified forever.

The Kingdom of God will not allude in secret or public to the sexual immorality or idolatry that allow people, or angels, to defile the Hallowed Name of God. We are in this world to learn how to be responsible with the power we have to create life.

We are here to learn the gravity of the situation regarding the very nature of reality - so we recognize the need to be pious. The New Age Spiritualists speak of raising the level of consciousness to transcend as the universe goes through fundamental change - which has a grain of truth.

However... they think the Ascended Masters are legitimate creators who manipulated the genome to create mankind (which is a lie). They say we must develop a loving nature to be able to ascend - which is part truth: because love (when it is true) has no impurity. However... no one can ascend to the Father unless they accept Yahushua was sent by the Father in Heaven - because He is the perfect role model.

A soul can only attain perfection if it knows Yahushua and seeks to emulate Him - so as to undergo the process of sanctification into the Name of God. This is why we are told to look up - the way Rebekah did when she met Isaac.

The people who preach apostasy may take the appearance (shown in this image) in the heavenly realm - but when this Heaven and Earth passes away: the substance will become vapourous. The consciousness of the soul will no longer be able to sustain any kind of shape as it struggles to don the garb of physical form.

Those who practice sorcery (now) will have minimal capacity to take form - when this reality passes away - so they will be placed in chains where the demons will ensure they cannot learn how to secure full manifestation by exacting torment upon them.

You see... satanists have been told Hell will be a place where they will party forever - so the demons guard them in this reality. What they haven't been told is: the demons will be the ones partying (after this reality passes away) as they exact torment forever on those who can take minimal shape in the eternal desolation.

Even those who practice idolatry and bow to the virgin Mary or worship angels are in perilous danger of losing everything. Those who are as vapour will suffer the mingling of consciousness with others - which may be likened to eternal schizophrenia where everyone is screaming in their thoughts.

This is not a pretty picture when you consider Eternal Paradise will be a place where everyone loves everyone unconditionally with lush green valleys and crystal clear rivers. Those who appreciate reality can only be eternal - when no one seeks to assert their own authority over another (the way Yahushua lived).

Eternal Paradise will have children playing in the fields - safe from any kind of danger. The Millennial Rule may allude to this - but the danger may still be present as everyone learns how to overcome into the Name of God.

This is no easy task - but it will be worth the effort to relinquish all trace of self to exalt others in perfect humility.

Yahushua is the only perfect example of that - and everyone has the opportunity to embrace His ways and fulfil the prophecies consigned to paper.

WHAT IS THE COVENANT?

The first covenant was between God and Adam where God promised Adam: he and his righteous seed would return to paradise. The most well known covenant (which is a binding agreement between two people) was the one that God made with Abraham.

This agreement was that He (God) would multiply his seed and make Abraham a father of nations and in return they would keep His laws and precepts and He would be their God. This, in effect, was the betrothal agreement to secure marriage between the Son of God and His bride.

Then, with Jacob: God affirmed the promises made before and so the marriage plans began to take shape. Which involved laying claim to paradise in return for keeping the commandments. Through the generations, God gave His people the laws through Moses (though the law was known by Abraham - so it existed before) and with the giving of the law: God gave them warnings as to what would happen if they broke the covenant. You could liken this to the bridegroom and bride discussing their future plans together.

Now... here is the thing.

God wants to see this marriage take place but it can only take place if the agreement is honoured by both sides. Through the generations - the bride persistently showed unwilling to honour her end of the bargain.

Even though God has kept His end of the bargain.

For example... Moses said he could not speak to the people and thus God told him to appoint Aaron to speak for him.

God said... he will become as a god to them - so this began to cause problems: considering the agreement was the Father in heaven would be their God - and not Aaron or Moses or any man for that matter

Fortunately... Aaron, being directed by Moses, who was in turn guided by the Father so - for the time being - the Father became accessible only via the appointed Levitical priesthood. God lead Israel into the fertile land of Canaan where they secured paradise on earth.

Then, Israel demanded a king.

This upset God (intensely) because it meant they were rejecting Him - at least that's how He perceived the demand. You see... scripture tells us a god is anyone that speaks and is obeyed - and God (the Father in heaven) has asked His creation from Adam and Eve to hearken to His voice - which is perfectly understandable.

Thus, when Israel had a priesthood (grudgingly established by God) and a monarchy (grudgingly established by God) - you can begin to see why the Father had issues with the Levitical priesthood and the Davitical monarchy.

Even when they were chosen by God Himself - He knew things would go wrong. The nation became stiff-necked and rebellious and even reveled in their iniquity. The psalms of King David tell us - there seemed to be nothing he could do to make Israel adhere to the commandments.

Still, the Father had plans to deliver His only begotten Son so He commissioned King Solomon to build a temple so Zion would, later, have the purity to conceive.

Unfortunately, Israel continued in her iniquities despite the warnings that the prophets gave. This placed the agreement (covenant) in dire jeopardy - so the Father spoke to Jeremiah concerning this and as always the Father also proceeded to declare future events to show how He intended dealing with the situation.

This is Jeremiah Chapter 33.

This chapter talks about the day and night covenant (which are the sacrifice offerings and ordinances) that was established during the time Israel was in the wilderness with Moses and Aaron.

God is saying here He always knew how the Levitical priesthood and Davitical monarchy would fail at some point - even though they were the best on offer. Even King Solomon (having great wisdom) fell short of the glory of God and though the patriarchs have served as wonderful examples - the Father has always had it in mind to perfect the bride.

We need to understand why God chose the solution He undertook to appreciate what was going on. On the one hand He had a rebellious nation, that is not much use to Him, and on the other hand He had a covenant He wanted to honour.

So God said they would go into captivity - then, a small remnant, who would be so shaken by events, would then return and be more susceptible to His will and keep the commandments.

With these people: He would deliver His Son (the bridegroom) into the world because they would ardently keep the sacrifices and ordinances to keep Zion pure. Zion, being the mother of the bridegroom, could only deliver her child if the sacrifices and ordinances were being kept. This is why the Father had to take measures to ensure Zion was not barren. She could only conceive a child if she was pure.

Thus, the nation of Israel (at the time Jeremiah prophesied) had to go through a cleansing to purify her in readiness to bring forth the bridegroom - and many of the tribes were scattered to the four corners of the world.

In time, some of the tribes would lose their identity and thus the search for the lost tribes would begin. In Zion however, we had a situation where the small remnant from the House of Judah was pure and ready to conceive the child.

This (as we know) was Yahushua: which means God was quite successful in making His plans bare fruit - regardless of the grievous nature of iniquity that was in the world. The thing is... God also told us (through Jeremiah) what would follow this wonderful event. He had obviously decided the Levitical priesthood and Davitical monarchy was in need of an immortal king / high priest that was worthy.

This (again) is Yahushua.

He, having been found worth to open the scroll (which was to understand the prophecy of Daniel), was in a position to further prepare the bride - ready for the marriage. As it turns out... Yahushua established a new covenant which did away with the sacrifices and ordinances.

The bride would now become the sacrifice and grace (under the blood of the messiah) would allow the ordinance of sanctification become a perpetual state of repentance to overcome in the Name of the Lord - just as Jeremiah prophesied (regarding the day and night covenant).

Jeremiah also prophesied that people would proclaim the Levitical priesthood and Davitical monarchy is no more. This is what the world is trying to do in these end days. Jeremiah goes on to declare: God has seen fit to ensure the priesthood and monarchy lasts forever - as surely as the heavens testify to His everlasting glory.

The rightful high priest / king will come to the throne (return to establish the throne) and through Him God's chosen faithful ones, which will include thousands from each of the twelve tribes, will greatly increase in fortune - both in heavenly and earthly terms. They will work with Yahushua to clear the way for paradise to receive the righteous seed of Adam.

The creation will then be complete when He (Yahushua) and all the saints cast their crowns to the throne of God. Having realized the Father has kept every promise He ever made. Every Brother and Sister will enjoy eternal equality - because that is the presence of the Hallowed Name of God.

CONCEPTION OF CHRIST

Christ was conceived the day God told Adam his son would save him.

This may seem odd because people refer to the modern translations that say Mary conceived Christ with the Holy Spirit. The modern translations have presented Mary was a physical virgin without the slightest inclination toward the spiritual pattern for the creation of life.

This is why it seems odd to say, 'Christ was conceived the day God told Adam his son would save him,' especially when we consider Adam has died and returned to the ground. The scripture also tells us God breathed into the nostrils of the man to give him the breath of life.

A person with a worldly perspective will imagine this in physical terms - in which the lungs were initiated to begin the process of sending oxygen to the brain so the person may achieve a state of being alive (in the world).

A person with a heavenly perspective will recognise this in spiritual terms - in which the Word of God initiated the processes, which facilitate the consciousness of the individual (in the heaven).

The way a person perceives something is determined by the predilection of their own heart to live in perfidy or faith.

For example, when we look to the original text that speaks of the conception of Yeshua: we can see how it allows the reader to follow: the understanding of his or her own heart or the wisdom from above.

This is to say... the text, in its original form, can be interpreted in two ways:

1. A worldly way (that is pagan in origin)
2. A heavenly way (the Word of God)

Here is an example...

Matthew 1:23-25 - Greek Literal Concordant

He perceived the young woman in belly will be having and will be bringing forth son and they will be calling the name of him Emmanuel which is being perceived after translated with us the God.

Being aroused yet the Joseph from sleep he does as towards sets to him messenger of master and beside he got the woman of self and not know her till of which she brought forth son and he calls the name of him Jesus.

These verses are focused on a future 'conception' of the Son of God and not the birth of Yeshua HaMashi'ach (Jesus the Christ) because the words clearly state 'will be having' which means the conception needed to be timed perfectly with the spiritual pattern for the creation of life.

The word 'virgin' is not mentioned anywhere in the text - because the literal word is 'young maiden' and not virgin. The words 'brought forth' are referring to the egg leaving the ovum - thus: we can see the 'messenger of master' (angel of the Lord) awoke Joseph when Mary had brought forth the egg ready for conception.

The modern translations, that say she was a virgin with child, say the angel aroused Joseph out of sleep to command him to accept Mary (even though this had already occurred in verse 1:20).

This means the modern translations are unable to accurately portray the account; because they seek to assert Mary had conceived without sexual relations with anyone - so they repeat Joseph was commanded to accept Mary.

A more accurate portrayal may include:

Verses 1:18-19 tells us: Mary was made aware the Holy Spirit had spiritually conceived Yeshua in an egg within her ovum - and this news was brought to Joseph while they were still engaged to be married.

Verses 1:20-21 tell us: Joseph was fearful of public humility but the angel reassured him Mary was for him.

Verses 1:22-23 tell us: Mary will be with child from the Holy Spirit when Joseph initiates the physical conception.

Verses 1:24-25 tell us: Joseph was told precisely when to take Mary (as a wife) before they were married to initiate the physical conception.

Thus... we can see a logical flow of events that allow us to understand what happened - when we consider there is a spiritual pattern for the creation of life. You see... verse 1:23 clearly states 'will be having and will bring forth' which means the physical conception had not yet occurred.

Otherwise... the verse would say 'is with child' - so we can see this account speaks of the spiritual conception that leads to a physical conception before pregnancy - leading to pregnancy.

These verses are subject to perception which leads to two types of doctrines.

The only way we can tell which one is right and which one is error is to look at the fruit of the doctrines. If we look to those who think Mary was a virgin, and not a young maiden, while pregnant: we see doctrines that make Mary greater than Yeshua.

This is why such believers carve graven images of Mary to worship her as the Queen of Heaven. The carving of graven images is a bad fruit because that is idolatry.

If we look to those who think Mary was made pregnant by Joseph after the Holy Spirit implanted the light within her ovum: we don't see any doctrines that defile the Name of God. However... those who want to believe in the Immaculate Conception will immediately say this denies the divinity of Yeshua HaMashiách.

This is not (quite) the case, because we are told the Holy Spirit conceived Yeshua pre-physical conception - so Yeshua retains His divine status. This means the text can cause a person to stumble before the Father if it is perceived in a worldly way or it can allow a person to walk upright before the Father if it is perceived in a heavenly way.

Now... I'm not interested in bashing doctrines here - so I apologise if this information is somewhat shocking. I need to clarify the position in order to progress beyond the 'stumbling block' and all are invited to see how it is beneficial to the soul when we are not stumbling in our understanding.

The scripture tells us after Yeshua was baptised, the Father proudly proclaimed Yeshua His Son who was born 'that day'. This means the Conception of Christ, that was initiated through, Mary took thirty years, after His physical birth, to be born.

This means He was the first to experience being 'born again' - into the Kingdom of God - and this becomes apparent after He overcomes in the wilderness.

This is to say the Conception of Christ was a spiritual event, which includes both past and future people who recognise the Christ mindset is when the Name of God is made manifest in reality. The Conception of Christ, therefore, includes the effort each person, in Yeshua, makes to overcome in the Name of God so they may be born into the Kingdom of Heaven.

Adam looked to the future 'physical' birth as we look to the past 'physical' birth of Yeshua - but the 'spiritual' birth is ubiquitous in the way it is past, present and future: such is the awesome power of the Father to breathe into the nostrils of man.

The Word of God (scripture) is the breath of life - and Yeshua personified the Word of God: even as we learn to personify the Word of God and become the truth in Christ with Yeshua. The Conception of Christ is eternal in the spiritual realm because the birth into the Kingdom of God is temporal in the physical realm.

This is why satan has a short time.

The satanic mindset, of elitist mentality, consider this physical realm to be a desirable place to live eternally - but the Father has placed constraints upon the limitation, in time, to let every soul have the opportunity (by their own freewill) to attain life eternal in Eternal Paradise.

The inevitability of death is what forces a soul to consider the option of adopting a satanic mindset or Christ mindset.

The satanic mindset is of the darkness and those who choose it will reap darkness when this reality passes away.

The Christ mindset is of the light and those who choose it will reap light when this reality passes away.

Thus... we have three types of human that is classified in non-canonical scripture:

1) The Material Kind

This is the satanic mindset: that refuses to accept entropy is an issue, as it seeks to secure immortality in defiance of the Word of God.

2) The Physical Kind

These are people who are free to consider the options of expressing a satanic mindset, darkness (that seeks to rationalise impiety) or Christ mindset, light (that seeks to exemplify piety).

These people may fluctuate between the expressive nature of their hearts - because the teachings of Yeshua have been perverted to apostatise the church. Many people want to do what is right: but the doctrines they hold to stop them from growing sufficiently in the spirit.

3) The Spiritual Kind

This is the Christ mindset: that knows how to place the Name of God in the forehead and: they know the Will of God and (righteously) call the world to repentance.

The Conception of Christ is an on-going process, within the linear aspect of time that allows people to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven while they are in the flesh.

Yeshua said, it is a marvel to be born into the physical... but it is a marvel of marvels to be born into the spiritual. He was aware His ministry carried a great responsibility of being the model of righteousness for all to learn how to be born into the Kingdom of Heaven: and walk upright before the Father.

He tells us we must deny ourselves (which is the natural urge to satisfy the self at the expense of others) and pick up the cross - which means we are to live a life of self-sacrifice to manifest the Name of God.

The Conception of Christ is when a person recognises the need to establish themselves within the moral authority of the Word of God as an example for all – even in the face of death - because the faith is in the resurrection into eternal life.

You have conceived Christ in you - and you honour the Father when you exemplify His truth - in perfect light - so others may conceive Christ in them as you are birthed into the Name of God. Death holds no power over Christ - because a spirit that is prepared in the physical unto the Father will receive its garments of glory.

...just as Yeshua did - when He ascended to the Father in Heaven.

Yeshua told us not to marvel upon these things - when He spoke of being 'born again' so I should remind all not to get drunk on the good news.

Now that you know the Conception of Christ includes all who repent and overcome in the Name of God - you should recognise the rock not fashioned by hand (that is cut out of the mountain) is the whole body of Christ. The remnant, that truly accept the Word of God and embrace the process of sanctification, will be with Yeshua when He returns.

These are exciting times indeed.

THE GIANTS: ELUIT AND NEPHILIM

Scripture tells us the Sons of God left their heavenly estate to take unto themselves the daughters of men as wives. The reason why this has been difficult to discern correctly is because the scripture is speaking about the beginning and the end of days simultaneously.

If we consider the Sons of God to be the righteous seed of Seth (in the beginning) and the righteous seed of Abraham (in the end) it becomes apparent we are looking at a situation where the angels (who made a pact to defile the daughters of men) rebelled against the creator by taking upon themselves the right to enter into those who would accept them.

This is called demonic possession and it is extremely benign - in that it is very difficult to know (for sure) if we are under their influence or not. The only way to know for sure if we are being influenced by the Holy Spirit or a Fallen Angel (demon) is to hold fast to the Law of God - which is fulfilled in the way we live in humility.

Humility is the key to understanding everything here - because perfection in the eyes of the Father (Most High) is when a person refrains from asserting authority over another - and this ranges from: sexual conquest to getting angry - to even something as seemingly innocent as idol worship. All sin is the failure to be humble when required to show humility and love to those who are weak and infirm.

This is where things get interesting though - because the Book of Genesis and the Book of Enoch speak of the Sons of God who took unto themselves the daughters of men. When we read through the verses, it's as if the Sons of God are being described as angels - but they are never called angels

To understand what is going on here we need to look to the Gospels where Yeshua tells us we will be like the angels - because it is then we can see the beginning and the end that describe these scenarios are in fact speaking about righteous men who fell from grace because they allowed demons (unclean spirits) to influence them.

There are further references to this in the Book of Daniel which tells us the last empire is depicted as feet consisting of 'iron and clay'. The word 'clay' in this part of scripture could be more accurately translated to mean 'mire'. Mire, as we all know, is unclean water.

Now... things should start becoming clearer here because water is usually used to describe the spirit... so 'mire' being unclean water is clearly a reference to demonic influence. Thus... the description: 'iron and clay' is a direct reference to people who are hard-hearted and under the influence of demonic possession.

Genesis and Enoch tells us the Sons of God took unto themselves the daughters of men and the daughters became as sirens and engendered the Giants, the Eluit and the Nephilim - and the breed of giants were men of renown.

This means that we are looking at a situation where hard-hearted people who are under the influence of demons being in positions of authority over others because they are: Men of Renown.

This means the three categories of giants are:

- 1) The Giants – Government
- 2) The Eluit - Masonic Order
- 3) The Nephilim – Illuminati

Scripture describes these giants in this way because they are observed in spiritual terms - which is why we wonder if the Sons of God are actually angels. They are the descendants of Seth (in the beginning) and the descendants of Abraham (in the end) who have allowed the reprobate angels influence them into fornication with the daughters of men. They are seen as angels because Yeshua tells us the Sons of God will be like the angels.

These are the Sons of the Kingdom who will be cast into the outer darkness where there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth. The daughters of men (who are described as becoming sirens) are the women we see in the nightclubs now all dressed up provocatively seeking partners - having lost their virginity: they are the sirens.

As for the physical presence of the Fallen Angels that are appearing as aliens:

Scripture tells us the Fallen Angels have no attire (clothing) thus when we see the images of aliens - we can be sure what they are because they do not have attire. I mean... surely... with all that technology... one would think they can make clothes for themselves. What will happen to these Fallen Angels (who are currently able to take on the spiritual form to influence people - in demonic possession)?

Well... scripture tells us - we will experience a great sealing when the tribes of Israel will have as many as 144,000 (12,000 from each tribe) - and this is when the wicked will remain wicked and the holy will remain holy. This is the moment satan will be cast out of heaven because he will be sealed within the bottomless pit with the key to enter into those who know the depths of satan.

This is when he will reveal himself in either one man or several men who are at the top of the New World Order he is currently building - and you will know who he is when he sets up an idol of himself: in the holy place - which is the temple mount in Jerusalem (Zion). Yeshua tells us to flee to the mountains at this time - so we need to be ready for that (if we are to remain here while He prepares the 144,000 to return with Him).

THE BABEL-ON BLUEPRINT

The Tower of Babel and the City of Atlantis are based on the same format - because they both exemplify demon worship.

The biblical account of the first civilization - speaks of the fallen angels teaching man how to establish power structure within a society. The City of Atlantis is said to have sunk into oblivion - which the scripture tells us was ordained of the Most High who sent a deluge to cleanse the creation of evil.

This was the civilization that emerged before the flood - which means: man had remembered the teachings of the fallen angels: and set out to recreate the City of Atlantis. This led to the Tower of Babel - which had the three classical pyramidal structures of: politics, religion and force.

1) The False Prophet (six)

Politics was the domain of the king who used the rule of law to maintain the system that kept the citizens docile.

2) The anti-Christ (six)

Religion was the domain of the priests who performed public sacrifice to reassure the citizens their gods were appeased.

3) The Beast (six)

Force was the domain of the generals who used military / policing to subdue those who defied from the rule of law.

It can be difficult to accurately separate these three sixes because they complement each other perfectly to manifest evil. The scripture tells us the Most High decided to confuse the people who were building the Tower of Babel - which led to the many different languages we see today.

This is why we use the word 'babe' to mean speak nonsense - even as it became Babylon: which is rooted in mystery (nonsense). It is interesting to note man has not relented in his desire to recreate the City of Atlantis because he is under the impression the beings that taught him how to create technology have legitimate claim over the creation.

Today... these people even worship Nimrod who established himself as the first king when he built the Tower of Babel.

This man single-handedly established the mystery religion, that is based on fertility worship, having convinced people the human race evolved from ape - so they would become dependent on a priest to appease gods for whatever they wanted.

Nimrod is even worshiped by Christians when they celebrate his birthday on December 25th - such is the pervasive power of the lies that have apostatized mankind. The thing is... the elite have an obsession with recreating the City of Atlantis. They look to the Tower of Babel as a blueprint for construction: even as they work with the fallen angels to implement their plans.

Of course... they are willing participants because they are promised power and immortality by the father of lies - which is literally documented in the Book of Genesis: when the serpent beguiled Eve to cause Adam to fall into a state where death has power over mankind.

This blueprint for a civilization that fosters hierarchical structure seems to have been repeated throughout history in every nation.

Even the Children of Abraham fell into the grip of satan when Israel demanded a king - because this led to the hierarchy they developed with the priesthood and their military to uphold the monarchy. The Most High gave them a solemn warning - things would deteriorate - which came true.

However... the Most High used the deposition of His sovereignty to deliver a Messiah who would conquer the world by letting everyone see the nature of evil when He exemplified truth as a light for one and all to embrace.

This is to say... the hallmark of the serpent is up close and personal when we look to the world and see the human race is plagued by the innate desire to establish hierarchy that oppress the weak and vulnerable.

This is the face of evil in this world - and it is smiling whenever a person asserts authority over another (even as they entertain lust or express anger toward another) because hierarchy empowers the dark principalities to dwell in iniquity as they torture those who love righteousness and purity.

The elite are recreating the City of Atlantis right under the nose of those they seek to enslave - but Yeshua is Lord and Saviour - to anyone who calls to Him with humility and love. The biblical account of the Tower of Babel and the City of Atlantis (first civilization pre-flood) offers us a crystal clear view of what is going on in the world in these end days.

Yeshua told us the end days would be like the days of Noah which means the Modern City of Atlantis will be on Earth - even as the elite are intent upon empowering satan to rule over mankind - which is why we are told the great tribulation will take place at this time. Just as the two cities of Sodom and Gomorrah suffered the indignation of the Most High - so too will Modern Atlantis / Babel see the Wrath of God - after they issue the mark of the beast.

You do not need to be a genius to recognize these things are going on - because we see video after video - article after article - of the way our world leaders are conspiring against Israel: in the name of peace. Whether they are aware of the malign influence of the dark principalities - or not - is inconsequential.

The reality is... prophecy is unfolding ever more rapidly and people are becoming more aware there is a choice they have to make. Fences are being torn down so people have to make a choice - sooner or later - lest they are lukewarm and beyond reproach.

The emergence of the Modern City of Atlantis will be the end of humanity - because satan is intent upon destroying all of reality like a spoiled brat throwing his toys out of his crib. Yeshua is the only hope people will have during these dark times - for He is the resurrection.

THE FALLEN ANGELS

I thought I'd check out some of the UFO videos and it seems it's getting to the point where the denial of aliens is ludicrous.

Some of the most prominent Ufologists out there are given to the strong delusion - because they think the aliens are a mix of good and evil... and this earth is like rehabilitation for the souls that are reincarnated - until we reach higher density of reality.

This is Buddhism and Mystery Religion.

They also speak about multiple dimensions where the various aliens exist - and there is (apparently) only one type that can shape-shift but they are mechanical in nature. This all sounds too convenient for the alien agenda - which is to subject all mankind to their plans for divine rule.

They seem to think the evil aliens (Draconian) are responsible for the bad things that have happened while the good aliens (Annunaki) are splicing the genes of mankind throughout history to help us evolve.

All of which goes to support the Story of Atlantis - because it allows the reprobates to paint themselves in a favourable light. The reprobate angels pose as good and evil aliens, because they do (actually) have the ability to shape-shift, so those who are dealing with the 'aliens' are leading us to believe there are different races of aliens in the universe - so we can be spoon-fed an elaborate story such as Atlantis.

These Ufologists go on to say the spiral that recently appeared over Norway was to warn Obama not to disclose the existence of aliens - or Airforce One would fly into one of these spirals.

Given the fact a commercial airplane recently vanished into thin air, I'm quite sure the aliens are against being exposed before they are ready to reveal themselves. This sounds like the reprobate angels because scripture tells us the anti-Christ will reveal himself - which means he will reveal himself when he wants to reveal himself.

They also speak of the vibrational energy of the universe raising which is causing the frequency of matter to increase and, as such, the cloaking technology of aliens (which they call masking) will fail, at some point, so they would no longer be able to conceal themselves. This means the 'aliens' are getting frantic over the situation because time is running out.

This, again, is in scripture: where we are told satan is aware he only has a short time - so he is filled with wrath having been cast out of heaven by Michael and the angels. Now... this may require some clarification because we read about how satan came to earth in Genesis and in Revelation and it's difficult to appreciate how he might have been cast out twice.

What's going on?

Well... Genesis tells us the reprobate angels left their heavenly estate, of their own free will, which led to them being thrown into a bottomless pit until the end days.

Revelation tells us about a star (which means angel) descended with the key to the bottomless pit - so we can see the reprobates have been released which means they would have to be dealt with sooner or later. This is when Archangel Michael and his angels would have fought the dragon and cast him out of heaven.

I think it's important to mention here:

They are (now) trapped in this reality, of the first level of heaven and the earth, so they are still able to influence mankind by spiritual demonic possession and they are intelligent enough to have created technology that give them the ability to pose as ancient aliens.

They also have the ability to shape-shift because scripture tells us satan can appear as an angel of light - and it would seem they are constantly trying to convince mankind to think in Methodological Naturalism terms - which means considering the physical reality as the true reality: even though science has theorized we are living in a holographic universe after the 'Measurement Problem' scrambled their ability to think.

The Ufologists are quite emphatic about the fact aliens cannot shape-shift - but this only goes to strengthen the strong delusion. If we are to believe they cannot shape-shift - we must conclude there are hundreds of various races of aliens.

Whereas... if they are able to shape-shift - we can conclude there are only the two hundred angels, as spoken of by Enoch, who can assume a different shape - each time they visit - to give the impression there are many various races.

Of course... there may be many hybrids because they have been corrupting the seed (genome) - with the permission of the government no less.

The reality is... scripture tells us the veil is going to be lifted - so satan is desperately trying to prepare for something. They [reprobate angels] are preparing for a war with the Son of Man.

They are seeking to subject the whole of mankind to the control of their totalitarian society which is based on the idea people can live forever in the physical where they can travel to alternate dimensions using astral travel.

Space travel then (also) becomes a viability especially as the Tibetan monks have demonstrated how they can remain underwater for days on end and even levitate - such is the power of the mind.

This is what scripture has prophesied as the signs and wonders to lure people into the strong delusion. This is all leading to a climax where satan is forcing all of mankind into choosing to evolve to godhood immortality or being put to death.

Given the fact mankind will do this to himself with the great tribulation - it is clear these things will take place before the veil is lifted. The aliens have told our governments every alien race in the universe is fearful of the alien race they call 'Geezers' that are north of the whole universe.

Scripture tells us... this is where the throne of God is positioned.

The Geezers are, apparently, attributed to the 'crucifixion myth' as they call it... so it seems more obvious that every race of alien, that have been in contact with mankind, is a variation of the reprobate angels - and mankind is being led into thinking the 'Geezers' are evil. Really?

Have they been splicing the genome to corrupt the seed and create hybrids?

No.

Did they invent the Theory of Evolution which allows man to assert his own laws and commit unspeakable genocide in the name of progress?

No.

That's what the reprobate angels have been doing and, given the fact they established all the mystery religions that are responsible for causing apostasy which lead to the perversion of innocence throughout history, I think the 'Geezers' is a name they have given to the Son of Man.

The point I'm making here is simple.

When people realize aliens do actually exist... are they going to be deceived by their lies or are they going to appreciate the Son of God was sent to offer us the opportunity for true salvation through Him.

This genetic upgrade to godhood immortality is the mark of the beast.

When mankind is no longer able to die - satan will have crossed the line because it is only in death: the seed can be 'born again' into the Kingdom of Heaven. This is why the bowls of wrath will be poured out after people accept the mark of the beast.

The day the government forces mankind to choose between:

- 1) The RFID identification chip with the genetic upgrade to immortality or...
- 2) Execution under the terrorism act

That's the day we must choose:

- 1) satan and his reprobate angels.
- 2) The Most High and His Son.

Those who think this is all codswallop should consider the fact they were duly noted of the choice and what it actually means.

People need to take heed these reprobates have had thousands of years to prepare these lies and assist man in technological advances to deceive the whole world into thinking they are benevolent.

They are anything but benevolent - but you do have something they want.

They want you to choose them and reject the Father of your own free will - even though they are imposing the ultimatum. Immortality: by genetic upgrade - or death: by lawful execution under the terrorism act.

Yeshua (Jesus) tells us death is necessary to receive entry into the Kingdom of Heaven because the seed must die to come to life. This is observed in creation every day. However... I admit... this is a tough choice - but it all comes down to one thing.

Humility or Pride

- If you are prideful... you'll go for the immortality via genetic upgrade.
If you are humble... you'll go for the eternal life after death.

Therefore... this all comes down to faith in the resurrection or belief in evolution (which remains unproven). This means the alien agenda is a powerful delusion (indeed) because science has come along in leaps and bounds... and it is easy to believe in the tangible.

It is hard to believe in the intangible.

We are being presented with two accounts of what is going on. Well... actually... they are offering one whereas I'm showing the alternative.

The question is... will people believe the aliens are ancient beings who evolved as the universe expanded - or are they going to see the aliens for what they are: reprobate angels that are malign. Scripture is very clear on the fate of those who do accept the mark of the beast as being cast into the lake of fire - where they cannot die: like the worm in swine.

TO BE (IN) SANE OR NOT TO BE INSANE

...that is the question facing many people in these end days.

Did you take the red pill or the blue pill?

When I see the odds of DNA and Protein originating by chance, are greater than finding one atom among every atom in the observable universe, it beggars belief an atheist would even try to argue naturalism is even plausible let alone probable - especially when these two highly complex components, required for life, depend on each other to exist.

The word insanity leaps to mind when I am confronted by the level of arrogance that blatantly denies the facts they see with their own eyes.

This reveals the desperation to continue living an iniquitous lifestyle.

However, besides the seemingly crass portrayal of madness, that accompanies the satanic mindset, there is a very real and credible danger of insanity gripping the minds of many people in these end days. The mere fact science declares there is information in the data is admitting there is an intelligence that is communicating something.

Point in fact... the definition of information is the semblance of data to deliver a message that is communicated. However... they (atheists) look to science and interpret the data to explicate the case for naturalism - even though they know there is a spiritual realm interconnected with the physical realm that calls for recognition of the supernatural as well as the natural.

While they fumble, in the darkness, for answers to such questions - they ignore the urgency of understanding how the soul exists in the same fashion. The body is made up of the two parts: spiritual and physical, that creates the third part called the living soul. When the spiritual essence is disembodied from the physical essence - the soul experiences the first death. This is when the physical part returns to the earth and the spiritual part returns to the Father in Heaven.

The soul is intrinsically aware of the need for the embodied spiritual and physical to exist, in this interconnected fashion, and this is why we experience fear of death.

Fear of death tells us we know disembodiment places us all under subjection to the moral authority of the Most High - but there is a second death which can occur, before or after the first death, that people need to understand.

The question of consciousness is inspiring science to consider the very relationship between the spiritual and physical, in terms of quantum mechanics, so they can decry the need for concern of such fears.

However... the reality is... the living soul is susceptible to life or (second) death prior to the first death - and this denies them the opportunity to shirk responsibility. The living soul is designed, with the freewill, to choose who (or what) to worship.

Freewill is critical to sustain sanity.

Atheists claim they do not accept the presence of a loving creator - but they cannot claim to not worship anything. They worship: money or sexual immorality or the self or whatever they choose, sometimes without realising, because the living soul is specifically designed to worship something (whether they like it or not).

Sanity is when a soul continues to function with the capacity to exercise freewill - intact - and insanity results when freewill is corrupted in some way.

A soul will naturally develop ability to worship:

- 1) in flesh and lies (worldly ways)
- 2) in spirit and truth (Godly ways)

When a soul develops the ability to worship something other than the Father, in spirit and truth, it becomes prone to obsessional behaviour - which dislodges the capacity to exercise freewill. Thus... we can begin to appreciate why the word 'unhinged' is used to describe someone who has become maladjusted to reason.

This is because the demonic entities are struggling to assert authority within the soul and the victim is unable to understand what is going on as they squabble for control. The turmoil, of squabbling demons (within), is the result of perfidy or false doctrines which causes the freewill to be corrupted.

You see... satan is desperate to destroy freewill while avoiding the insanity that would follow such a destruction. He wants to force people to worship him.

This is why he is focusing his attack on the seed (genome) to destroy freewill without causing insanity to ensue. Therefore... whenever we see a person deny the case for intelligent design, because irreducible complexity gives the appearance of a designer, we can see they are (truly) in danger of losing the ability to reason.

The power of reason is seated within the freewill that secures sanity - and those who deny the fact the soul is designed to worship something or someone are deluding themselves with the notion of being their own god.

This is how a soul is seduced, by the ego, to pursue a prideful self-righteous attitude which is blind to the fact it is worshipping something other than the Father in spirit and truth. This, invariably, leads to the loss of reason which dislodges freewill to develop an unhealthy obsession toward something or someone.

This is when the demonic entities establish a foothold and develop a stronghold - which then leads to the plunder of the soul.

This plundering is the squabbling that often permeates (visibly) as insanity.

You may wonder... if we are designed to worship something or someone - why worship the Father at all? Well... it is only when we choose to worship the Father in spirit and truth are we capable of sustaining the freewill: that allows the soul to function correctly.

The adversary (satan) seeks to place the soul into the chains of wickedness - where obsessional behaviour becomes a subjective force - of worshipping satan - so the soul has no freewill. This is when insanity becomes apparent - and, although the reprobate angels have worked diligently to cure insanity in those who have no freewill, we are faced with a situation where insanity is going to manifest in these end days.

...lest people accept the cure.

This cure will remove the freewill to choose who or what to worship and the soul will become the property of demonic possession. Of course... the demons don't want to "cure" anything really. What they are actually trying to do is create an antidote that stops insanity when freewill is destroyed.

They, or the government, will call it a cure - so be on your guard for this.

If you think this sounds incredible - mark my words: this is on the horizon looming like a monster ready to devour the whole world. Worse still is when the veil is torn and the invisible reality becomes visible. People will see how the demons torment the soul of those who have lost their freewill. The only thing that will save you... is accepting Yeshua as your Lord and Saviour so His blood will cleanse you of all obsessional behaviour and you can reclaim your freewill.

THE SATANIC MINDSET

The harsh reality is... we can only be of the light as Children of Light who obey the Father or we can be of the darkness as children of darkness who disobey the Father. I find it shocking people call themselves Christians when they refuse to keep the Commandments of God and the faith of Christ.

It seems many Christians are ok with keeping the faith of Christ - but they refuse to even consider keeping the Commandments of God.

...or they delude themselves into thinking they do keep the Laws of God
...or they use excuses to say grace is sufficient for their weaknesses.

It's understandable to feel like this when we continually stumble before the Most High - but our Father wants us to walk upright. Grace does not mean it's ok to continue falling short of the mark. Grace is a period of time when people have the opportunity to learn how to walk upright before the Father.

That means every Christian is required to root out all apostasy that is caused by idolatry and / or sexual immorality. There are no excuses.

This is why the third commandment states: 'I will not hold those who take my Name in vain guiltless.' The question is... how can we be certain we are pleasing the Father as we strive to walk upright? Well... He sees the heart so we need to focus on circumcising the leaven (arrogance) so we are not fooling ourselves into thinking we are right with God.

We can do this while holding on to any doctrine regardless of whether it is true or false - but the belief in a false doctrine will cause a person to continually stumble and leave them wondering why. Therefore... it is better to root out any false doctrine that allows the ego to seduce the soul into stumbling before the Father.

Given the fact we are either Children of Light being of the light worshiping (loving) the Father in spirit and truth or children of darkness being of the darkness worshiping (loving) satan (self) - there are only two mindsets:

- 1) The satanic mindset.
- 2) The true-Christ mindset.

Before a person can even know which category they are in - our Father sees the potential for a person to become a Child of Light.

...and He will call such a person.

Therefore... if a person can accept Yeshua was sent by the Father - they have been called and they have the potential to be perfect as the Father also is perfect in Heaven. We need to be focused on the task at hand and embrace the provision we have to overcome so we can become established as Children of Light - ready to receive our garments of glory.

This means... we must renounce all forms of idolatry and sexual immorality - so we can stand before the Most High and offer thanks for the grace we had to be purified. We are required to be watchful of the signs leading up to the end - which means we must be ready to receive Yeshua.

If there is any false doctrine within our hearts - we are not in a position to stand before the throne. The five foolish virgins are those who refused to root out the false doctrines. They refused to hear the knock to come out - which is the call to repentance so they can walk upright before the Father: keeping the Commandments of God 'and' the faith of Christ. They were left behind because they thought their doctrine was right - even though they knew their beliefs were causing them to stumble before the Father.

You see... if a person continually stumbles before the Father... that is a sign something is not right. They ask for forgiveness and grace allows them to get up again - only to stumble (yet) again. Therefore... we need to be certain the doctrines we hold to are true - lest we are doomed to continually stumble and never learn to walk upright before the Father.

What's the solution?

Hosea 4:6 says: 'My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge'. Therefore we need to know:

- 1) the unutterable Name of God.
- 2) how Yeshua manifested His Name.
- 3) how the Name of God reveals truth.

The true-Christ mindset will thirst (crave) this because it will allow them to circumcise the heart of leaven... and they will become convicted (established) in the ways of the Lord. The satanic mindset will deny this because the Name of God is made manifest in the way we abound in the love of Christ - which is the opposite to the way they think.

The wolves in sheep's clothing will use words like 'servile authority' to try and muddy the water - so they can embrace the self-righteousness of the Pharisees - which is the lust for authority over others. Anyone who seeks to assert authority over another has the satanic mindset - and they will use many excuses to assert their right to be in authority over others.

The (failed) Theory of Evolution is a typical example of this because it uses unproven science to make people believe superiority is a natural phenomenon. Science has shown adaptation is true - but even a child can see there are different breeds of dogs that is the result of subtle change.

The satanic mindset, which has the full force of demonic influence, will assert adaptation can lead to speciation - which means they seek to assert micro-evolution and macro-evolution is the same thing.

However... science has utterly failed to demonstrate how information came from nothing or how the genome increases in information - which means The Theory of Evolution is a convenient (demonically endorsed) excuse to let the satanic mindset assert authority over others.

The satanic mindset also fools itself into thinking sorcery is harmless because it believes (asserts) there's a difference between white magic and black magic - when the reality is: magic is when a person commands spirits regardless of colour.

A person who dabbles in witchcraft thinking it is harmless because it is 'only' white magic is being lured by demons - as they command spirits to do their bidding. They, sometimes, say prayer is the highest form of magic - but the truth is: a prayer is a heartfelt request for forgiveness or provision etc - and not a command.

These are some of the ways the innocent is seduced by the ego to embrace the satanic mindset. Fear, of uncertainty, often plays a role in luring people toward sorcery - because they struggle to trust in the Father.

The prophecies speak of how the ego has seduced the innocent into thinking the soul has the authority to decide what is right and what is wrong - when the reality is: the soul is subject to a sovereign authority. The soul can either accept that sovereign authority and learn how to worship the Father in spirit and truth or the soul can challenge that sovereignty to assert its own authority.

A soul that accepts the sovereign authority will attain freedom because the true-Christ mindset is the expression of love whereas a soul that denies the sovereign authority (of the creator) will fall deeper into the abyss being chained by wickedness because the satanic mindset is the expression of hate.

We all have the freedom to choose - while we have this period of grace: but time is running out as we approach the turn of the epoch.

THE CHRIST MINDSET

The Name of God is made manifest in way we abound in the love of Christ - which is to walk in perfect humility: so we may all live in perfect equality. This is a phrase I regularly state in hope of establishing the importance of repentance which gives impetus to the process of sanctification.

We can all appreciate the importance of humility and equality - and it's nice to see these qualities being used to approbate the love of Christ. The Name of God, therefore, is observed in the visual field rather than the audio field because it is ineffable in the same way time is transient within reality.

Scripture tells us to call upon the Name of God when we recognise He alone can rectify something we perceive as wrong. However... how are we to do this if His Name is ineffably unutterable? Well... the spirit groans for righteousness to abound when it sees the effect of iniquity in the world - and this groaning is what calls upon His Name. For example... when we see a person being murdered - we are appalled by the wicked deed and we yearn for such activity to cease so we can live in peace.

This, yearning for unrighteousness to cease, is the spirit groaning for righteousness to abound. The more we are appalled by the iniquity, we see in the world, the more the spirit will groan - and with that: we naturally look introspectively or extrospectively to root out any errors we perceive.

The Children of Light embark on introspection (soul searching) while the children of darkness embark on extrospection (blaming others). This is the crucial difference between the two kinds of human as described in scripture.

- 1) Introspective (acceptance of truth).
- 2) Extrospective (denial of truth).

The Most High does recognise a third type - which is a person that does not reveal whether they will become a type one or type two person after undergoing the living judgement which is the process of sanctification.

The scripture is given for the express purpose of helping us improve ourselves - so we may learn how to walk upright before the Father in Heaven. Thus... we can see the flaws and virtues of the people, within scripture, to try and understand why the Most High works in the way He does.

This is the act of calling upon the Name of God - because we know the Father responds to the effectual prayer of the righteous - so it's only natural we (Children of Light) want our prayers to be heard.

There are many characters in scripture that fell short of the glory of God - but they all (even Yeshua) have one thing in common. They either learned from their mistakes to never abuse the power they have to assert authority over others or they (in the case of Yeshua) never abused the power He had to assert authority over others.

This, common trait, is what distinguishes a Child of Light from a child of darkness - because one recognises the light is good and comes to it while the other grows to hate the light and seeks refuge in the darkness. This means we are to learn how to never infringe upon the freewill of another and, as such, seduction to sexual immorality or idolatry becomes the focus of attention.

Sexual immorality is when the physical aspect, of the soul, is corrupted - whereas: idolatry is when the spiritual aspect, of the soul, is corrupted. This is because both are driven by the lust of the flesh to assert authority over another.

Criminal psychologists speak, in the courts, of the mental instability of a rapist who has lost the ability to recognise the rights of the victim to consent. This is why rape is considered the assertion of authority over another. However... seduction, to attain sexual consent, is also the assertion of authority over another because the intention of those who seduce a person, to consent, have little - or no - interest in commitment to sanctify the union.

Therefore... seduction is a form of rape regardless of what gender or age is performing the act of seduction. Seduction is the abuse of power. Idolatry, being the corruption of the spiritual aspect of the soul, leads to narcissistic behaviour - which is the overt assertion of authority over others. If a person can delude themselves into thinking a lifeless idol, or money, gives them safety and security - there is no limit to the level of depravity they can indulge in.

Scripture tells us to renounce all forms of idolatry and sexual immorality precisely because the iniquitous lifestyle they procure allow the individual to rationalise their behaviour - especially when there are laws created by men that undermine the urgency of not infringing upon the freewill of another. For example... those who like to pursue promiscuous lifestyles will convince themselves seduction of a virgin is perfectly innocent if they are of legal consent.

Never mind the damage it causes when that virgin is placed into the chains of wickedness - having discovered the pleasures of sexual gratification.

They will learn to use seduction to attain more sexual gratification - which may lead to another virgin being destroyed - and this says nothing for the way sexual gratification becomes more and more twisted and perverted: as they continue to seek more debauched acts that lead to same gender sex or child sex.

Given the fact we see these things are running rampant in society... it's time everyone realised the Laws of God are the moral authority because they teach us to avoid idolatry and sexual immorality. Yeshua has revealed how we can place the law upon the heart so we can recognise the Name of God: as we seek to repent of the things that cause apostasy.

This means... if we are to adopt the Christ Mindset - we must appreciate the importance of never abusing the power, we have, to ensure we never assert authority over others. We must renounce all forms of idolatry and sexual immorality, from the heart, so we may be purified in the blood of Yeshua (the Lamb of God) ready to be perfected before the Father in Heaven.

THE BROKEN MIND

Today... we, as a fickle species, are facing a crisis of perception within a crumbling illusion. The collective consciousness is emerging from a deep slumber - and the signs of drowsiness can be observed in those who troll the forums.

There will be two types of 'broken' that will (soon) manifest themselves:

- 1) Broken like a horse is obedient.
- 2) Broken by way of mental ill-health.

These are, in many ways, already apparent - so I shall glean over the differences - to place the situation into parentheses. There is no shortage of preachers parading like peacocks and gurus seeking to sedate an understanding of (the situation) reality.

On the one hand - we see a chorus of religious preachers calling a swathe of followers to embrace obedience (self-sacrifice).

On the other hand - we see megalomaniacs alerting the masses to observe the obvious and embrace rebellion (self-aggrandisement).

They are all vying for your attention - and the most dangerous ones are the puppets who think they are serving a higher purpose: as they push their ideologies. A mindset adorned by the predilection to pursue self-aggrandisement is fringed upon the false sense of - good - mental health.

This world is an illusion that is crumbling to reveal a reality beyond comprehension: and only those who learn to embrace perfect humility will survive. The broken mind will be revealed - when the veil is lifted - and, as such, we will then see who is humble and who is insane.

Perfect humility was established by the life and ministry of Yahushua: for He knew this reality is not real - but an illusion governed by delusion. I'm not going to preach any kind of 'religion' here - because I, myself, cannot abide preachy sermons: even if they are well intentioned.

I will, however, placate the two types of 'broken' - so you can recognise the big picture: and take up arms in the physiological war you are in.

You are in the middle of a war zone being bombarded by propaganda designed to make the reprobate angels appear as benevolent Ascended Masters.

They have fomented a conspiracy, so vast in depth and scope, it predates early civilisation - and your only hope is to recognise the gravity of the situation at hand. I couldn't care less if you are a king or queen, or some exalted individual, who is honoured as a credit to humanity.

Your sanity is on the (front) line of this war - whether you like it or not.

Take heed, therefore, the reprobate angels have prepared for this moment - because they have conditioned the psyche, of the collective consciousness, to embrace them as 'aliens'. They have been prolific in their efforts to cultivate a longing for them to steal away the souls of every individual - so their offspring (demons) may enter a place of habitation.

This may sound absurd ... but the scripture has prophesied all these things before hand - so you may be equipped in this war. They are the Watchers, who left their first estate to corrupt the image of the Most High in man, because - we are told - they lusted upon the beauty of the daughters of men.

...and they are prophesied to return.

The serpent of old (lucifer) refused to minister unto man - when he discovered man is to be set above the angels. This 'covering cherub' chose to defile the image: so he may exalt himself above all - which was why he approached the woman to make the soul aware of its own ego. The image of the Most High, in man, is the cohesive nature of light that facilitates the holographic universe we inhabit.

It is, therefore, crucial this light maintains cohesion if reality is to remain in a state of perfection (with zero state entropy).

The serpent of old (lucifer) is diffusing the perfect-light toward his own image - so he may assume the properties of light himself.

Unfortunately, for him, he is not the source of perfect-light - in this hologram - so the diffusion is only causing entropy to destroy all of reality. We possess the source of perfect-light - within - so we have two choices: to diffuse it or be cohesive with it.

There are no grey areas.

Scientists are obsessed with aliens - these days - because they imagine such a discovery would profoundly negate the religious fervour people have for answers. They want the authority to deliver answers - such is the grandeur of their delusion.

People are so captivated by the unassailable rhetoric of the Alien Agenda - they are groaning for abduction so they may 'evolve'. This is disturbing - since we have sufficient information, in the prophecies of scripture, that warn us against the great deception we see unfolding before our eyes.

Scripture tells us we live by faith.
Science tells us we live by QED.

One (faith) laid a foundation beyond perception - it calls: the rock.

The other (QED) laid its foundation upon sand - it calls: self-correcting.

Of course... everyone is free to choose their own destiny - and cultivate an obedient attitude or rebellious attitude.

I am a nobody in the grand scheme of things. The broken mind scenario (Day of the Lord) will separate light from darkness - and all will be revealed to the glory of the Most High. I pray my life manifested the Name of God (in which everything rests eternally). I give thanks to the Father for sending Yahushua - that I may overcome.

I give thanks to the Father I can see the Alien Agenda for what it really is.
I pray for everyone to choose, wisely, which states of broken they embrace.

THE HYPOCRITICAL DISSIDENT

I see the people in this world are slowly rising against the establishment - and there is change in the wind. However... I refuse to embrace the anarchist mentality of the modern zealot - because I appreciate the Father grudgingly allowed Israel to have a king. He gave a solemn warning this would lead to the problems we see today: so the people only have themselves to blame.

This is to say... the people that are rising up, against the establishment, are failing to recognise they are at fault (we are in this horrific mess) and, as such, they should bare the brunt of the ordeal - and supplicate their hearts unto the Most High.

In other words... when I see a truther argue this or that is wrong - I see a person who is feeding their own ego as they assert their observations (not realising the Father intends these things to be obvious enough for anyone to see).

The problem is, people are quick to ascribe blame without taking the noble approach of looking introspectively to perfect their own souls. Atheists, likewise, see the issues in this world - but they ascribe the cause to religion (not realising the Christian faith has been apostatised by the Pharisee mindset that has failed to circumcise the heart of leaven) - even as they embrace the religion of science.

They (too) fail to appreciate their attitude is that of the elitist mentality - that asserts the will of self over the Will of God - which is (ironically) the same as the Pharisee mindset. I understand they are (so) upset - they are blinded by their anger to their own deficiency.

Yeshua told us... hypocrisy is far from the truth.

Therefore... these people, and others like them, need to understand: they are only fooling themselves, and those who are desperate for answers, when they raise their concerns. Yeshua also spoke of deficiency causing the soul to lose its capacity to enter into Eternal Paradise.

This is because such deficiency is the product of failing to circumcise the heart of leaven. Do I see corruption in government? Well... the word 'corruption' suggests a deliberate attempt to oppress those they govern for the purposes of controlling people and the things they need or fear.

The Most High warned us a person placed in a position of authority would do these things and there's no dispute this is happening.

The question is: is it deliberate?

It may shock you to know the people involved in pushing this kind of agenda are naturally responding to the threat against their authority and are woefully ignorant of the consequences of their actions - as they seek to secure absolute power.

The modern zealots are feeding the fears of government - and this, in turn, leads officials to project their fears: which means we are caught in a downward spiral - that is drawing prophecy toward an inevitable conclusion.

If there is a malign force - in this world - it is the pride within a person that causes them to deny the need to turn from sin and wickedness which means it is prevalent in all walks of life (and not only the government / elite).

Truthers are prone to the same compulsion of asserting their own understanding - just as atheists and government and scientists want to do what they think is right.

Everyone is motivated by the belief they are doing the Will of God or serving humanity as they attempt to assert their understanding - so this malign force exists beyond the scope of government - which is why satan is referring to this as the war of ideas. A world subjected to the relentless assertion of multiple opinions - will eventually recognise the words 'war of ideas' as a kind of trigger to accept those who call themselves Ascended Masters.

The plan is to create so much confusion and chaos the people will acknowledge the lie they can 'evolve' to godhood status and become as the Ascended Masters - because they will welcome the sense of relief from all the nonsensical arguing over opinions.

This is a real and present danger of sending millions into oblivion - because people would rather hear a lie that exemplifies the name of satan (so they can pursue the lusts of their hearts) than hear the truth that exemplifies the Name of God.

This means the force behind the corruption is prevalent in all walks of life - and not only the government - so it would be wrong to accuse them of deliberately seeking to oppress people: the way conspiracy theorists have done.

The Most High allowed Israel to have a king - specifically to teach us the lesson we are to exemplify the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God: so we may be perfected in Him. I would prefer to exonerate the government of deliberately seeking to oppress people because they are cajoled by unscrupulous people: who operate in the shadows to do these things.

I, more than most, am well aware of the malicious capabilities of those in authority - but I chose to pray for them instead (because I know the fear that drives them is blinding them). I pray for these people - and all those who follow them - because they are incapable of identifying entropy with sin (even though science has confirmed consciousness is an integral component of reality).

Those who worship satan have been promised immortality and godhood status in this world - where they can pursue the lusts of their hearts - but they will witness this reality conflagrate in a flash - when the Righteous Elect are translated into Eternal Paradise.

I pray for the modern zealot who imagine they are doing the Will of God - when, in fact, they are serving satan as they feed the fears of those they are accusing. They lack the capacity to fathom the responsibility government has - so their repeated attacks do little to serve anyone other than their own self-indulgent interests.

There's nothing wrong with informing people what government is struggling to achieve - as long as they acknowledge the Most High has ordained their presence as a lesson in appreciating the Word of God - and the best way to show that appreciation is to pray for government rather than incite others to rebel against them.

MENTAL HEALTH IS ARBITRARY

There are only two kinds of situation that govern mental health:

- 1) Uncontrolled Situations
- 2) Controlled Situations

Control gives the illusion of power - because it fetters in oblivion - but we can see those who have power are not always happy. Media portrays celebrities as having a fairytale lifestyle - but the reality is: they cannot control everything so they are vulnerable to heartache.

...just like anyone else.

The assertion of control creates the illusion of happiness because it triggers chemicals that heightens feelings which causes imbalance. The four chemicals that affect happiness are:

- 1) Dopamine (anticipation of happiness)
- 2) Oxytocin (closeness to others)
- 3) Serotonin (greater mood)
- 4) Endorphins (masking discomfort)

These need to be in balance to ensure the mind of the person is in good health because imbalance, which is lust, serves to place a person in a false sense of security. The problem, today, is ... people are bombarded with excuses to pursue the lusts, that create imbalance, and they are deceived into thinking such pursuit is healthy.

Hollywood and music stars placate this pursuit by glamorizing self-aggrandisement and lust - because a captive audience is vulnerable to programming of the mind.

Yes ... there are sinister forces conspiring to manipulate and influence you.

You are under psychological attack - because they want to deceive all to embrace lust (which is imbalance of the mind). Religion is the main source of this deception because it uses doctrines to explicate a belief system that becomes locked in a delusion. The denial of control leads to the illusion of suffering because it creates a readjustment of equilibrium in mental health.

This can only be accomplished after we become aware of the mechanism that creates delusion - so we may tend our needs wisely. The front-line of the struggle to achieve true lasting peace is often referred to as Spiritual Warfare - because it is psychological in nature. The spirit, or attitude, of a person is malleable - so it is crucial to understand what is going on: so we may be fully equipped to grow effectively.

I started this article by stating the arbitrary nature of mental health is governed within the boundaries of control. Then deferred to exemplifying the benefits of pursuing humility to secure equilibrium.

The only real question is: what do we want?

- 1) Power (gives false sense of peace)
- 2) Humility (gives true lasting peace)

What's at stake is ones mental health - which cannot get any higher: because this is a worldwide issue that is affecting billions. Psychologists have, recently, claimed mental illness is associated with demonic influence.

How To Know If You're Demon Possessed

Read any article that talks about rooting out apostasy (to stop believing lies) and if you feel agitated: that'll be the demon fearing exorcism.

The tell-tale signs include:

- 1) avoiding the point (even feeling anger)
- 2) ignoring the article (or blocking the writer)
- 3) trying to find errors (to justify ignorance)

This is how the demon - within - influences the person to avoid losing its seat.

THE RAINBOW'S END

Scientifically speaking: the rainbow is created by the splitting of white light - that passes through droplets of water (rain or mist). This is the physical observation of a rainbow, that science has demonstrated using prisms to split the light into the various colours of the spectrum.

However... it would seem the rainbow, used to symbolise the celebration of pride, has successfully split the light in the spiritual context - because it has divided the Children of Light (Christians) into several categories:

1) Those who support man's laws - and dismiss God's Law because they think everyone has the right to choose how they live.

...which, to an extent, is true because everyone has the free will to live as they wish.

2) Those who refuse to compromise the Law's of God and appear to be bigoted because they assert the Commandments of God above free-will.

...which, to an extent, is true because the Law of God is above all personal desire.

These are the polar opposites of x-ray and gamma seen in the spectrum - between which we see the visible spectrum: that show variation in attitudes.

This situation is not merely a passing phase in history because the elite are identifying the critical path to destroying the seed of the woman by using the algorithms (of the supercomputer) to determine levels of threat to the New World Order. In other words... the ability to categorise people, between these two polar opposites, will allow the illuminati to target Christians by the level of faith they have in the risen Lord Yâhushúa.

This is a very subtle move on the part of the serpent (satan) because people will reveal their sentiment on the issue of: 'Free-will v's Destiny' when they voice their thoughts on the subject of 'celebrating pride'. They, for the most part, will not be aware their sentiments are being logged and categorised - so the critical path to the great tribulation can be established.

On the one hand... those who support homosexual marriage say: they are people who care - because everyone has the right to choose their own lifestyle - and they accuse those who want to keep (preserve) the Laws of God, of not caring for their neighbour when they are commanded to love their neighbours.

They call opposers hypocrites because they refuse to love their neighbours (including homosexuals). On the other hand...those who oppose homosexual marriage say: they are not being judgemental because they are only quoting scripture - and they are concerned supporters will be cast into the Lake of Fire - so they are only trying to guard their brethren (love their neighbour).

They consider supporters ignorant because they do, in fact, love them enough to endure persecution to warn them of eternal damnation - if they do not repent. Any quote from scripture is perceived as hate speech - when it is actually love speech: calling them to life.

What is not fully appreciated is the way this splitting of light provides a wealth of data that allows scientists to determine what distant stars are made of as they examine the spectrum. This is what is happening with the 'celebration of pride' movement - as people discuss their concerns or prejudices on the subject.

The reprobate angels have worked with the elite to establish a New World Order designed to eradicate the light - once and for all: from creation.

The data they receive, on the way people express their sentiments, allows them to devise schemes that pervert the soul to embrace the celebration of pride - when we should be circumcising pride. This is how they will incite the whole world to hate the saints - just as Hitler brought Germany to hate Jewish people prior to initiating his extermination programme

This is happening in our world today - even as you read this post: they are watching how you respond to categorise you as either first or last into the FEMA camps.

They don't care if you agree or disagree with homosexual marriage. They only want to know which batch you are placed into - during the great tribulation. Take heart though... because everything is as it should be - and God has everything under control.

THE ABOMINATION OF DESOLATION

Theologians have been saying one of the signs we should look for, in the end times, is the building of the temple.

This is primarily because:

- 1) The Book of Daniel says about the abomination o/d standing in the holy place.
- 2) The Book of Revelation says about John measuring a temple with a rod.
- 3) The Book of Ezekiel describes the third temple - built on the Temple Mount.

The Jewish people also have a longing to build this temple - to restore the daily ordinances and sacrifices - too, so it's perfectly understandable why people are looking for this event (sign). These things make it easy to think the building of the third temple will be a sign - but I see the theologians have all overlooked several key issues here.

First of all... Yâhushúa made it clear the living soul (the body - that is made up of the physical and the spirit which has the breath of life) is the temple.

Secondly... the sacrifice of the Lamb of God did away with the need for daily ordinances and sacrifices in a temple building: because we become the living sacrifice when we die in Christ and repent of our sinful ways daily.

Thirdly... the third temple, described by Ezekiel, will have daily ordinances and sacrifices when Yâhushúa returns - because the period of grace will have come to an end when the Millennial Rule of Christ begins.

Fourthly... the temple described in the Book of Revelation is in Eternal Paradise and will remain after the first heaven and earth passes away - because it is not in the first heaven and earth.

This temple (in the Book of Revelation) depicts the eternal establishment of the Kingdom of God - which defines the way we all relate to the Father in eternity. Therefore... the scripture that says about the 'abominator that makes desolate standing in the holy place' may not be referring to a person or statue standing in a temple - built on the Temple Mount.

The words 'holy place' means: a place that is holy - and not some building, where people gather to worship. The Jewish people are, to the point of obsession, thinking in terms of physicality for worship - and many Christians share in this mentality because they are convinced the church is a building where people gather to worship the Father with prayer and songs (hymns).

They couldn't be more wrong.

...and I rarely (ever) use the word 'wrong' because it creates barriers when your trying to pierce the heart with light - to enlighten someone.

Yâhushúa couldn't have been more candid about the living soul being the temple because He told a person, who asked if we should worship on the mountain top or in the synagogue, the correct place to worship the Father (in spirit and truth) is in the heart. The sacrifices we make in life, for others benefit, is the act of circumcising the heart and in doing so: the soul becomes a dwelling place for the Most High.

Therefore... the warning of the 'Abomination of Desolation standing in the holy place' could easily be referring to a person, possessed by demons, visiting the Holy Land of Cannan (Israel). Yâhushúa warned the people of Judea to leave for the hills when they saw the Abomination of Desolation standing in the holy place - and He was quite forthright in explaining they should not return, to get their belongings, because the situation would be too dire for that.

What will most likely occur (soon) is the Third Temple will be built during the terrible affliction - because the Jewish people will desperately seek the face of God at this time: but they will continue to reject Yâhushúa who says the living soul is the Temple of God. Therefore... the tribulation (Jacob's trouble) will begin after the Abomination of Desolation visits the Holy Land and these troubling times will stir Israel to build the temple.

The initial time of trouble has already begun following the visit Obama made to Israel because Israel has entered into a high alert situation with nation after nation turning against them - and Christians (who make up the lost ten tribes of Israel) have witnessed terrible affliction at the hands of those who declare they are the religion of peace.

Such tribulation will increase exponentially when the elite initiate their plans to reduce the world economy to rubble. The destruction of the world economy will allow them to justify issuing the RFID chip to inaugurate the New World Order because the whole world will be in such turmoil.

This is when the great tribulation begins - because anyone who refuses the chip will be considered an enemy of the illuminati and they will be executed for treason.

Shortly after this... the bowls of wrath will be poured out - so the Jewish people will be frantically trying to finish building their temple, at this time, because the tribulation will escalate to war in the Middle East.

...and terrible murder of billions of Christians in the name of progress.

This is also the moment the anti-Christ will reveal himself to the whole world immediately after the righteous elect are gathered which is the Male Child that is caught up to the throne of God.

They will receive their garments of glory and further instruction from Yâhushúa Himself before they return.

Here's the important part...

The moment the anti-Christ reveals himself... that is the Abomination of Desolation standing in the holy place - because he will have convinced the world he is the long awaited messiah who has arrived to remove the undesirables (anyone who refuse to accept the mark of the beast). He will demand people 'evolve' to a higher frequency and attain immortality with a genetic upgrade.

Many will be given to the strong delusion that the reprobate angels are benevolent aliens who have genetically enhanced man from ape. This is a lie because they corrupted the genome in the days of Noah and that's what led to the great flood - which was reported globally in stone.

Those who refuse the mark of the beast will know this is the great tribulation that will culminate in the return of the Son of Man, who is the righteous elect that were caught up to the throne of God They will return with Yâhushúa to usher in the Kingdom of God - and the anti-Christ wants to mimic this.

The anti-Christ will stand in the holy place, in Jerusalem, and it is from there: he will issue the command to kill all those who refuse to accept the mark. The Book of Daniel speaks of two incidents that required the people of Israel to bow to:

- 1) A giant golden statue (Nebuchadnessar)
- 2) One month without prayer (Darius)

Disobedience resulted in capital punishment (death) which was being thrown into a fiery furnace in the first instance and a lions den in the second instance. These statues were both considered idolatry: which is abomination - because it involves the worship (love) of something that has no power to create.

In those days... most of the people simply obeyed and bowed - but today it is unlikely people will bow to a lifeless statue because they know it is wrong. Thus... people will flee from the presence of such a statue and this will cause the place to become desolate.

Today... we have a similar demand to accept gay marriage and those who refuse are targeted by the government as dissenters of enemy of the state.

Given the fact homosexual activity is considered an abomination, because it is a form of worship (love) that cannot create life, the demand may also be considered a form of activity that makes desolate. This is because the power to create life is placed in the hands of those who are currently engaging in eugenics - which is the corruption of the seed. Thus... the thing (idol) that represents the demand to accept the sin as legitimate is the Abomination of Desolation.

This has been observed in the Western World with gay pride - but not in the holy place Israel (yet). Therefore... it would be fitting to flee Judea for the hills, when this happens, because the anti-Christ will be keen to round up those who refuse to bow (accept gay marriage) and have them executed.

Just as King Nebuchadnessar and King Darius did in their day.

This is why scripture says satan will send a flood after those who flee - but the earth will swallow up the flood to protect them.

This is to say... satan loves to mimic the truth to set himself up as the righteous one - and he also loves to use false flags to try and confuse the discerning Christian (elect) into thinking an event, he staged, is ordained by the Most High.

Those who support gay marriage will think they are showing care because they place the rights of individuals above the Laws of God - but the reality is: they are hastening their demise because they, and those who want to legitimise the sin, refuse to accept there is a Lake of Fire.

Those who call people to repentance will be viewed as bigoted by those who condone the sin but the reality is: they are desperately concerned for them because they don't want anyone to be cast into the Lake of Fire.

By the time the Abomination of Desolation stands in the holy place - there's no guarantee the temple will have been completed by this time. What is for sure is... the Jewish people will be either frantically trying to finish it or they will have finished it just in time for the anti-Christ to stand in the holy place.

The point is... the Abomination of Desolation is the defiled temple (body) because that person will be totally possessed by the dragon of old (the devil) - and he will lord it over the whole world convinced, in his own mind, he is the living messiah: sent to bring order to the whole world.

He will kill peaceable Christians calling them wicked to mimic the way Yâhushúa will remove the wicked. He will have this power when the bowls of wrath are being poured out and two witnesses will be calling the whole world to repentance. When the two witnesses are (finally) killed: they will rise up with the those who have come to the first resurrection: and it is then the devil, and his followers, will be dealt with.

By this time... the temple will be built ready to receive the Son of Man - who will set the Saints in place to teach the whole world how to place the Name of God in the forehead.

WHO ART THOU?

The argument regarding who Yahushua (Jesus) is - has hotly continued through two thousand years of our history. It's about time we learned (how) to abound in the love of Christ - as requested of Yahushua.

On the one side we have those who say Yahushua is the (actual) Father made manifest in the flesh. They claim that verses such as: John 1:1 or John 10:30, among others, are references that confirm Yahushua is the Father in the flesh.

On the other side we have those who say Yahushua is the reflection (Son) of the Father having all the attributes thereof. They claim that verses such as: Luke 18:19 and John 10:30, among others, are references that confirm Yahushua is the Word made flesh.

The only thing that matters here is the glory of the Hallowed Name of God and nothing else. Therefore, we need to know (exactly) what glorifies the Hallowed Name of God. God declared Yahushua to be the personification of His glory - so we have a clue that Yahushua has done something right.

Therefore ... let us look at what Yahushua did - that made Him stand out, from all other people, to make Him worthy.

- 1) He was given all authority - so He earned it.
- 2) He never used this power for His own gain.
- 3) He only used it to heal (help) others.
- 4) He never sought to prove anything.
- 5) He offered comfort to those who listened.
- 6) He humbled Himself before the Father.
- 7) He offered Himself up as a living sacrifice.

These are all the hallmark traits of a person walking in humility - even though He possessed the power to command storms. He 'chose' to walk in humility.

This (then) tells us: we can follow in His footsteps, to glorify the Father in heaven, when we choose humility - when we have the ability to assert our own authority. If we apply ourselves in humility - as Yahushua did - we are glorifying the Name of God. It's as simple as that.

When we understand this: something strange happens - because we begin to see how all of scripture is telling us this very thing. This shows Yahushua (truly) was the Word of God who personified the message of scripture.

Verses such as Matthew 20:25-26 leap out as crucial moments when Yahushua was telling us how to Glorify God - not to mention His last commandment: to love one another as He also loved us.

With this understanding we can begin to see the wolves in sheep's clothing are those who pretend to walk in humility while they seek power and authority over others.

Such people use phrases like: 'servile authority', knowing there is no such thing.

Yahushua earned the authority He was given - not to exercise power over others (Re. John 15:15) but to show the awesome responsibility one has to appreciate and wield - in order to become worthy. For example: if someone upsets you - you have the ability to lash out at them or let it go with forgiveness.

This means we all have, a measure of, power - but the authority that comes with using it is governed by the Law of God.

Learning to yield to this is our purpose in life - and Yahushua was the first person who recognized this mandate and responded to His destiny: so we may follow His example. Now that we know 'a life walked in humility' is what glorifies the Hallowed Name of God - we can begin to understand what is actually going on with the doctrines of the apostate church.

We can also appreciate what measures we need to take to do what is right by the Father. Take, for example, the Trinity that claims the Son is the Father made manifest in the flesh. We are required to be Christlike - if we are to walk in the ways of the Lord - and Yahushua likened this to being like one of the little ones (childlike in innocence). That means we are to practice the art of being humble even when we can resolve an issue by other means.

Humility, then, is the key.

How do we make sure we hear and heed the Word of God and not the teaching of false doctrines of demons (deceiving spirits)?

There is only one sure way to know - and that is to understand how something glorifies the Hallowed Name of God or defiles the Hallowed Name of God.

Given the Hallowed Name of God is observed in the way we love one another in Christ (which is a life of humility) - we can see: Anything that allows a person to set up and establish hierarchies among the flock is a false doctrine and / or evil deed.

If a person or church cannot show how a doctrine they believe glorifies the Hallowed Name of God - they are not qualified to teach and they have no right to force their opinion (apostasy) upon others. This is because their assertion is forcing others to accept a hierarchy - where self appointed church leaders assume authority.

This is called usurpation of the authority of God - and it is the bidding of satan. Therefore ... a doctrine that lets anyone have, or pursue, power over another is evil.

Here is an example that shows how an argument, that has raged between the theologians for thousands of years, can finally be put to rest (by applying the Name of God):

The Father Made Manifest (Doctrine)

If we believe Yahushua is the Father made flesh - we are striving for the power of the Father when we pursue emulating Yahushua.

The doctrine that says Yahushua is the Father will make the ultimate goal - of Christlike - the pursuit of being 'like God'. This then would create the pretence of being humble while we are striving to be 'like God' - which is basically: a 'wolf in sheep's clothing'. This is taking the Name of God in vain.

The Word Made Manifest (Doctrine)

If we believe Yahushua is the Word made flesh - we can strive to emulate His humility without fear of pursuing power.

The doctrine that says Yahushua is the Word made flesh - means we will see the ultimate goal as being a living sacrifice, in all humility, as we pursue being Christlike. This, then, would be the genuine walk in humility while we are striving to be the 'reflection of' the Father - which is a Son.

You see... only one way glorifies the Hallowed Name of God while the other defiles the Hallowed Name of God.

It is easy to stumble - so there's no need to condemn those who are in error.

John 1:1, for example, sounds like it is saying Yahushua is the Father.

However... that verse uses the words Elohim for God, which is like the family surname, and can thus be properly interpreted to say: In the beginning was the Son and the Son was with the Father and the Son was of the Father.

Yahushua confirms this when He said: I and the Father are One - which acknowledges a second personage: and says nothing of a third. Yahushua never said: I am the Father. He never said: "I sent myself," or, "I came of my own accord". He specifically stated He was sent (by someone else) - so this compels us to appreciate He and the Father were two personages having one and the same will.

...with the third called the Holy Spirit.

Naturally... those that believe Yahushua is the Father made flesh will find it difficult to accept this view - because they want to believe Yahushua was all divine from day one. If this is the case they cannot answer the question: When was Yahushua 'born again'? because if He always was divine - He could never have been 'born again'.

If we are to follow in His footsteps He must have gone through the process the Father has decreed we are all to undergo. Otherwise... when we overcome into the Name of God - we would be greater than Yahushua - having achieved something He did not - and that would be blasphemous.

The doctrine of the Trinity has caused one brother to argue with another brother - and the truth is: the false doctrine has ensnared many (who lust for authority) to think it a good thing to pursue being "like God".

Those who believe Yahushua is the Father made flesh implicate those who do not understand the Trinity as condemned to hell if they deny the doctrine. Yet... we can see the Trinity defiles the Hallowed Name of God - because it allows people to secretly lust after authority.

Yahushua told us He and the Father are one and we are in Him as He is in the Father.

This, then, means we are All as One in the Father through Yahushua who opened the gates of paradise for us. He also concluded we are children of the light.

In Genesis - satan deceived Eve (which then caused Adam) to partake of the forbidden fruit of knowledge of good and evil by luring her into thinking she would be "like God". Thus ... the doctrine of the Trinity is playing out again - for Genesis is a book that describes the beginning and the end simultaneously.

After the partaking of the forbidden fruit - God proclaimed this had established a power structure in the garden: when He told Eve she would be subject to Adam. This means their perceptions had developed a flaw which would be susceptible to delusions. God cast them out of the garden and set a cherub with a flaming sword to guard the way which - when clearly interpreted - states: only those who do not pursue authority will return to the garden.

Yahushua lifted the curse of one being subject to another when He said in Matthew 20:25-26: You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. It shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant.

He shed His blood so we may have the means to follow His example.

This means we have the ability to know, for ourselves, which doctrine is true and which doctrine is false. The only real question is: are we strong enough to embrace the truth when we discover something we believe is error.

I ask the Father, in Heaven, for the strength to embrace the truth when it comes my way because Yahushua said, 'More will be added to you - when you do this.'
It's not difficult to recognize these things so we do not need in-depth study to know how to apply the principles outlined here.

The real bad news is: this information is arriving late in the hour because satan has used the false doctrines to establish his kingdom with so many hierarchies - people think hierarchy is normal. The mystery of the Trinity is nothing more than satan's attempt to deceive the world into believing we are "like God" - and is therefore: the source of all the confusion.

satan, as you know, is the author of confusion - that has prevailed over this issue - just as he has endeavoured to cause confusion everywhere - so those who argue the Trinity is true ought to beware of possession. Christians, intrinsically, know something is not quite right - but they don't know what it is.

They only know Yahushua needs to return - because satan is working overtime to destroy everything God has created. It's about time we stopped arguing over this and accepted Yahushua is the one who was 'sent' to show us the way home.

THE SON OF MAN

The Book of Revelation starts by describing the Son of Man (literally).

Revelation 2:12-13 tells us about the seven golden lampstands with one like the Son of Man in the midst of the lampstands wearing a long robe and a golden sash around His chest.

Revelation 2:14-16 goes on to describe what He looked and sounded like with seven stars in His right hand and a sharp two edged sword that came out of His mouth.

Here we see the vision of the Son of Man - but Yeshua tells us the living church is in Him as He is also in the Father which means this vision is revealing the Son of Man in more ways than meets the eye. The stars are the angels which means He commands them accordingly to perform the Will of God.

The golden lampstands are the seven churches which are the different attitudes that people have toward the Word of God.

What's interesting here is...

We can see how Yeshua is setting the scene that allows us to recognise the means to become acceptable to the Father in Heaven. We know this because - we are informed He is in the midst of the golden lampstands and He later addresses each lampstand (church or attitude) to attain perfection.

Therefore... this vision is a vision of a work in progress where each attitude type is perfected to become the body of Christ - which is the Son of Man: given the fact the church is in Him as He is also in the Father.

This means the church (body of Christ) is not the bride, as theologians have tried to assert in the past, but the bridegroom. The second chapter also indicates how each attitude (church) will make up the body of Christ - which is something that has never been recognised until now.

The churches called to perfecton are spoken of as individual body parts:

- 1) Ephesus is the left hand.
- 2) Smyrna is the chest.
- 3) Pergamum is the head.
- 4) Thyatira is the feet.
- 5) Sardis is the legs.
- 6) Philadelphia is the right hand.
- 7) Laodicea is the stomach.

Ephesus is the left hand because He is instructing this church (attitude) what is good for the left hand by saying the seven stars are in His right hand - and those that overcome shall be granted the right to eat from the tree of life - which would require a hand to collect the fruit off the tree.

Smyrna is the chest because Yeshua speaks about allowing death to facilitate life so the heart can recognise the crown that will be given to those who overcome.

Pergamum is the head because this section deals primarily with the ability to teach (speak) and He references the sword of His mouth to warn those who refuse to repent. Those who do overcome will receive the hidden manna which they can eat.

Thyatira is the feet because this section deals with the way feet run to iniquity and warns those who refuse to repent will be thrown into a sickbed. He also referenced His own burnished bronze feet, in the beginning, and concludes with promising those who overcome will have the morning star which is a subtle reference to the heel bruising the head of the serpent.

Sardis is the legs because Yeshua says the work of this church is not complete which means they have not walked the distance required of the Lord. Those who overcome, however, will be granted to walk with Him in white for they are worthy.

Philadelphia is right hand because the seven stars are in His right hand and this is what gives Him the power to open and shut doors. This church (attitude) is also highly favoured, of the Father. These are the people that will be placed at the right hand of the Lord because they are in Christ (Yeshua) who is also in the Father.

Laodicea is the stomach - which is rather obvious: given the fact He references vomiting those that remain lukewarm in their ways.

All this is given to us so we may understand how the attitude we have toward the Word of God determines the way we secure our eternal rest - because Yeshua frequently asserts the reward He has for those who overcome in the Name of God. What's interesting here is... after He delivers this address we are told how things will progress.

THE GENIUS WHISPERER

There was a time when Albert Einstein was unable to answer a question, during a presentation, and the audience declared he was not a genius: but Einstein responded with an apt answer, "Ah... but I know where to find the answer," which put the audience in their place.

Einstein made it known the difference between a genius and an idiot is: an idiot takes something that is simple and complicates it - whereas a genius is someone who takes something that is complicated and simplifies it.

This is to say... if you want to be a genius it simply requires that you are articulate enough to explain how you understand something, that is considered complicated, to those who are unable to understand something and you need to know where you can obtain pertinent information to explicate your point of reference.

Truth is one discipline that has eluded many geniuses since the ancient philosophers to the modern scientist.

Truth has been labelled the property of anyone who understands mystery religion - while those who have the capacity to explicate some scientific theory, in a mathematical formulae, consistently demonstrate a credible reputation of owning the truth when they apply their theories to produce high-end technology.

However, these have all been thwarted at some point in history - and, as such, truth remains an enigma.

An Example Of Marred Progress

Scientists have observed strange phenomena and / or paranormal activity, that defies all logic and understanding, which has often brought them to a humbling position of starting from scratch.

Mystery religion (which includes Atheism and False-Christianity and to some extent Science) frequently fails to explain something - or secure peace between those who want to express 'their' truth.

When confronted with such a situation: science relies on the 'self-correcting' clause while mystery religion declares the 'mystery' to be the source of faith - in something unknown: or it denies the existence of an invisible spirit altogether.

Unfortunately - for them - science has come to an understanding there is an interconnected dimension they call the field (or Higgs-Boson Field) that consistently demonstrates a hidden spiritual dimension - but science is reluctant to describe it as a spiritual realm because they know the mystery religion will use it to draw people to their religion of confusion.

This has not deterred the mystery religion (especially the New Age Movement) from using scientific observations to declare consciousness the new god - so they can exalt the 'I am God' mentality.

What is going on?

Technically... science and philosophy (mystery religion) have re-entered a war of ideologies - and it would seem the question of morality is at the forefront of this war: even as scripture claims to be the authority on morality.

For this reason we need to examine the true nature of humanity to identify the causes of immorality - and this requires the application of the Nine-Six Theory - to root out all the false doctrines that have emerged from scripture: because it is self-evident religion is failing to provide answers thus far.

This is where two opposing positions see the same number from different perspectives and they are convinced the number is a six on the one side and a nine from the other side. If we are to find true perspective we must secure the third position of recognising both perspectives so we can approbate the truth.

Science has been doing this for centuries, using logic as the third position: but only so far logic can go before it begins to breakdown and force a philosophical position to explain something that is inexplicable. This is why many theories today are considered philosophy in science - and, as such, it makes scientists uncomfortable.

Having discovered the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God is made manifest when we abound in the love of Christ (which is exemplified in perfect equality - and no one raises their head above another) we can begin to recognise the truth for what is it: because this reality becomes subject to conflagration when the Righteous Elect are translated.

This is to say... Yeshua was aware the scripture has a duality and He also understood how to alloy the Nine-Six Theory. He understood what the Word of God means - and although He warned us to beware the leaven of the Pharisee: the church fell into apostasy at the hands of those who sought to assert their own (self-righteous) understanding of the scripture as inspired truth.

Understanding the means by which one places the seal upon the forehead grants one the authority of the Most High when the Name of God of placed as a seal upon the forehead. This is what Yeshua did to personify the truth. Thus... the truth is something that is owned by the Most High - not any particular person - and we are required to personify it as we seek to manifest the Name of God in the world just as Yeshua did,

Okay... the Nine-Six Theory is a made up phrase but it is real in the way a person can step back from a position to observe the bigger picture as a third perspective. If we are to bring perfect holy peace to the world - we can only do it from this third perspective position: the way Yeshua did when He ministered the Word of God.

This third perspective is what atheists crave because they think logic (which is one part understanding plus a second part understanding provides a third part understanding) allows them to perceive reality in this third perspective.

However... they close their minds to this third perspective calling it 'predictive' understanding - and they foolishly embark on quests to prove the prediction is true - as they have done with evolution and dark matter etc.

The Book of Enoch tells us to observe nature so we can see how the Laws of God do not transgress His command. This is what science is supposed to do if it is to honour the noble pursuit of truth. The problem is... the perfidious attitude of the satanic mindset (adversary to the Most High) uses science to try and justify its own interests in defying the Most High.

This does not mean everything in science is a lie - but, rather, the theories they publish are established perspectives that are open to scrutiny - thus it is wrong to take them as gospel truth: especially when they are aware we inhabit a holographic universe.

For example... science has desperately sought to unify Quantum Theory with the Theory of Relativity to secure their understanding of the universe into one set of equations. They have come up with String Theory which postulates reality is made up of tiny vibrating strings that are immensely smaller than the atom.

The problem with this theory is - no one can test it: so many people in science consider it to be mere philosophy.

The point here is... science may have this 'the math works - therefore it is correct' attitude - but they know these theories are open to improved understanding which is why the perfidious carry this 'prove it' mentality in the forums. It is only when a person steps back from an issue, to see the bigger picture, they can appreciate the futility of the whole situation and they can begin to appreciate the bigger picture.

In Conclusion

The Name of God transcends the audio and can only be observed in the way we abound in the love of Christ - so in perfect humility we can maintain perfect equality between everyone.

To successfully apply the name of God as a Seal upon the forehead - we need to understand the Nine-Six Theory allows us to understand how a belief or doctrine facilitates the assertion of hierarchy (which is the presence of sin).

After we learn how to walk in perfect humility - we are consecrated, by the blood of Yeshua, to meet the criteria of being able to enter into Eternal Paradise: so this reality can pass away.

This reality may be a hologram - but we are told Eternal Paradise is real: so it would be wise to root out all the excuses religion or philosophy uses to (falsely) justify the perversions that cause harm to others and the environment.

Broad is the way to destruction - because there are so many ideologies rank of philosophy and religion (which includes science and atheism) that inspire the perfidious to justify their perversions: because they fail to recognise the harm their deeds have upon others and the environment.

Few there are that enter into Eternal Paradise - because it is no easy task to place the Name of God as a seal upon the forehead to manifest the Name of God and personify the truth as a Child of Light. Especially when the world is crawling with demonically possessed people intent upon defiling the Name of God - so satan can steal the crowns (sanity) of those who are seeking perfection in the Name of the Most High - through and in Yeshua.

If you have the eyes to see this world will pass away - may the Father bless you as you seek to glorify Him.

THE FOUR SEALS OF GOD

I've been trying to understand why it is few, if any, have received the understanding of how Yeshua manifested the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God.

I've been telling myself: timing is the hallmark of the Most High.

Plus... I can see satan is desperate to thwart this information reaching people because it would render him utterly powerless. In such a situation - his demons would initiate an all out attack on those who do receive the mark of God: which would trigger the war in Heaven. Thus... I am aware of the seriousness of the situation - but I am not one to shrink from my duties as a servant of the Most High.

Therefore... I am going to propagate my ministry to let you all know what the marks (or seals) are - so you know who you are in Christ or satan depending on your attitude towards the Father in Heaven. Some will already know this... but this is to clarify the situation from a biblical perspective.

The Book of Revelation speaks of marks that are accepted by the individual and placed in the forehead (or forearm). These marks - or seals - are of the beast or of God: and they determine who an individual is in the prophetic outline of the creation.

Those who accept the mark of the beast are in satan and they will suffer the Wrath of God. Those who receive the mark of God are in Christ and they will be protected when the wicked are being removed.

These marks, or seals, are spiritual in nature.

However... those who worship satan are intent upon manifesting the mark of the beast as a physical mark in the form of a serum that will alter the genome of the individual. This will render the soul devoid of freewill: so a disembodied spirit of a Nephilm can host the vessel as a worker or thinker - which is why it is said to be in the forearm or forehead.

The mark of the beast is spiritual initially.

The individual is prepared, by demons and the system man has established, to empty the soul of freewill so the serum (which is a physical antigen) is administered to facilitate the spiritual manifestation of demons into the physical from the desolation they currently inhabit.

This means... those who have rejected Yeshua and denied the Holy Spirit will have been prepared by demons to accept the serum - to immortality - because the mark is initially spiritual in the fact their attitude is satanic (adversarial to the Most High).

It's like the process of becoming prepared for baptism - which takes time for the individual, who initially accepts Yeshua as their Lord and Saviour, to ready themselves for baptism. Accepting Yeshua is spiritual (with physical changes that are observable on Earth).

Baptism into the faith is physical (with spiritual changes that are observable in Heaven). Accepting the mark of the beast is spiritually initiated through Christmas - which perverts the innocent to lust after material possessions.

The child is then subjected to a bombardment of media and movies that glamorizes the luxurious lifestyle and is told to excel within the education system- which is designed to indoctrinate them with the lies of satan that assure them the lusting for power is noble.

This brings the condition of the child to a state of delusion that ignores all the red flags such as the glaringly obvious lies in science - which means they are ready to receive the serum - and be baptized into Hell.

Here's the thing... the mark of God is also a prepared situation in which the individual is required to root out all false doctrines of the apostate church - so they may receive the seal or mark of God upon the forehead.

Baptism of water is to introduce an individual into the fellowship with the Father and the ecclesia of those in the faith - so they may begin the journey of overcoming into the Name of God. The baptism of fire leads to receiving the seal upon the forehead so the individual has the mark of God - which means they cannot be deceived by the lies of satan.

Now... I don't want to cause alarm here - because I'm aware many Christians think they had the mark of God when they accepted the Yeshua as their Lord and Saviour. The truth is - while this may be a noble sentiment: we are all required to undergo the process of sanctification into the Name of God which includes suffering persecution as we root out the false doctrines - so as to circumcise the leaven - from our hearts.

By the time an individual is free of all the apostasy - they are ready to receive the seal and recognize how the Name of God was made manifest by Yeshua. They will see with spiritual eyes the Name of God is made manifest in the way we abound in the love of Christ - which is exemplified by practicing humility so perfect equality becomes apparent within the living church.

They will hear with spiritual ears the Word of God is magnified by the presence of love that esteems perfect humility before the Father. Understanding the Name of God (which is the seal of God) allows the individual to recognize the truth - so they may reject the lie perpetrated by satan and his agents.

If you want the protection of the angels: you need to receive the mark of God upon the forehead - which will come as a flash when you suddenly realized all of scripture is pointing to the way we are required to exemplify the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God by lifting up the Son of Man.

How do we lift up the Son of Man?

We abound in the love of Christ - so others may see Yeshua loves the Father in Heaven. By doing this - we, by default, fulfill the Royal Law - upon which all the laws of the old prophets hung: and that means the Father will have written His Laws upon the heart.

We love the Father by loving one another in perfect humility - within a world devoid of hierarchy - and we are to walk upright before the Father by never getting angry or lustful in our ways.

If I can do these things - you can.

Yeshua told us to be perfect as the Father is also perfect in Heaven - so it is possible to overcome into the Name of God. Then... we can receive our garments of glory and look up as we raise into Eternal Paradise.

First Seal = Accepting the Word of God

Second Seal = Baptism of Water

Third Seal = Baptism of Fire (Name of God)

Fourth Seal = Garments of Glory

The crown is the capacity to reason. Thus... your sanity is the crown you possess.

Those who accept the mark of the beast will lose their crown because freewill facilitates reason. These four seals are like the steps we take toward the Father in Heaven as we learn to placate the heart to His Will.

The four seals also described in the Gospel of Mary as the stages of the Ascending Soul that overcomes:

- 1) Darkness.
- 2) Ignorance.
- 3) Desire.
- 4) Death.

I always wondered why Yeshua never described the Ascent of the Soul in first person terms - but then it came to me: He, as a child, would have recognized the Word of God in scripture and accepted it, so as to personify the truth, which means others may follow Him. This was when He would have overcome darkness to receive the first seal. This can be a long phase for many - given the fact the world has so many regions (which includes atheism) to lull the soul to sleep.

An example of this can be observed in the way people are oblivious to the passing of prophecy or the need for a saviour.

When an atheist is confronted by one who is aware of the passing of prophecy - they deny all references, calling them coincidence, then goad the Christian to argue so they feel vindicated by any anger they hope to inspire. Thus... the soul that has not accepted the Word of God cannot hope to learn so as to overcome ignorance and receive the second seal (at the water baptism).

Indeed... many Christians have also denied the Word of God because they use the scripture for personal gain which means they have taken the Name of God in vain. They claim to love God but refuse to root out the ideologies and false doctrines of the apostate church.

For example... they refuse to discard such doctrines as the Father made manifest in the flesh so they can pursue the power of the Father as they seek to emulate Yeshua.

Thus... they may have accepted the Word of God outwardly - but they deny it inwardly: so the accepting of the first seal is like a phase that requires the soul to circumcise the heart of leaven (fully). This is to say... the first seal is recognizing the need for a saviour and being able to identify with Yeshua who personified the Word of God: with the intention of emulating His humility.

Yeshua did this as a child.

We know He did this early because the elders, at the synagogues, were amazed by his words even when he was only twelve.

He could, then, progress onto the next seal which is to overcome ignorance (fully) and we know from the cannon He was baptized at the age of thirty during late September early October when John was calling Israel to repentance at the river Jordan.

During this time... many people came to John for baptism because they sensed the time of the Messiah had arrived - and while many charlatans were vying for the position of Messiah: John knew the Lamb of God would be the one who goes into the wilderness. By the time Yeshua had prepared Himself for baptism - He had studied scripture enough to know who He is and what His role was.

Thus... the overcoming of ignorance is also a phase that requires due diligence of learning how to walk upright before the Father in Heaven.

This is then followed by a period of time in the wilderness where the person is brought to a moment of clarity where they truly know who they are - in Christ - when they refuse the temptation satan puts before them.

This is when the third seal of understanding how to place the Name of God in the forehead is received - even as the angels minister unto those who have already overcome ignorance. This is when they have overcome desire - having denied satan.

This can (also) be a long phase - as it was for myself - because I hadn't fully overcome ignorance by the time I received my third seal.

The lack of knowledge caused me to stumble but I decided to document my learning process: so people can go through these phases with some measure of understanding what is going on. I (obviously) cannot know everything - but I have come to the point where I recognize the Name of God is critical for reality to exist with zero entropy.

This helps to appreciate the need to walk the narrow path home - because it allows me to understand how each footstep is an imprint in the Book of Life which is measured by the avoidance of anger and lust.

This is how we walk in humility before the Father in Heaven unto perfection.

The fourth seal is the receiving of the garments of glory and the Gospel of Mary characterizes this walk by maintaining a sense of propriety in the face of oppression: such as false accusation and senseless violence.

Thus... when an atheist or an apostate Christian seeks to assert their ideologies and beliefs to inspire the Ascending Soul to argue and get angry - they are causing them to stumble before the Father in Heaven. This does not mean we should ignore them.

It means we are to be informative rather than assertive - so they may come to each seal in their own time. When the soul has walked sufficiently to placate the Will of God unto the whole world - they are ready to overcome death: which Yeshua did after three days. We who have walked upright before the Father in Heaven, on the other hand, will enter into one of four chambers where we will await resurrection.

THE SPIRIT OF PROPHECY

True-Christianity was prophesied before written language was formulated - and it was never intended to be dogmatic: because it is supposed to be a relationship based upon a faith that explicates truth in light.

The knowledge of this faith-based relationship, becoming prevalent in the world, was passed down from the first man - generation to generation - until Moses was able to scribe the account of creation (from the perspective of the creator) in order to establish the parameters in which the truth - in light - would legitimise the Royal Law.

The Royal Law maintains the function of reality because consciousness is an integral component of creation - so it's important to fulfil.

The biblical account of creation speaks of the generation of the Son of Man - and the struggle the creator had in dealing with the satanic mindset - which is the predilection to assert authority over others using whatever means is available.

Such means include:

- 1) Politics (that use deception)
- 2) Religion (that apostatise truth)
- 3) Military (that use force)

The Book of Job was written before the flood and he tells his friends his faith is in the resurrection on the last day.

This means true-Christianity is founded on ancient text that pre-date the floor and the first open discussion between the creator and the first man.

It was after the flood we saw the emergence of apostate religions that were started by Nimrod who, travelled the world and, preached whatever form of apostasy people would accept so he could secure rulership as the first king - after he stumbled upon the ancient text left by the Nephilim.

The illuminati honour this individual as the god Isis who established a religion based on the worship of the serpent because that creature is wise (apparently).

The Chinese wrote about Nimrod saying a priest travelled with a very hairy man who claimed mankind had evolved from apes. This is why all the apostate religions appear to have a similar theme that is based on subjecting oneself to higher authority in a secular environment.

The illuminati have learned through their investigation of Nimrod about the reprobate angels, who corrupted the seed before the flood, so they have developed their religion upon the worship of false gods who encourage idolatry and sexual immorality.

They are well aware of the prophecy regarding the generation of the Son of Man being the focus of their counterpart - which is why they will initiate the systematic destruction of all Christians in the end days.

In the end there will only be two kinds of people:

- 1) Those who are of the light (sheep)
- 2) Those who are of the darkness (goats)

It won't matter who has the oldest religion or who is most convinced they are in truth on the Day of the Lord because - in the end - it will come down to light and darkness: and only the light will survive the passing away of this reality.

How was the spirit of prophecy made manifest in the world for us to understand the process of sanctification that nurtures this faith-based relationship?

There are prophetic books within scripture that reveals how a person - who calls Himself 'Alpha and Omega' in the Book of Revelation: spoke about developing and nurturing this relationship. The Book of Revelation outlines the finer details of the struggle to bring this relationship to reality - at a spiritual level.

The opening chapters speak of the pre-existing church which consists of seven variant attitudes, that need to be addressed, and the history of mankind begins with the opening of the first seal upon the sacred scroll.

Biblical scholars postulate the seven letters of the church and the first seal is opened, in the end, to initiate the end times events. However... Yeshua tells us He, being the spirit of prophecy, is the Beginning and the End - so the Book of Revelation was presented to reveal the history of mankind from beginning to end at a profoundly spiritual level.

The Book of Daniel features several prophetic visions that also reveals the struggle to effect repentance in the world - at a spiritual level that is easier to connect to the physical events on earth. The Book of Revelation is high end prophecy whereas the Book of Daniel is low end prophecy.

For example... The Book of Revelation speaks of beasts rising up out of the sea and the earth which could be kingdoms or attitudes or even both.

The Book of Daniel speaks of the rise and fall of specific kingdoms in the world so we can plausibly identify the kind of symbolic language the Most High uses to reveal prophetic events.

The last vision in the Book of Daniel, is a narrative of the events leading up to the end, concerning the people of Israel (which includes true-Christians because they are of the lost tribes and the gentiles that are grafted into the faith).

The final prophecy begins in chapter ten in the third year of Cyrus when a waking-vision, that appeared before Daniel, was so powerful - his friends ran away leaving him without the strength to even remain awake.

The description of the man, in the Book of Daniel, matches the description of the Alpha and Omega in the Book of Revelation - so we know this person is Yeshua.

He explained He took time out from fighting the prince of Persia to speak with Daniel because the archangel Michael (prince of Israel) had helped Him.

This vision ended after Yeshua told Daniel he would receive the final vision - at some point in his future - and he should continue his service in readiness to receive this vision. Yeshua concluded He had to continue His fight with the prince of Persia who would be preceded by the prince of Grecia.

It is when we come to chapters eleven and twelve we see the vision came to Daniel - during the first year of Darius. This indicates the fight, Yeshua spoke of, had taken a new direction because the next king took the throne meant He was already preparing Himself to deal with the prince of Grecia.

The vision begins by describing the way Persia would fall to Greece but that kingdom would quickly fall into four regions which we now know were:

- 1) Lysimachus - Thrace and Asia Minor
- 2) Cassander - Macedonia and Greece
- 3) Seleucus - Babylon, Persia, and India
- 4) Ptolemy - Egypt, Palestine, Cilicia, etc

Daniel introduces the King of the South saying one of his princes becomes more powerful than the king because he had joined forces.

This is to say the regions of Seleucus and Ptolemy had become one spirit (a powerful prince) and was strong enough to attempt joining forces with the King of the North when the daughter of the King of the South was sent to make an agreement.

This, being the moment Cleopatra attempted to win the heart of Caesar, doesn't work out and that initiates a deep resentment between the two kings who ultimately career to destruction.

What appears to have happened, at this time, is the princes had matured to rule the north and the south as kings because they inherited the spiritual dominion from their father lucifer. The spirit of prophecy was when Yeshua fought with a single prince in the beginning - but by the time two princes had appeared and matured they were sent into a destructive lock that was caused by the rejection of the daughter.

The two kings of the north and south had been drawn into a fight with each other so Yeshua was in a prime position to enter into the world, in the flesh, to conquer all the forces of darkness.

Technically speaking... the moment the two kings were drawn into the fight with each other the whole situation would unfold like a set of falling dominoes that would be initiated with the death and resurrection of the King of Israel because the faith-based relationship would be established.

All Yeshua had to do, after that, was cast fire upon the earth - to let those who hear His voice become baptised as they sought purity and perfection. However... satan successfully causes the church to fall into apostasy - so Yeshua needs to let tribulation root out the true-Christian from the false-Christian.

This would happen when the King of the North turns his attention toward the holy covenant and initiates its destruction - even as the King of the South keeps him occupied: he succeeds in shattering the power of the righteous elect.

The faithful remain faithful and these are the remnant that are caught up to the throne of God - to receive their garments of glory ready to return with Yeshua to usher in the Kingdom of Heaven. The spirit of prophecy will gain strength at that time because the wicked will be removed which means the angels Yeshua had been fighting will no longer have any power.

I think this is enough to ponder on for now.

THE WALK HOME TO PARADISE

Yeshua (Jesus) told us to be perfect as the Father is also perfect in Heaven - so whenever I see someone state, "No one is perfect," you can imagine I see this as a cop out to justify living impiously. The Book of Revelation tells the churches their various reward for overcoming - so this means perfection is attainable.

The question is: What, exactly, is perfection?

Yeshua was perfected when He said, "Father forgive them, for they know not what they do," because that was the expression of pure love which He personified.

However, it was not a simple case of making such a statement but, rather, the way He walked upright before the Father: which culminated in refusing to judge unrighteously that perfected Him.

This is because He learned to never abuse the power He had - and He was fully equipped in the Word of God to achieve success. When He said, "Father, why have you forsaken me?" we can see He had placed faith in the Father to resurrect Him. We know He did not expect to receive glory - with resurrection - because He humbly asked the Father to give Him glory, for manifesting His Name, during His prayer in the Garden of Gethsemy.

Thus... if we are to receive our garments of glory, as He did, we must also manifest the Name of God and walk upright before the Father until we (too) are perfected. This may seem an awesomely daunting task but the good news is - we have the blood of Yeshua to attain a measure of grace: so we can learn to live piously.

Grace gives us the opportunity to learn how to walk upright before the Father - so we may manifest His Name until we are perfected - and this is only difficult if there is unwillingness to do the Will of God. Many of these things are difficult to understand when we don't know what the Name of God is - so I shall provide a breakdown of the three stages to perfection for those who care to know:

The First Stage (1) - Repentance

The formative stage to perfection is the realisation a saviour is needed.

Yeshua had the Father to rescue Him from the forces of darkness by imbuing Him with the perfect-light. We have Yeshua, who works with the Father, to rescue us from the forces of darkness by imbuing us with the same light - after baptism.

This (primarily) involves a conscious decision, from the heart, to be right with God - come what may.

This is called: repentance.

We - then - become of the light, when we look to the Yeshua for salvation, because the process of sanctification allows us to learn how to walk upright before the Father.

This is called: grace.

When things go wrong in life - as if often does - this is when God is calling us to recognise the need to repent or appraise our walk in the faith:

- A non-believer needs to repent
- A Christian appraises their walk

These two aspects are different because they require two functions:

- 1) We stand up, before God, then...
- 2) We learn to walk upright before God

Preachers often categorise these together by calling it 'a state of perpetual repentance,' but that doesn't make sense because a person can only decide to accept the Word of God, as the moral authority, once. Therefore... the first stage is repentance - and this is facilitated by the realisation we cannot save our own souls from evil.

This is made apparent by recognising the source of evil is the predilection to satisfy self - at the expense of others - and we are ensnared within chains because habits are difficult, if not impossible, to break. The realisation we need a saviour is made easier to appreciate when we are able to see how actions either:

- 1) Harm others and/or put people down
- 2) Lift others up and/or protect others

This isn't rocket science.

Those who rationalise harmful behaviour are aligned with darkness because they care more for self than others. This is the predator mindset called K-Selected people in psychology - and it is (supposedly) associated with honour and rules of engagement between competitive people.

Those who realise harmful behaviour is wrong are aligned with the light because they care more for others than self. This is the innocent mindset called R-Selected people in psychology - and it is (actually) associated with harmony and sharing between non-competitive people.

In a world that has both K-Selected people and R-Selected people - the need for faith, in a deity that shepherds a flock, becomes apparent because R-Selected people just want to live in peace without any aggression of competition to survive.

Government sets itself up as the shepherd using K-Selected people to protect the R-Selected people - which is why they love to use fear tactics to secure governance - and the message of hope, in scripture, becomes pertinent. Repentance - then - is when a person makes a conscious decision, from the heart, to care for others more than self because they recognise the need for a saviour who can break the chains of wickedness (which are habits that fester perversion).

In other words... they choose to change from the predatory mindset of the K-Selected attitude to adopt the innocent mindset of the R-Selected attitude.

This requires a tremendous amount of faith because it involves adopting the trusting mindset of a child in place of the scheming mindset of a predator: and, as such, this feels like laying down one's life - to accept an external influence to rescue the soul from one's own evil nature. The repentant soul sees the need to remove the leaven (pride) from the heart because they recognise 'pride of heart' is the very thing that motivates the soul to pursue power (which is the source of evil).

K-Selected people see competition as a healthy means to ensure society, with hierarchy, can grow because competition is (apparently) 'natural selection' in action.

However... they fail to appreciate the predator mindset is highly destructive to harmony because it instils fear in others (much like a bully in the playground). Those who embrace the predatory mindset do little more than end up terrorising others in their insane lust for power - because that mindset eventually loses the ability to appreciate honour.

Those who see the harm, the K-Selected mindset causes, look to repent of this evil nature - with true humility for previous mistakes they have made. They want to remove this evil (circumcise the heart) because they can see it sets the mind in perversion. Thus... the first stage is: accepting the Word of God is the moral authority and Yeshua is the Lord and Saviour.

The Second Stage (2) – Baptism

The second stage is: manifesting the Name of God by fulfilling the Law of God. This means we need to 'know' the Name of God so we understand how it may be made manifest in the world. The Name of God, put simply, is: observed in the way we abound in the love of Christ.

The Name of God is made manifest when people walk in perfect humility so the Kingdom of Heaven may be established in perfect equality.

Perfect equality means no hierarchy of any kind - anywhere - ever.

There is no shortage of people who want to make the world a better place but there is so much confusion, in the world, the true-light is rapidly diminishing: because people are seeking to assert their own truth of what is right and what is wrong.

It is necessary to understand the difference between doing the will of self and doing the Will of God. This is where the Laws of God allow us to fulfil the Royal Law - which is to love (worship) the Father in spirit and truth by loving our neighbours as ourselves. This, again, is achieved by walking in perfect humility so we need to root out all apostate doctrines that facilitate idolatry and/or sexual immorality.

A doctrine, for example, that stipulates Yeshua is the Father made manifest, in the flesh, will allow a person to pursue the power of the Father as they seek to be Christ-like. This kind of person will rationalise their belief - as true - by using phrases like 'servile authority' to justify the pursuit of such power (subconsciously).

If a soul is aligned with a belief system, that allows the heart to pursue power, it will also seek to assert authority in other areas such as idolatry and sexual immorality.

It is imperative to root out all false doctrines that cause the soul to embrace apostasy - if we are to successfully manifest the Name of God. Yeshua rebuked the Pharisees for asserting their authority, because they lived by the letter of the law, so we need to be careful not to use the scripture to assert authority over others if we are to avoid the snares of satan.

When we are baptised into the faith - we receive a covering of light which allows us to become fully imbued with the perfect-light of the Most High: if/when we embrace the process of sanctification. The process of sanctification is learning to walk upright before the Father and it involves cutting off the leaven (pride) from the heart so the soul has no interest in asserting authority over another.

The second stage is learning to walk upright before the Father because the process of sanctification is when the Holy Spirit baptises the soul in fire after the initial water baptism.

Many Christians think they are immediately anointed, after they are water baptised, and they make a mockery of the faith by seeking to convert non-believers without the slightest inclination how to manifest the Name of God - let alone 'know' the Name of God. To 'know' the Name of God is to understand how to give glory to God in any given situation.

Therefore... the second stage involves purifying the spirit in the fire of the Holy Spirit in order to receive the anointing oil (ability to teach truth effectively).

The Third Stage (3) – Overcoming

The third stage is overcoming - in the Name of God - which is the practical application of wisdom. This is what separates the sheep from the goats because this comes down to keeping the Commandments of God and walking in the faith of the risen Lord. Technically... this is where the initial decision - in the heart - to be right with God is put to the test (after learning how to walk upright before the Father).

- Idolatry (sorcery) is spiritual perversion
- Sexual immorality is physical perversion

The evil one will seek to influence a person to become enslaved in the chains of wickedness by: exploiting the curiosity for sexual gratification (physical perversion) then fostering a rebellious attitude against the Word of God (spiritual perversion).

This is to say satan first causes physical perversion of sexual immorality before making an assault to secure spiritual perversion of idolatry. When a person develops habits of a wicked nature - it will naturally seek to justify these deeds: and that leads to worshiping false gods.

The only way to overcome (be free of the chains of wickedness) is to 'know' the Name of God and make the effort to change habits - which Yeshua refers to as removing the garments (ways of the world): then trampling on them.

This is how the truth sets a person free.

The process of sanctification allows a soul to personify the truth as it breaks free from each habit and learns to walk upright before the Father. A person who is privy to several habits, that defile the Name of God, need to understand they are wearing several layers of clothing: which means they should deal with the ones that harm others - directly - first.

Pornography will be among the last of habits to be dealt with - because that harms others indirectly. As a person sheds each habit, satan grows weaker - in his capacity to tempt a person - so the initial step is the hardest.

When a person has entertained a final habit, as the only means of gratification, sufficiently to destroy the other strongholds: they can then refuse the last temptation to destroy the final foothold.

This is when the spirit of perversion will seek to re-establish the other stronghold but the fact they have been destroyed means the person has learned to 'remember the Lord' when temptation comes.

A person who doesn't 'know' the Name of God: will not realise yielding to the spirit of impurity defiles the Name of God - causes harm to others - because the predilection to assert authority over another is blinding them to their actions. This is why the Book of Daniel tells us the wise will stumble so they may be purified.

Only after we learn how the spirit of impurity causes harm to others - will we fully acknowledge the necessity to maintain the Hallowed Name of God in eternal purity (forever). The prodigal son learns - the presence of the Father is more valuable than self-gratification or self-authority.

The third stage is when we have learned how to walk upright before the Father - and are at rest in the presence of the Father.

...which is: overcoming.

Yeshua achieved these things and established a path for us to follow Him - as we walk to paradise. Here are some scripture to read on the subject:

Repentance (Stage One)

Romans 3:23 - realise all have sinned

Romans 10:9-10 - profess Yeshua is risen

Baptism (Stage Two)

Act 2:38 - repent and be baptised

Ephesians 2:8-9 - gift of grace

Overcome (Stage Three)

Matthew 7:21 - do the Will of God

Matthew 10:32-33 - confess Christ before men

CYCLICAL SEARCHING SYNDROME

I've often asked myself why is there so much nonsense in the world - and it (well) became apparent: the spiritual war is entrenched in psychological strategy. You see... satan is aware the human mind is incapable of assimilating vast amounts of information because information overload will cause the mind to go into meltdown.

When a mind is subjected to vast amount of information it becomes locked in the detail it uses to make sense of things. This is called 'indoctrination' because a mind, that has found a sense of understanding in the information it has received, will rest on the initial outlay it adopts.

A typical example can be observed in the way an atheist, indoctrinated by evolution, struggles to let go of the religion they think is scientific fact.

When they are confronted with the fact science has failed to demonstrate any increase in genetic information - they argue mutation or speciation is evidence for evolution.

This means they are demonstrating an ignorance of the very definition of evolution.

Evolution is defined as the process of development from a simple cell to a complex animal which means the basic premise of evolution is the gradual increase in genetic information from zero to a high figure. They think the mutation or decrease in genetic information, which changes appearance, is sufficient evidence - which means they are ignoring the definition of evolution.

Recently... science has decided to change the definition of evolution to acknowledge the mutational and devolutional aspect of change they have observed - but this means they are admitting the 'increase in genetic information' is not something that has ever been observed.

This poses a dilemma for them because such a move means they have no way to renounce the existence of a creator. However... the bigger issue is the psychological harm these lies have caused many people because they were deceived into thinking science had a legitimate explanation for the origin of life in naturalistic terms.

These people have been indoctrinated by the lies and, as such, they will suffer the trauma of having to adjust to the truth - when they realise their whole perspective on life was in error.

Why is this going on?

Well... satan has devised the means to enslave people by causing confusion using vast amounts of information to create cyclical searching syndrome in the human condition.

When a person has assimilated vast amount of information that begin the process of discarding anything that doesn't support the perspective they adopted in the beginning - which means they become locked in a desperate struggle to clarify what is and isn't observed.

This is why people that are ignorant of something often demonstrate arrogance. Such things are highly emotive precisely because the foundation of understanding is shaken. The mind is locked in the direction it chose to pursue and this is why many people, informed in their discipline; cannot fully appreciate the 'direction' the other person has.

I say 'direction' because both will continue to learn as they pursue clarification on the perspective they have. This is why science continues to spend $10 Billion every year in an attempt to find the 'increase in genetic information' they have failed to find.

Instead of admitting they have failed to find the evidence - they are claiming it can be found with more funding; which means they are admitting evolution is a belief. They claim it is fact because they having observed macro-evolution (change within the kind) assume they will find the micro-evolution (change beyond the kind).

The problem is... the assumption it is fact has caused a great delusion to fall upon those who want the excuse to pursue their own desires. This means the problem is a moral issue of momentous proportions - because evolution is (technically) the doctrine of racism: given the fact it offers an excuse to favour one race over another.

How has this happened?

Throughout history - mankind has looked for answers in nature that are often superstitious and philosophical. First example... they thought thunder was caused by a god who used a hammer - so they were often guided by their fears to understand things. Science did much to remove intuitive thinking to embrace logical thinking in order to determine facts - but this has proven a limiting factor in the capacity to understand nature: because scientists have crossed the threshold of paranormal with quantum mechanics.

This has lead to a deadlock - because science, having a remit to exemplify naturalism, is aware the true nature of reality is stranger the fiction. The mind has a natural predilection to see synchronicity (which is timed coincidence) - so perception, being highly malleable, is susceptible to flaw at ever level of observation.

Science is aware it is faltering on this - but it doesn't understand what is going on.

This is because the vast amount of information (that was filtered by the mandate of simplicity) is starting to permeate the conscious mind in snippets that demonstrate such synchronicity.

Many will feel disconcerted by this because it renders evidence to the fact the soul was, and may still be, subject to unexpected alterations.

Here is an example how satan uses such psychological strategy to subdue a soul.

I was returning a van, I had hired to move home, and came to a red light. As I sat waiting for the light to turn green - I saw a five year old child struggling to keep with her mother. Not only did she have to take large steps, as they crossed the road, but she held her arm uncomfortably high because the lead was on the wrong way and the little girl was afraid the lead might fall off.

While I thought the mother was an inconsiderate person who was stupid to put the lead on the wrong way around - I was deeply moved by the way the little girl struggled to keep up.

If I was to analyse this - I could possibly see there was a message that said:

- 1) People should take precaution to keep up with the Father in Heaven who has much work to do.
- 2) People can easily let go of the doctrines their inconsiderate father (satan) is dragging them along with.
- 3) My new home was brought about because I had followed instruction from the Father in Heaven.

Now... I'm sure there may be several other interpretations of what I saw - even perhaps one that simply reassures me the Father is watching over me. The thing is this... if I had considered these possibilities when I saw the girl trying to keep up with her mother - I would have missed the beauty of the moment.

This is how satan has caused all of mankind to lose perspective on what is important.

It's only natural we want to understand what means what - but this is often predicated by the fear we have of an uncertain future. There is no shame in this because Yahushua acknowledged the questions His disciples asked about the end - but it is important to understand what satan is doing to rob us of our joy.

If you see something you suspect is a sign or a message - be sure to savour the moment without analysing it (because you can always look back on such wonderful moments). I saw that little girl in 2008 - but it still fills me with wonder to this day - because I didn't try to analyse what saw in that moment.

I can look back and see a significant quality that may connect me to the Father, in some way, and yes: that's all well and good - but I remember how it moved me. I was in the moment with the Father - not trying to find the Father - when I reflect on it.

If I had tried to analyse it when I saw it - I would not have been with the Father: because the beauty of the moment would have passed. In this life... you are going to see many coincidences that will make you feel like God is watching over you - but if you try to analyse everything: you'll miss the moment every time.

This is why we are told to remember the Father.

We are to give consideration to His Hallowed Name first and foremost on a daily basis then reflect on the things we saw and experienced in (quiet contemplation) prayer. It's only when we recognise these things - we can take measures to appreciate the importance of securing pertinent information that delivers lasting peace to the heart.

Otherwise... satan will continue to lead us to take on a personae of analysis - in every moment - so we lose focus on the beauty in this world and end up developing doctrines to satisfy religious (habitual) compulsions.

That causes cyclical searching syndrome (which is the source of all unhappiness).

Obsessional behaviour is forged by this mechanism of drawing a person toward the investigation of something - in the hope of discovering something meaningful.

The evil one knows we crave the knowledge to understand the way things are. He also knows of the fears we have of an uncertain future - but a faithful servant of the Most High will never become preoccupied by such things. Yahushua told us to be watchful. He also told us to continue going about our daily lives.

DUALITY IN SCRIPTURE

You know there has been a long heated debate as to whether Yahushua is the Word made manifest in the flesh or the Father made manifest in the flesh. If you step back and look objectively at their arguments - you can see: they both have what appears to be valid reason to perceive scripture as they do.

This is because the scripture has duality.

For example... Yahushua said, "I and my Father are one," which can be perceived to mean: He is the Father - or He and the Father have the same purpose. Now... I'm not going to labour over which one is correct - suffice to say the scripture has the capacity to formulate one of two perceptions.

Perceptions that will be determined by the attitude one has toward the Father in Heaven. Therefore... this is to say - if you look hard enough you can perceive scripture in one of two ways. The conception of Christ is a classic, which goes all the way back to Genesis 1, and culminates in being able to see the words: "came together" can mean sex or marriage.

Thus ... qualifying a need to appreciate the need to include it in scripture.

One perception leads to the pagan ideologies - while the other sets forth a path for us to recognise and walk home to the Father. The real question is ... when we see the two possible ways to perceive the Word of God - how can we know which one is correct?

The answer to that is in receiving the Seal of God upon the forehead - which is the process of sanctification into the Name of God.

Once you understand what the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God is - you know how to root out all the false doctrines of the apostate church. When I say 'unutterable' I don't mean 'not allowed to utter' like the sacred name movement - but the fact it can only be observed. Now... I've just outlined something critical to salvation here - and it starts with being able to see the duality in scripture.

If you cannot see this duality - it's because the Most High is stopping you: and He may be waiting for a better time to reveal it. The good news is... I have laid the groundwork upon the foundation Yahushua established ready for people to see it.

THE NINE-SIX THEORY

This is for the truthers (conspiracy theorists):

I understand you are motivated to explicate the truth, as you perceive it, because you want to do the Will of God and help others turn to the Father in humility.

I (also) understand you consider any opposition to your perception of truth to be a lie that is perpetrated to cause apostasy. I understand your sentiment more than you may appreciate - because I (too) want to eradicate apostasy from this world and give people a reason to turn to the Father. However... you need to understand the importance of living by faith if you are to do the Will of God proficiently because this world has a duality of perception I call: The Nine-Six Theory.

This is where two opposing positions see the same number from different perspectives and they are convinced the number is a six on the one side and a nine from the other side. If you want to do the Will of God - you must secure the third position of recognising the validity of both perspectives so you can appropriate the Hallowed Name of God.

I've been doing this for years - having discovered the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God is made manifest when we abound in the love of Christ (which is exemplified in perfect equality and no one raises their head above another).

Understanding this is how Yeshua was perfected in the Name of God - is where the third position in The Nine-Six Theory - grants one the authority of the Most High.

Okay... I realise the Nine-Six Theory is a made up phrase but it is real in the way a person can step back from a position to observe the bigger picture as a third perspective. If you want to do the Will of God - you can only do it from this third perspective position: the way Yeshua did when He ministered the Word of God.

This third perspective is what atheists crave because they think logic (which is one part plus a second part provides a third part for predictive understanding) allows them to perceive reality in this third perspective. Of course... this is nonsense... because they close their minds to the third predictive part thinking they have secured a deeper understanding. You... do the same thing with scripture - and this article is my final attempt to help you understand the error in this approach. The Book of Enoch tells us to observe nature so we can see how the Laws of God do not transgress His command.

This is what science is supposed to do if it is to honour the noble pursuit of truth.

The problem is... the perfidious attitude of the atheist mindset uses science to try and justify its own interests in defying the Most High (as I'm sure you are already aware).

This does not mean everything in science is a lie - but, rather, the theories they publish are established perspectives that are open to scrutiny. For example... they have desperately sought to unify Quantum Theory with the Theory of Relativity to secure their understanding of the universe into one set of equations.

They have come up with String Theory which postulates reality is made up of tiny vibrating strings that are immensely smaller than the atom.

The problem with this theory is... no one can test it - so many people in science consider it to be mere philosophy (even though it has been published and accepted as the most effective way to teach students the fundamental principles of reality).

The point here is... science may have this 'the math works - therefore it is correct' attitude - but they know these theories are open to improved understanding which is why they have this 'prove it' mentality in the forums.

You... are in this trap - of trying to prove your perspective is correct: and, as such, you engage in debate and argument not realising Yeshua refused to prove anything to satan (when He was in the wilderness). You are pointing at the symbol upon the floor shouting "Six" while your opponent is pointing at the floor shouting "Nine" and I'm in the third perspective - shaking my head - with a broken heart: because satan has you both in his grip.

There was a reason why Yeshua refused to prove anything when He was in the wilderness. If a person proves something - they are denying the other person the opportunity to live by faith.

This is a serious defilement of the Name of God, because He has ordained every individual has the right to receive His blessings through faith - so it is counterproductive to try and prove anything to anyone (thinking you're serving God). Thus... it is only when a person steps back from an issue, to see the bigger picture, they can appreciate the futility of the whole situation.

I wrote this article as a desperate plea to help you avoid the strong delusion - which is to engage in any argument to prove anything. I have proven nothing in this article - but that's not because I can't prove anything. It's because I choose to prove nothing as I inform you of the situation you are facing in every day life.

I really do understand you want to do what is right by the Father - but you should consider the third perspective so you understand how to exemplify the Name of God before you pursue some agenda to prove anything.

If you want to do the Will of God - learn how to place the Name of God in the forehead: so you may fulfil the prophecy in the Book of Revelation regarding that mandate. Don't let the agents of satan take your crown.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

The name of God is observed in the way we love one another in Christ. That is in perfect humility where no one seeks to raise their head above another.

In contrast the opposite is hierarchy where people are in authority over one another - thus the name of satan is observed in the way we assert authority over one another. Therefore... the Name of God is visible in perfect equality whereas the name of satan is visible in hierarchy.

The pyramid has an equation with a single six at the base... which tells us the number six - six - six is describing three power structures - and they are:

- 1) The False Prophet - Politics
- 2) The Anti-Christ - Religion
- 3) The Beast - Military

Politics (False Prophet): because they make empty promises.

Military (Beast): because they are ferocious and thrive on violence.

These three pyramid power structures make up the presence of evil in the world as seen by God - just as walking in perfect humility is the presence of love in this world.

These are the names that are visible to those who are of the spirit:

Perfect equality = Name of God.

Power structure = name of satan.

Any doctrine that facilitates hierarchy is of demonic origin because this is apostasy (falling away from truth).

I would like to take this moment to remember Timothy Leon Jackson who has been missing since June 2016. He loved this particular article.

I will see you again brother ♥

ABSOLUTE TRUTH

Well... I have a question for them:

Didn't Yeshua (Jesus) say He is the truth, the way and the life? Therefore... it is possible to know the truth if we know Yeshua - and if you can see how He manifested the Name of God - you know the absolute truth.

It is possible to know the absolute truth - but you can be humble enough to recognise you're on a journey toward being in the fullness of the knowledge of God (because you know the truth). The word 'know' in scripture means to be intimate with another. For example... Genesis tells us Adam knew Eve and she had a child.

Therefore... to know the truth is to have an intimate relationship with the divine creator. This is why scripture describes the union of bride and groom when the end of time comes - and we enter into Eternal Paradise. The process of sanctification includes the shedding of the worldly ways (garments) and adorning the ways of the Most High (garments of glory) - which is the journey back to the Father in Heaven.

Judgement is the process by which a person comes to the full knowledge of the Father - and this can only be achieved when a person repents (so the blood of the Lamb of God can cleanse the soul) unto perfection.

Perfection is attained gradually.
Purity is attained gradually.

This is because sanctification is a slow process in which the soul learns to progress toward the Father. Knowing the truth is instantaneously achieved when a person recognises the need for a Saviour and calls out to be saved because the Saviour is the truth. Once the connection is made - the soul develops a relationship with the Father as it seeks sanctification in His Name.

Therefore... it is ok for a Christian to say they know the truth - because the mere realisation Yeshua is the truth is knowledge of the truth.

Knowledge of absolute truth can only be declared if the person knows how to place the Name of God in the forehead. Purity can only be declared if the person has manifested the Name of God by placing it in the forehead.

Perfection can only be declared if a person did not deny the Name of God while suffering persecution - which is to not judge anyone unrighteously.

This may sound deceptively simple - but it does go deeper than people might imagine - so it is wise to maintain a willingness to learn from the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit knows how to use situations, in the life of a person, to strengthen their faith - as they pursue these noble qualities.

Make no mistake about it - if you recognise Yeshua as the Saviour: you know the truth - and if you can see how He manifested the Name of God by never abusing the authority He had: you are drawing near to understanding absolute truth.

Placing the Name of God in the forehead is achieved by choosing humility when you feel the urge to assert authority over others. The more you do this the more you learn how to purify your soul because you'll know what you need to repent of to be sanctified before the Father.

Perfection is when you endure persecution with humility to let the light shine forth into the world. These are the keys to the gates of heaven because the angels will minister unto those who piously pursue sanctification.

ORDINANCE OF REPENTANCE

I've been asked several times if a homosexual would go to Hell - just for having sexual urges toward the same gender. To be honest... I'm not surprised the churches are unable to explain the situation adequately.

I made it clear Yeshua (Jesus) tells us, anyone who breaks the least of the commandments will not enter into Eternal Paradise - which, you can imagine, is not the kind of thing they wanted to hear. However... I reassured them: there isn't a single person who hasn't broken the Law of God so we are all at the mercy of such judgement - regardless of any (particular) type of sexual immorality.

There is a criteria for entry into Eternal Paradise which doesn't discriminate.

Here is an in-depth perspective on the subject with an explanation of the options we all face in our daily lives.

The scripture speaks of two cities called Sodom and Gomorrah that were said to be filled with iniquity and abominable sexual immorality - so we know that whatever was going on there was spreading from one city to the next: which means there was a danger it would continue to spread beyond the two cities.

We are also told of a conversation where Abraham pleaded with God to spare the cities if He found ten righteous people. No doubt Abraham was concerned for his nephew Lot and his family who were in the city.

God agreed to spare the two cities if He found at least ten righteous people there - so we also know: whatever was spreading there was completely perverting everyone. God also said He would destroy the two cities for His Name's sake - which means He perceived a threat to His Name.

Thus... we know the iniquitous behaviour (there) was going to deny all mankind the ability to perceive the way the Name of God is made manifest in the way we abound in the love of Christ - which is to live piously in perfect humility to sustain a society that has perfect equality.

We cannot know for sure if the iniquity was homosexuality or some other sexual immorality - but we can come to understand how sexual immorality threatens the Name of God.

Does this mean homosexuals will all go to Hell for being homosexuals?

Those who defy the Word of God will be cast into the Lake of Fire - so as long as a person has the inclination to keep the Word of God: there is hope - and we are all required to overcome in the Name of God - regardless of the type of transgression we plunder against God.

If a heterosexual uses pornography they are transgressing the Laws of God too... so they have no right to judge anyone. If a Christian has a habit of becoming angry (untighteously) with people - they do not have the right to judge anyone. The only person who has the right to judge another is someone who has overcome in the Name of God.

This is because they will understand how difficult it is to overcome - so they will know how to show patience for those who are struggling to overcome. If a person does not recognise the need to overcome - that means they are defying the Word of God: so they have no hope of overcoming because they will not even understand the necessity of avoiding causing harm.

Paedophiles often struggle to appreciate their actions are wrong because they see their victims display pleasure - so they convince themselves the child enjoys the sexual act. This is because they fail to understand the importance of the sanctity of unity between a man and woman. Thus... the lack of respect for the sanctity of unity between a man and woman has far reaching consequences that ultimately lead to all manner of issues within society.

Homosexuals, obviously, do not recognise the sanctity of unity between a man and woman: but - then again - those who use pornography do not appreciate the sanctity of unity between a man and woman either. This means the issues we see in society is not the sole responsibility of one particular type of sexual behaviour but rather the inability to recognise the need to keep the Laws of God.

This is defiance of the Word of God - or rebellion against the sovereign authority of the Most High: which is the satanic mindset. This is to say... it's not homosexuality that will lead to a person being cast into the Lake of Fire - but, rather, the defiant attitude toward the Word of God will destroy the soul in Hell.

Homosexuals cannot see the harm their behaviour causes - so it's difficult for them to appreciate the need to repent and overcome in the Name of God. Many are truly decent people with a genuine interest in doing good - but they struggle with recognising the need to repent: thinking they are born with the tendency to pursue same gender sex.

This is why I wrote this article.

The story of Sodom and Gomorrah showed us the sexual immorality (there) was spreading so pervasively it perverted everyone - without mercy. Paedophilia and homosexuality are considered immoral and both have the ability to spread like a disease within society.

Pornography (or lewd conduct) is also capable of spreading like a disease too - so we don't know what exactly was going on there. However... if we look at the way the world is - it's not too difficult to see: all these things become prevalent within a society that doesn't acknowledge the moral authority of the Most High.

What is going on?

The power to create life within the sanctity of unity between man and woman cannot function with homosexuality or bestiality or paedophilia or pornography etc. The only way to create a child - then - is by external assistance: which means society falls into the hands of scientists who manipulate (and corrupt) genes.

Thus... it would seem the spirit of perversion is intent upon denying society the ability to create life within the sanctity of unity between a man and woman.

This means that in time... sooner or later... the Name of God will be completely removed from memory because all children will be born without the capacity to use their freewill to love anyone but satan.

This is because sexual immorality (of any kind) is the chains of wickedness - which traps a person within a particular mindset that denies them the ability to secure unity between a man and woman with the blessing of the Father.

There are paedophiles who don't want to be paedophiles and homosexuals who do not want to be homosexual because they can see the harm sexual immorality causes. These are the people who struggle to overcome in the Name of God - and they deserve our patience as they learn to change their mindset toward purity and perfection before the Father.

They - like anyone who overcomes - are the prodigal son who returns to the Father having learned His presence is too precious to leave. They will never transgress the Law of God again because they know there is only suffering in sexual immorality. However... many refuse to accept their sexual inclination causes harm and, as such, they pursue afflicting others.

Unrepentant paedophiles (literally) pursue placing children into the chains of wickedness so they can bind a child to their sexual preference.

Unrepentant homosexuals (literally) pursue placing society into the chains of wickedness so they can bind people to their sexual preference.

These are the people who refuse to acknowledge the sovereign authority of the Most High and defy the Word of God. Scripture speaks of the Abomination of Desolation which has been the thrust of many debates through the centuries.

Any sexual behaviour, that does not procure life, is an abomination.

Any sexual behaviour that renders a society unable to procure life causes desolation. Such a society falls into the hands of external forces, such as the science that manipulate and corrupt the gnome, which means the image of God (the ability to live piously) is destroyed.

Thus... the Abomination of Desolation is the worship of any sexual immorality that leads to the desecration of the image of God - because this causes people to lose the ability to exercise freewill. This is to say... while paedophilia is harmful to the innocence of children - homosexuality is harmful to society.

Anyone who transgresses against the Law of God needs to repent - or at least: recognise the need to overcome in the Name of God - which, admittedly, is extremely difficult to achieve - considering it requires removing garments (ways of the world) to take on a new mindset. One that does not allow the spirit of perversion to lead a person toward inappropriate behaviour or sexual immorality whatsoever.

This is freedom from the chains of wickedness - so the suffering associated with sexual immorality also dissipates as a person overcomes in the Name of God.

Understanding the way sexual immorality causes harm helps to initiate the need to appreciate the Word of God in those who have a genuine interest in doing good - because they will naturally defer from the predilection to harm others.

Many people are in this category feeling a sense of concern about the Day of the Lord - so it's nice to be able to let these people know: there is a way to enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

These are the options available to them:

- 1) Overcome - so they qualify for the first rapture - before the first rapture.
- 2) Refuse the mark of the beast and die in Christ - to come to the first resurrection.

This goes for anyone who has issues if transgression against the Most High.

Those who overcome will earn the right to judge righteously with Yeshua.

Those who die in Christ will earn the right to learn the ways of the Lord - from those who overcame before the first rapture. The spirit of perversion will not be able to burden them any more - so they can learn to appreciate (fully) the peace and freedom that comes with piety.

However... they will still need to overcome before the final rapture into Eternal Paradise (when this heaven and earth passes away).

The good news is... they will have a distinct advantage to achieve this because, having come to the first resurrection, they will know the difference between rest in Christ and the chains of wickedness - and they will (most likely) choose to remain pious to enter into Eternal Paradise during the White Throne Judgement.

This is to say... it's not homosexuality or paedophilia etc that will condemn a person to Hell - but, rather, the defiance of the Word of God - or refusing to accept the way sexual immorality causes harm to innocence and society as a whole.

If a person has homosexual tendencies they have two options:

- 1) Think this is genetic and beyond their control - thus defy the Word of God.
- 2) Recognise the need to overcome and Yeshua will walk with them.

Indeed... this applies to all forms of idolatry and sexual immorality.

The trick is to not allow the mind to imagine what might be (fantasise) - because that is how the spirit of perversion is seeking to establish a garrison within a person. It all comes down to the individual making the conscious decision to avoid the harm sexual immorality causes - and faith is an important part of the equation.

SIX HUNDRED THREE SCORE AND SIX

The Book of Revelation tells us the number of the beast is the number of a man - and the wise are called to understand and calculate this number.

The number is 666.

Many biblical scholars have attempted to attach this figure to evil people in history: by, somehow, adding the numbers of the letters in their names. However... even though they have made the figures fit - they have (utterly) failed to glorify the Father in Heaven with such knowledge.

The words 'it is the number of a man' may not be referring to an individual - but, rather, it may be an equation or formula of some kind. If we search through the equations in science and mathematics - we come to a formulae which has a selection of numbers above a single six for a pyramid. This seems rather odd - but it is possible the three sixes represent three pyramids.

The largest pyramids, in the world, are:

- The Giza Pyramids of Egypt
- The Xi'an pyramids of China
- The Teotihuacán pyramids of Mexico

Including the pyramid sites of the Hopi tribe in arizona which all align with the stars of Orion's belt.

The three largest set pyramids have a perfect alignment upon the surface of planet Earth which infers they were built by someone, or something, that had knowledge of the star constellation of Orion.

Or, perhaps, the early civilizations had an obsessive fascination for Orion's belt at the same time in ancient history. This is highly unlikely... so we are left with the prospect a superior race may have visited planet Earth some several thousand years ago.

Given the fact modern research, into the existence of extraterrestrial beings, has reached bewildering heights of conjecture, with evidence that is increasingly difficult to ignore, we have to take a moment to consider the implications of what is going on. Even the Cydonia pyramids, on Mars, are said to align with Orion's belt - which, if true, is indisputable evidence extraterrestrial or extra-dimensional beings have an obsessive fascination with Orion's belt.

Perhaps they have built these pyramids to initiate an inter-dimensional flow or block of energies which serves to purpose some agenda.

Who knows for sure?

The point is... the three sixes associated with pyramids around the world are a strong indication of a link between ancient mystery religions and the number of the beast. When I look at these evidences - I see two stories are emerging to explain what is happening:

- The scriptural account of fallen angels
- The alien account of Ascended Masters

One is riddled with anomalies and is the most popular theme - because it appeals to the ego - while the other is consistent but is being attacked to eliminate choice.

The Biblical Account (Fallen Angel)

The scripture tells us the Watchers left their first estate, in the heavenly realm, and corrupted man by teaching him technology that allowed him to assert authority over others. This was effective in causing mankind to become lustful and idolatrous - which advanced sexual immorality and sacrifice of innocence upon the planet - and war became a means to secure authority.

This means the pyramids were built by the giant offspring of the fallen angels - because they wanted to create a pantheistic society that worship the fallen angels.

We are also told the creator brought a great punishment upon the Watchers, having bound them up in a pit, and He sent a deluge to remove what had been genetically corrupted.

The Non-Biblical Account (Ascended Masters)

The alternative story is an asteroid destroyed all the corrupted creatures (dinosaurs) and mankind is evolving by means of natural selection - because naturalism accounts for the origin of life cough.

All trace evidence of giants is removed from public scrutiny and the worldwide floor is ridiculed to brainwash children with evolution within the education system. This has opened the door to say the pyramids were built by ancient aliens called the Annunaki who call themselves Ascended Masters.

This means the world is being deceived into thinking man was genetically modified by aliens - and they are poised to return to initiate mankind into godhood status of the Ascended Masters.

The thing is... even if the Theory of Evolution is true (which it is not) that would mean the intervention of aliens is not required - otherwise they are admitting naturalism is insufficient to let man evolve. Whichever way we look at the alternative story of benevolent aliens - there are serious anomalies: and only a deluded individual (intent upon attaining godhood status) will ignore this critical detail. The number of the beast is three sixes which is represented by the three pyramids - that empower one person over another: just as the elite lust for power.

This is the presence of sin (evil) in the world - because only hierarchy, or corrupt power, causes suffering of innocence. When did love (which is the R-Selected mindset of living in perfect equality of sharing) ever harm anyone?

I don't know if Orion's belt has anything to do with what's going on - because the fallen angels may simply be looking for those who are gullible enough to believe the Non-Biblical Account to assist them in their efforts to externalise the hierarchy they have in their spiritual realm.

The only way a demon can possess a person is by invitation - and curiosity (caused by fascination) will effect this: so I'm inclined to be dismissive of any significance in the constellation of Orion's belt because it serves one purpose.

It inspires a fascination in the subject (which is the snare used by demons to enslave mankind). The scripture describes the three sixes so we may be aware a pyramid is the presence of evil in this world - because anyone who seeks to assert authority over another is defiling the Name of God (which is made manifest in the way we abound in the love of Christ).

This is to say... in perfect humility within a society that has perfect equality between everyone. Thus we have contrasting types of civilisation:

- Perfect equality for one and all (everyone)
- Hierarchies of power with ruling class

Studies have shown societies that have better equality are happier and more prosperous - which is sufficient evidence to qualify the Name of God.

Unfortunately... most people are unable to appreciate the significance of this - and they will seek to establish themselves within a comfortable area within the hierarchy in society.

This means... they will openly choose to accept the invitation of genetic alteration - thinking the aliens are benevolent - not prepared to accept the consequences of this mistake. The prophecy surrounding the number six - six - six tells us the angel declares Babylon is fallen after people accept this alteration.

This means... the moment the reprobate angels initiate their genetic alteration of people to become their servants - the holy angels declare: it's all over by issuing a decree 'Babylon is fallen,' and the final phase of creation will begin: with the Bowls of Wrath. If people want to believe evolution is true: they won't offer any resistance when the reprobate angels come to remove their freewill.

This is why the decree goes out.

Once freewill is compromised - the end has arrived: and nothing can stop the destruction of the wicked after that.

Who are the wicked?

Anyone who uses hierarchy for self-approration or personal gain. In other words... those who approbate sexual immorality and idolatry without regard for the harm they cause. Science would have us believe mankind is either K-Selected (predatory) or R-Selected (herbivory) - but the truth is: man can choose which type of mindset to be.

For example... a murderer may have heightened K-Selected urges as they kill another - but they may display R-Selected tenancies when they are with family. What people need to understand here is... the moment they are genetically altered - they will be established in duality (which means they cannot be purified and sanctified before the Father).

The whole purpose of being born into the flesh is to learn how to live with an R-Selected mindset regardless of what happens to you - so you can be born again into the Kingdom of Heaven. In the end... it's up to each individual to choose, for themselves, how to live. Personally... I look to Yeshua as the perfect role model to exemplify my soul as an R-Selected mindset.

It's not that difficult to understand.

What are the three pyramids that make up the number of the beast in the world?

- 1) The False Prophet - politics and business
- 2) The anti-Christ - apostate religions
- 3) The Beast - the military and police

These are the building blocks of the hierarchy and the elite think they are above everyone because they have an understanding how consciousness allows the two dimensional reality of space-time (spiritual and physical) to create the three dimensional illusion we perceive as reality.

They think they are Masters of Reality - when the truth is: they are deluded by the illusion of power they have secured over the multitude.

This power is the three pyramids that make up the number of the beast - and those who come to understand how Yeshua manifested the Name of God: will never be subject to their delusions.

The False Prophet (politics) is losing its ability to deceive people with empty promises.

The anti-Christ (religion) is losing its ability to control the masses with false doctrines.

The Beast (military) is losing its ability to force people who are prepared to stand up against tyranny.

There are many conspiracy theorists that are working to expose all the schemes of the reprobate angels and their agents (the government) - so people are becoming savvy. This is why they will push to initiate the genetic alteration of the human race. They will do this because they are losing control of the people they want to rule over.

Therefore... I give you a dire warning - time is running out.

THE CYCLICITY OF PERFECT LOVE

The Royal Law is: arguably the least understood aspect in scripture - because people fail to appreciate how the living soul is designed to personify the truth. When Yahushua said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life," I immediately recognised my role in this world - just as every Christian should.

Indeed... He confirmed this when He said, "I am the light of the world," then proceeded to speak of placing a lamp in a high place. This is to say... every word that proceeds from the mouth and every deed performed should be carefully considered to ensure the Name of God is made manifest.

Yahushua mastered these things so He could fulfil the Law of God and personify the truth - so all may understand how to follow His example and do the same thing. The Royal Law comes in two parts and they are cyclical in the way they exemplify each other to give glory to the Father in Heaven.

The First Part is: Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind.

This is broken down in the initial part of the ten commandments as:

- 1) Do not worship (venerate or love) anything other than the Most High.
- 2) Do not create any graven idols / images.
- 3) Do not pretend to love the Most High - because hypocrisy is plain to God.
- 4) Keep the Sabbath day holy and rest so you may recuperate from your labours.

The fifth is a pivotal point that allow Heaven and Earth to exist eternally.

- 5) Honour thy Father and thy Mother so you may receive the blessings of love.

This is where the first part of the Royal Law requires the second part to ensure the cyclicity of love can take effect.

The Second Part is: Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

This is broken down into the latter part of the ten commandments as:

- 6) Do not commit murder.
- 7) Do not commit adultery.
- 8) Do not steal.
- 9) Do not give false evidence.
- 10) Do not envy your neighbours things.

When we are abound in the love of Christ we are naturally inclined to manifest the Name of God - and this is made effectual when we have no desire to even consider transgression. This is why Yahushua told us lusting upon another is committing adultery in the heart. He made it clear the Laws of God were to be placed upon the heart so we understand how to circumcise the leaven from within.

This is to say - perfect humility is the expression of pure love.

Overcoming into the Name of God is when a soul is presented with the opportunity to attain what it 'wants' but chooses (instead) to honour the fulfilment of the Law of God by sacrificing that which the soul craved.

Abel offered the first fruits, which is what he would have wanted for himself, whereas Cain offered what he did not want. Thus ... the Royal Law has two parts that fosters love for the Father and Neighbour because love is when one places the needs of others before the oneself.

These two parts are, therefore, cyclical because the way we abound in the love of Christ is demonstrated by the way we care for our neighbours as we would care for ourselves.

This means (in) perfect equality.

This 'perfect equality' manifests the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God because the love we have for each other magnifies our love for the Father. This is because we are in Christ just as Christ is in the Most High and He dwells within us.

Consider The Following

Christianity seeks to honour the second part of the Royal Law but fails to recognise or consider the first part of the Royal Law. This is why the faith is rank with (visible) idolatry and (hidden) sexual immorality.

Idolatry is when a soul directs love away from the Most High so the process of rationalising self-aggrandisement can occur. The pursuit of this, vain-glory, will then cause the soul to justify iniquity - such as sexual immorality even into a reprobate mindset.

For example... Christianity worships (venerates Mary as) the queen of heaven and bows to carved images of the saints and the crucifixion of Yahushua on the babylonian cross. These are all 'visible' idols.

Islam, on the other hand, seeks to honour the first part of the Royal Law but fails to recognise or consider the second part of the Royal Law. This is why Islam is ranked with (visible) sexual immorality and (hidden) idolatry.

Sexual immorality is when the soul has been deluded into thinking self-gratification serves a higher purpose (such as the fertility worship in paganism).

The pursuit of such wanton lust is predicated at the expense of the basic needs - of victims - which is why they openly declare child marriage is acceptable (under sharia law). Their sharia law is devoid of any appreciation for the second part of the Royal Law which allows Muslims to enter into a murderous mindset - when they see 'visible' idolatry.

They are not bound by the 'love thy neighbour as thyself' precept of the Royal Law - because their doctrines do not allow equality to exist. Thus... they look like wild donkeys (as prophesied by the Most High himself) when they rape and murder Christians.

This is 'visible' sexual immorality.

Idolatry is sexual immorality in the spiritual.

Sexual immorality is idolatry in the spiritual.

Thus... evil is also cyclical in the way it enslaves the soul within the chains of wickedness (a state of delusion). What we are seeing in the world today is a clear and distinctive highlight of the failure to accept the Word of God.

This is why idolatry is visible in Christianity and sexual immorality is visible in Islam. What about the things that are hidden?

Christians practice sexual immorality behind closed doors because pornography gives them a false sense of security and freedom.

Muslims practice idolatry behind closed doors because they bow (religiously) toward the black-stone in Mecca several times a day.

These two opposing religions are pointing the finger at the visible iniquity they see in each other while they continue to practice their hidden iniquity. This is called hypocrisy - which is plain to God: and He sees these two as the iron and miry clay that make up the feet of the statue in Nebuchadnezzar's vision (in the Book of Daniel).

Miry clay = unclean spirit refusing to repent.

These 'factions' have their own leaders that are personified as the King of the South (caliphate) and the King of the North (illuminati) - that are also spoken of in the Book of Daniel. Nebuchadnezzar's vision included a mountain from which a rock, not fashioned by hand, would be cut out and used to smash the feet of the statute.

Yahushua confirms this when He said the Son of Man will return during the time of the ten kings (that are depicted as the ten toes of that vision).

Where does Israel fit into this equation?

Well... the Jewish people may have held on to their traditions and retained a visible presence that bears witness to the Most High: but they have - also - developed a hard heart (iron) and unclean spirit (clay) because they assert the letter of the law to maintain a secular system of government / priesthood.

They have adopted this position because they refuse to acknowledge Yahushua fulfilled the first half of the (Messiah) ministry - and the priesthood is intent upon holding on to power. By asserting the letter of the law they diminish the capacity to effect the cyclicity of love that allows a person to be perfect as the Father is also perfect in Heaven because this facilitates the establishment of hierarchy.

Hierarchy is the presence of (visible) sin.

This means the mountain is the people who accept Yahushua - and the rock, not fashioned by hand, are those who were called out of her (Babylon - ways of the world). The rock, not fashioned by hand, is made up of the Righteous Elect who rooted out all the false doctrines of the apostate religions.

They are the ones who placed the Seal of God upon the forehead when they acknowledged the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God is made manifest when we abound in the love of Christ.

They made the cyclicity of love effectual when they accepted the Laws of God into the heart and placed the Name of God in the forehead. A soul that loves another (in perfect humility) is worshiping the Father in Heaven in spirit and truth - and such a soul is made perfect when they suffer for the sake of righteousness.

This is how a soul glorifies God because God can only be glorified in love.

Otherwise... the religion is apostate, having a set of doctrines that appear to have cohesive truths, and the follower is deluded by their own desires - to believe them.

For example... an atheist will declare a person is capable of being moral without having a faith in any God.

This means they are declaring the first part of the Royal Law null and void - so they can love whatever they want in the world. Thus, they end up pursuing self-indulgences that lead to the relaxing of laws - which then lead to a lawless society: and a run away problem with sexual immorality and idolatry - that causes dreadful harm to the vulnerable.

In extreme cases they think themselves to be god and, as such, they are primed to fall for the reprobate angels promise of godhood status if they accept a genetic upgrade to immortality. The reason why the Most High is angered by these people is because they can see their actions cause harm but they don't care. The only way to love perfectly is to fulfil the Royal Law by placing the unutterable, ineffable, Name of God in the forehead.

THE LIVING JUDGEMENT

There is scripture that may not be canonized but they do contain valuable insight into the criteria for judgement. First thing we are to understand is when Yâhushúa declared the acceptable year of the Lord - the living judgement would begin with His ministry. The 'living judgement' is when people, in their physical (flesh) estate, can come to knowledge of the Father by:

- 1) Accepting Yâhushúa
- 2) Repentance
- 3) ...to receive revelation from the Father
- 4) Sanctification unto purity and perfection

This 'living judgement' allows the Father, in Heaven, to ascertain the heart of a person - so He may call them or not call them. I'm sure you've heard about being called and the scripture that says Yâhushúa searches the hearts of people.

This is a time when the Father will consider ways to bring a person, He wants, to Himself and that is why the 'living judgement' is known as 'the process by which a person is brought to the knowledge of the Most High'.

This process is often beyond our ability to comprehend... but we can (often) detect the tell-tale signs of how the Father is working on a person. Usually when a person is constantly being brought low when things go wrong for them.

However... did you know the scripture has a duality of knowledge that allows a person to see something (the same thing) one way or the other (in a different light)? The way we perceive the scripture let's the Father know how the way our hearts are expressing itself through pride or humility.

If you look to a typical doctrine that was gleaned from scripture - you'll see one person sees it one way whereas another might see it completely the opposite way.

This often leads to believers debating or arguing, over which way is right and which way is wrong, and many doctrines have remained unresolved for thousands of years because people refuse to acknowledge there are two ways to perceive scripture.

This tells the Father what kind of person a reader is - if they choose to believe a doctrine based on what feels right or makes sense rather than taking a step back to see the whole picture - to recognise how one way glorifies God while the other way gives glory to satan.

Seriously... any false doctrine gleaned from scripture is a misinterpretation of the Word of God - because the reader wants to see what they see. If they took a step back to see the way a doctrine can go one way or the other... they'd know what is right because they could see how one way allows a person to be prideful while the other allows a person to be humble.

This contrast becomes so obvious it's shocking to see people choose the doctrines that facilitate pride thinking they are true. I see this everyday - and it places me in a position to understand how the Father performs the task of the living judgement which means I can see how to work with the Holy Spirit.

I refrain from judging others because I know that although I see what the Father sees... I know only the Father can lift up stones to heaven - so I sow the seeds when it's time to sow and reap when it's time to reap.

The living judgement, therefore, can lead to four kinds of people.

These are categorised in Enoch (re. the deep hollows) and the Tripartite Tractate (re. the three kinds of human).

These categories fall into four types:

- 1) Those who have a bright spring of water.
- 2) Those not called - but remain in sin.
- 3) Those who are martyred for their faith.
- 4) Those who are complete in their sin.

The three kinds of human are:

- 1) Spiritual who receive revelation.
- 2) Physical who are difficult to ascertain.
- 3) Material who hate the light and Christ.

The second one from the three kinds of human are those who will either be number two or three in the four categories. This is the living judgement - so: the Father knows which deep hollow to place a person after they die (the first death).

Those who go into the fourth chamber (who hate the light and attack the Christ) are considered complete in their transgression - so they will never rise from this chamber. Those in the first and third chamber will come to the first resurrection where the spiritual kind will minister unto the physical kind during the Millennial Rule of Christ.

Those in the second chamber will rise after the Millennial Rule with satan so they can have one last opportunity to repent. This means everything is based on the willingness to receive the Word of God (Yâhushúa) so they may receive revelation from the Father as they shed their worldly ways unto purity and perfection. There is scripture that describes the seven stages a person goes through after they die and go to the chamber they have earned during the living judgement.

Now... the eternal judgement is a whole new level of wow because the White Throne Judgement will even involve considering the actions of the angels that are supposed to watch over us and protect us as we learn to walk in the ways of the Lord. The point I'm making here is... yes... the Father is the one who judges - but we can (and should) learn how to work with the Holy Spirit: not hinder the Holy Spirit by judging righteously - to let the Name of God be made manifest.

The ability to do that is rather complicated - so I'll spare you the details: because it involves learning how to place the Name of God in the forehead.

Suffice to say... you may not be in a position to judge - but there comes a time when we must drive out sin the way Yâhushúa drove out the money changers from the temple. This means calling people to repentance and refusing to condone sinful behaviour.

We must renounce all forms of sexual immorality and all forms of idolatry - having the good clean conscience to be able to do that because hypocrisy is far from the truth.

BEFORE TIME ENDS

I consider scripture to be an attitude adjustment handbook - because 'attitude' is the spiritual condition of a soul. The thing is ... scripture has duality which can foster religiosity when such attitude is lacking the capacity to circumcise leaven.

Leaven (ego) is the ingredient that causes the heart to puff up with pride - and defile the soul with iniquitous behaviour. Attitude is easy to observe - regardless of age or race: because it is either right or wrong - as described by scripture in terms of gender.

Male = Faithful to the Most High

Female = Unfaithful to the Most High

This does not mean physical gender of male and female - but, rather, the attitude, or type of spirit, one has in relation to the Most High. The Most High refers to Himself as the Father in Heaven who creates Children of Light by the process of sanctification into His hallowed, ineffable, Name.

They personify the truth by the way they abound in the love of Christ - as demonstrated by Yahushua ben Yosef (Jesus son of Joseph).

The scripture, having duality, also allows those who study the Word of God to develop doctrines that establish an aggregate system of belief - which result in delusion. This is why so many religions have emerged with so many denominations - all professing to be the purveyors of 'the' truth.

It doesn't take a genius to see - not all, if any, are actually right in their doctrinal assertions. The situation has reached a critical point because delusion is taking hold in all walks of life including science (which purports their methodology is used to avoid delusion).

Delusion is the product of a single or collective mind that observes a series of evidences which are interoperated to create a cohesive (apparent) truth. Evolution contains cohesive (apparent) truths because mutation and speciation is perceived as direct evidence for transition.

This allows deniers of the creator to ignore the Royal Law - so they can pursue the lust for power (and engage in sexual immorality). Of course... this is not a valid reason - because it may be the creator used the slight modification (as proposed by evolution) to gradually create man.

The scripture can be interpreted to say this.

The point is ... delusion serves one purpose - to facilitate the ego to assert itself as god. The issue is not 'is there a creator' but, rather, who had moral authority to govern society. Pagans and satanists etc think the Most High denies us the right to govern self - but the truth is: He has commanded us to govern self within the parameters of the Royal Law.

Science is aware the human brain is hardwired to worship something - which is why we see so many obscure delusions that allows the heart to deceive the soul into idolatry. Idolatry is the worship of a false god or gods such as the ego or money or demon or whatever seduces the soul into the delusion of self-aggrandizement.

Self-aggrandizement is the purposeful blasphemy of the Name of God - and it even exists within the Christian faith. The Christian faith is so dirty, at the moment, it's no wonder so many are looking elsewhere for spiritual nourishment.

The thing is ... Yahushua taught us how to be free of all delusion if we embrace the process of sanctification into the the Name of God.

The only way to undergo this process is to appreciate His life story - which shows us how we can receive the four seals to be born again.

The Process Of Sanctification

The first seal is the moment we accept the Word of God as the moral authority. Waxing strong - in the spirit.

The second seal is baptism in water after studying the Word of God diligently. Time in the wildness - starved of self.

The third seal is the Name of God which is placed in the forehead after overcoming the temptation of satan. Ministered into the full knowledge - of God.

The fourth seal is a living death in Christ which facilitates being born again into the kingdom. Receiving the garments - after translation.

This process is observed in the life Yahushua lived so we may follow in His footsteps. This process is non-negotiable - because the only way the Father can ensure Eternal Paradise is never tainted by sin is to purify us from the predilection to self-aggrandizement.

Yahushua told us ... the angels faces of children are continually turned toward the Father in Heaven. This is because children do not have the predilection to self-aggrandizement. They do not use guile to elevate themselves because they are not enslaved by the chains of wickedness (sexual immorality).

However... society does bombard them with ideologies that inspire them to develop the predilection to self-aggrandize themselves - and many are even placed within the chains of wickedness by paedophiles and media.

This situation is already spiralling out of control - where satan is seeking to confuse the gender in order to make children more susceptible to the delusions that lock the soul into a system controlled by satan. The point is ... once we fall into the chains of wickedness - we are enslaved to satan until we undergo the process of sanctification into the Name of God. This process removes all delusions that create false doctrines or inaccurate science etc.

Apostasy, or falling away from truth, is the product of an innate desire to assert authority over others - thus: humility is the key (not knowledge or wisdom).

Wisdom is the by-product of attitude which can exemplify the Name of God (which is perfect equality) or the name of satan (which is hierarchy).

Wisdom can be of the flesh - being darkness cannot comprehend the light.

Wisdom can be of the spirit - which is the light that destroys the darkness.

The darkness cannot receive the Name of God because it flees from the light.

The light refuses to accept the name of satan (mark of the beast) because it wishes to remain clean. The process of sanctification:

- 1) Accept the Word - moral authority
- 2) Baptism in water - study the scripture
- 3) Baptism in fire (Name of God)
- 4) Born Again - death in Christ

This process has been perverted by satan to hide the third seal (Name of God) - by making the fourth the first - the first the second - and the second the third. Christians today argue Yahushua was never born again because He was born divine which means they are denying He is worthy.

They argue this because they believe born again means accepting the Word of God. Thus... they are denying themselves the opportunity to receive their garments of glory which is exactly what satan wants.

We need to let our angels know they can turn their faces to the Father and know we will never transgress the Royal Law so they need not worry about our actions.

This is what it means to be as one of the little ones - which Yahushua urged us to be like. I understand many Christians want to think belief in Yahushua is sufficient - but the scripture tells us: no unclean thing will enter into the Holy City - New Jerusalem.

The good news is ... Father has patience - but time is running out. There will be a thousand years to get this right after Yahushua returns - but I urge all to embrace the Name of God today.

THE PROCESS OF SANCTIFICATION

The devil is aware of this process because he witnessed Yeshua go through it in the wilderness. This is why, after hearing the words: "Let us make (advance) man in our image," he immediately set about trying to counterfeit the process of sanctification by introducing the concept of evolution - so mankind would identify with the purpose of life and the ability to grow in physical terms.

However... the original meaning of those words were intended to introduce a method of advancing mankind in the image of God - by allowing the spirit to grow in preparation for life eternal. The devil has it in mind to seduce people into pursuing immortality in this world - with empty promises this universe will continue to exist for billions of years.

He is doing this by corrupting the genome under auspicious guise of advancing man - so people will marvel at his technological prowess.

This is called transhumanism - and it has gained extensive interest, in science, as a legitimate pursuit for the advancement of mankind. However... this heaven and earth will pass away and the only thing that will remain are the Words of Yeshua (names in the Book of Life).

The question is: how can a person be sure to obtain a place in the Book of Life?

The strange thing is... no one is placed into the Book of Life - because everyone is (apparently) already written into the Book of Life. Scripture tells us... a person can be blotted out of the Book of Life if they are complete in their transgressions against the Lord.

Of course... we still hope to be included in the Book of Life and feel concern we may be blotted out. We don't know what constitutes 'completeness in transgression' much less the criteria for entry into the Kingdom of Heaven - even though Yeshua told us - we must be as little children: to encourage us to be susceptible to the Word of God.

Well... the good news is: there is a process of sanctification that will help everyone understand (see) the path home to the Father which I shall charity for all.

First of all... we need to understand there is a 'living judgement' which came into effect when Yeshua proclaimed the acceptable year of the Lord - because the Father (having received the prayer of Yeshua in the Garden of Gethsemany) can use the blood of the Lamb of God to bring those He calls to Himself.

This is because an era of grace was established, when Yeshua laid His life down, and this allowed the Father to nurture those who are susceptible to the Word of God. He (Father) has the righteous means to help a Child of Light grow in the spirit so they can advance in the image of God.

This is achieved by repentance.

Let us be crystal clear here... repentance is not the ardent heartfelt desire to be right with God - but the actual denying satan his temptation to transgress against the Father. Repentance is when a person turns away from iniquity.

If a person struggles with this, as they plummet deeper and deeper into an abyss where they fall further and further away from the presence of the Father, they will become more susceptible to obsessive behaviour that is demonic in nature. Such a person may become debauched with every conceivable wicked thought imaginable - and they will feel powerless to stop themselves.

The worst case scenario is actual physical attack by spiritual entities - or demonic rape which has been documented. This can be frightening... but it doesn't mean the Father has lost interest in them. He is letting them attain a measure of the torment that will befall those who are complete in their transgression - before they lose the opportunity to repent.

The mere fact a person is suffering is evidence the Father wants them to recognise the seriousness of the situation - so they become serious about taking the journey home to the Father. Most Christians never fall so far but that doesn't mean they are not in danger of falling if they don't learn to walk upright before the Father.

The good news is... our Father has patience. He has the power to reveal sin - to bring a Child of Light into His loving presence... but this usually takes time and effort and the soul needs to be susceptible to His loving guidance (Word of God).

Yeshua is the only one who can save a soul from eternal torment so it's important to show commitment in the journey to purity and perfection. The best way to prove we are committed to the process of sanctification - which means removing all the garments (worldly ways) and trample on them - is to repent of a sin that may be easier to do.

For example...

If you give up eating swine - you can use this opportunity to let the Father know... you consider His Word more authoritative and the act of never eating pork or ham or gammon or bacon ever again will mark the beginning of your commitment to walking upright before the Lord.

He will see you mean business - at this time - and, though He may watch to see if you falter for a time, it will please Him if you keep to your word: and never even entertain the thought of eating swine again. This is like telling the Father... I am fully committed to being purified and perfected by the process of sanctification He has established.

In time... the mere thought of pork will make you feel sick - because the blood of Yeshua, will return you to a state of re-sensitized - where the sight of evil will sicken you - but you need to be practical about this because there is no way you can remove all worldly ways in one go.

You can only do this slowly.

Like cleaning your house - takes time and effort... especially as you'll encounter sins you never thought were sins. This is the 'process of sanctification' that allows man to advance in the image of God.

The angels are in awe of this - because they see a person come to life as they fashion a hand in place of a hand, then a foot in place of a foot, then an eye in place of an eye and so on: until a person is whole - ready to receive their garments of glory. From the impure to the debauched - this process was established, by the Father, before Yeshua entered into the world because the Book of Revelation tells us no one was worthy to take the scroll from the Throne of God.

When a soul overcomes in the Name of God - it receives revelation from the Father (peer into the scroll at the throne of God). It was when Yeshua overcame temptation, in the wilderness, He was able to attain the scroll: because we are told the angels ministered unto Him after He succeeded.

Later... when He asked His disciples: "Who do you say I am?" He (kinda) expected Peter to receive revelation from the Father because he had gone through the process of sanctification when he learned anger is not the answer - and he stopped himself from becoming angry again.

He had repented of anger - so it was fitting he received revelation from the Father. This is the Treasure in Heaven Yeshua spoke of - and you'll know your advancing in the image of God when you start to receive revelation from the Father.

However... it is important you never consider yourself to be greater or better as you start to grow - because that may render you lost again: if you forget to be humble - and it will be more difficult to return after that because the Father will not be mocked. Remember to always be grateful and remain humble when sharing insights and visions.

Most may already know these things - but it is fitting to clarify the journey is private and sacred: because we are all growing in spirit as the Son of Man ascends - because 'spiritually speaking' - the process of sanctification is ascension to the loving presence of the Father.

This means it's important to develop a strong faith - by the time we near purity and perfection - because we need to be nurtured by the visions Father will send: as and when we need them. When I discovered swine was forbidden food - I was upset because I liked bacon and egg sandwiches and ham salad sandwiches.

However... I told myself there were other meats I could eat so it made it easier to keep to my word - when I asked Father to recognise my commitment to going the distance. He saw this and acknowledged it - by showing patience whenever I stumbled. When you see there is an alternative - it helps to be strong when temptation comes... so it may help to read the articles I've written on what the Kingdom of Heaven (Eternal Paradise) will be like.

I find it easy to deny satan when I consider the three eternal wonders in the Kingdom of Heaven. The devil can only tempt you thrice in any day - because that is what Father has permitted. When Yeshua was in the wilderness... He knew there was an alternative which He would have focused on to overcome.

...and we all know what that is - right !??!

MY SPIRITUAL TESTIMONY

This was revealed as a vision to me - so I would know who I am and why things are as they are. I was sent to a foreign land (slightly reluctant to leave) and I struggled to learn the language of that country.

Years passed by with me being unable to effectively communicate with people and so I had to cope with being the idiot. I decided to learn how to communicate.

People started noticing something about me and suddenly I became a celebrity. Though... I couldn't understand what all the fuss was about. People revered me and always asked for my counsel - so I answered as honestly I could with each question that came.

Then... I met my beloved and became betrothed to her - and we both walked a wonderful journey as people looked to us with wonder and inspiration. It wasn't long after I met a seductive woman who was intent on causing me to leave the one I was betrothed to.

She invited me to her home where she spent the whole night trying to seduce me - even though my betrothed was beside me. This was strange but I remember the very thing that has power over a person lost its appeal - and suddenly: it looked grotesque in appearance. In the morning... it was time for me to return to where I was sent from - and so the mother, of the seductress, offered to take me to the location I needed to board my boat home.

At the harbour the seductress asked if I would visit again (hoping to see me again) so I agreed - but when she told me her address: I couldn't understand the place names. The mother offered to write directions.

When she handed me the directions, she had a look of desperation and asked me to solve the puzzle she had written. It was then I realised I was famous for solving an ancient puzzle. When I saw she was pleading with me in earnest I agreed to give it my full attention.

With this... a look of relief came over her and so we said our goodbyes and I watched the mother, and her daughter, walk into the crowds and vanish as they blended in. I turned to hold the hand of my betrothed, who was beside me all along, and we both boarded the boat destined for home. On the way home I looked to the puzzle, the mother gave me, and realised she had asked me to solve the mystery of iniquity.

I told myself I was not going to contemplate that and discarded the note over the edge and watched the foreign land fade into the distance.

FOR THE LOVE OF GOD

Every true-Christian knows - to follow in the footsteps of Yâhushúa will include moments of great faith (to go the extra mile). Walking on water highlights this eloquently. Rooting out apostasy (delusion) is the hardest of challenges - which is why: the anointed need patience to perfect their ways.

Learning to walk upright before the Father is considered a marvel of marvels: because the angels see a child growing in the womb.

The Male Child is the spirit of perfection.

Male = Faithful attitude toward the Father

Child = Willing to learn (without guile)

The sign of Revelation 12 means people will begin to appreciate the process of sanctification into the Name of God - and they will root out apostasy from the heart - so they may accept the seal of God.

The great dragon is the spirit of rebellion.

Evil = Not seeking God

satan = Rebellion against the Word of God

Those who refuse to placate their predilection to worship demons: will become incensed by those who manifest the Name of God. This will create an environment where agitation will force the elite to attack the elect - in a vain attempt to hide the Name of God.

This, of course, is when the great dragon lunges after the Male Child - but the child will be translated to the throne of God. These things are assured - even as people read this article to secure (understanding) oil.

The Father has established the process of sanctification into the Name of God - because only those who overcome can return home.

DUALITY IN LIFE

I called by to see my niece and her daughter asked me to read her a bed-time story. Unfortunately... she was so late going to bed – she wasn't allowed a bed-time story.

I told her I like to have a bed-time story too and showed her the read aloud bibles on my phone – and promised to find something similar for her. When she heard the word Jesus on the demo I gave she said about Him dying and coming back to life, so I asked if she knew why He came back to life.

She said “Magic,” with a massive smile.

I replied, “He came back to life because He was never naughty.”

In that moment I could see something registered deep within her, and she said, “I'm going to not be naughty again.” I explained, “Well... we all try to not be naughty – but it can be hard. Sometimes we make mistakes. What's important is we try to not be naughty.”

With that she smiled, gave her hugs and kisses, and went to bed.

The point I'm making here is... even a child of six can identify with the resurrection of Yeshua as a reason to love truth and walk upright before the Father in Heaven.

This means the duality we see in scripture and even science can be identified and rooted out to the moment a soul looks to Yeshua as Lord and Saviour.

The Book of Enoch tells us to look to nature, in the opening chapter, so we can identify with the way the Father allows the laws to remain constant. This is what science does as it seeks to understand the nature of reality and strives to formulate equations that describe the constants we see.

Of course... science usually does this to attain some measure of power because the human heart strives for such power in the name of progress – claiming the advancement will improve life. Indeed... science has achieved much... but the development of technology is questionable because it can empower the soul to live a perfidious lifestyle of iniquity – or facilitate the Word of God.

Technology started with the development of simple tools and farming equipment that led to the development of civilisation – which needed improved weaponry and defences against the challenge of authority within the societies and nations that arose in neighbouring areas.

Technology has now transcended into the psychology management of nations – as leaders seek to cultivate a single governing body that asserts a rule of law based upon maintenance of the hierarchy.

Scripture also has a duality in the way it can be interpreted to establish and maintain the hierarchy – just as the Pharisees mindset seeks to assert the hierarchy claiming a divine right to rule over others.

The Word of God is unequivocal in the way it defines the Name of God is made manifest in the way we abound in the love of Christ – which means we are to maintain perfect equality among each other and not use the scripture or science to assert any philosophy that approbates hierarchy.

My great-niece totally understood this, at a profound level, when she realised she has a responsibility to abound in the love of Christ – even though these kind of words were not used. I may have the ability to explain all these things so people can understand the options are simply:

- 1) Love Truth – to embrace the root of all virtue (as personified in Yeshua).
- 2) Love Money – to embrace the root of all evil (as personified in the system).

I am often amazed by the power of the resurrection that was granted by the Father unto Yeshua. This is to say... we all have the option to pursue power and assert authority or pursue humility and exemplify love. Children love toys (which are a form of pre-technology) because they love to pretend being mature and play within a world of imagination.

They also love to connect with hugs and playfulness – which is the true expression of love – without any regard for sexual expression: because they are perfect before the Father in Heaven. They are in a world that has galvanised the system of hierarchy to indoctrinate their minds with humanistic values that are based upon the false assertions in science, such as evolution, to encourage their souls to pursue power and authority – which is the broad path to destruction.

Every parent is duty bound to let their child know they have the option to pursue power and authority or seek humility in perfection – and while there are many philosophies and religions (including science) that profess to know the truth.

The only truth is the one that manifests the Name of God – as Yeshua did – which means any doctrine that allows a person to pursue authority is apostate (because there is no such thing as servile authority).

FATHER - ABOUT - FATHER

When I was about eight or nine I was walking along a pebble beach, in Aberaeron, with my father and he asked me, "Would you like to see something amazing?"

I said, "Yeah... sure."

He pointed out a breeze-block, that looked like a large pebble due to heavy erosion, and told me to throw it in the sea. The pebble was heavy and I remember wishing I didn't have to carry it as I took it to the water's edge.

I threw the shampere block into the sea and was amazed to see it floating in the water. As it bobbed about I asked my father, "Why is the rock floating in the sea?" He explained how the rock is full of air bubbles which made it buoyant in the water. I look back on that moment and imagine he asked if I wanted proof God existed instead of seeing something amazing and the conversation continued:

I asked, "How does this prove there's a God?"

He might squat down, look me straight in the eye, and say, "God is real when you recognise a higher Intelligence."

Of course... I would become puzzled by this so he would clarify, "I was able to explain why that rock floats in the sea because I understand why it floats."

I would probably still struggle to understand.

He would (then) conclude, "There are things in life that will always be a mystery to mankind - and as long as we do not understand something: we know there is a greater intelligence." I might then ask, "How do we know that proves anything?"

He would smile and say, "The ability to learn is the evidence such mysteries can be understood - and that shows we have the means to connect with a higher intelligence."

This is how I wish the conversation went - but, instead: he just tried to exalt himself. Anyway... I watched the rock and became a little memorised by the way it was bobbing up and down. My father said, "It's time we got back so Mam doesn't get worried."

He could have added, "Never forget you can only learn anything, worth knowing, if you respect the source of this knowledge."

Seek first the Kingdom of God.

Knowledge can be useless in many respects - because - information isn't always pertinent. For example... we do not need to know how reality exists - unless there is cause to manipulate it in some way.

Yahushua calmed the sea - but He only did that to continue resting (given the fact the disciples were getting funky over the weather conditions). He knew there was no danger so there was no need to control the elements. If the disciples understood who He was they would have known there was no danger.

The elite (satanists), on the other hand, have engaged in understanding reality, for sinister reasons, which has fed their egos into a state of depraved lasciviousness - precisely because they lack the assurance that comes from a loving relationship with the Father in Heaven.

They are enslaved by the impetus to 'evolve' into godhood status having the hubris to defy the Most High. What's driving them is the fact they know it is possible to be eternal. This is the promise our Father in Heaven has offered to those who learn to respect the Word of God.

The scripture tells us: the knowledge the reprobate angels had imparted upon mankind was useless - because this reality is scheduled for destruction. I saw a prediction from 1880s regarding the prophet Elijah, which spoke of the role he will play in effecting the translation, by initiating a biological change in certain individuals.

Now... I'm not sure about that - even though the scripture speaks of translation.

Elijah is, however, prophesied to return - and he will endeavour to turn the hearts of children and their fathers toward each other - lest the Most High brings a curse.

I remember the day a kitten, I got, was warily making his way up the garden path. I watched him from my window and noticed all the birds started to jibe at him from this tree that had no leaves.

He stood there looking up at the tree (probably wondering why they were being so nasty to him) so I got a slice of bread from the kitchen and went outside to sprinkle breadcrumbs around him.

He must have been wondering what on earth is going on here - as I walked back into the house. I watched from the window - how all the birds had fallen silent and after he noticed they had gone quiet: he looked back to me in amazement.

The point I'm making here is simply this...

We are vulnerable, like that kitten, to demonic attack from people who are possessed or even literally as demons try to possess or even (God forbid) rape us. The Father in Heaven knows how to silence the demons - so we may have peace: just as I was able to silence the birds that day.

The only thing the Father asks for is respect (all your love) so He can be a Father.

I could have let those birds continue to jibe at him until he came running back to me - but I chose to let him watch what I can do. That was the day he knew he had a higher intelligence that cared for him. That was important to him because he knew who I was to him in that moment.

This is what it means to recognise Yahushua is the Lord and Saviour.

We may be subjected to all kinds of terrible tribulation in this world - but the moment we know who He is: we find peace. Peace that is Holy and everlasting.

Yahushua wept with those who thought a young girl had died - even though He knew she was only sleeping (which means she was not spiritually dead). He ventured to where she lay and brought her back - for the glory of God to be made known - and this became a foreshadow of the bride awakening from her slumber.

A great awakening is about to take place and those who were wise (having rooted out all apostasy) will be translated to the place of safety - because the way will be made straight by Elijah for Yahushua to return.

Yes... Yahushua understands this reality - because He earned the authority to receive true knowledge having overcome into the Name of God. The wise virgins have also overcome because the Book of Revelation describes the 144,000 as male (which means spiritually faithful) virgins who were 'redeemed'.

Redeemed means they regained their virginity because they were able to don the garb of glory Yahushua has prepared for them. Technically speaking... their bodies of light could be transferred into a new (incorruptible) body - that is composed of crystal - like a diamond - which is not of this world.
